Alahmed, 2022-07-07 Anas M Alahmed argues that the Entertainment Authority of Saudi Arabia created in 2016 was meant to introduce a new Saudi to the Western outsider audience and that the new Saudi state is on a mission to transform the country from a traditional and conservative kingdom to a new state dedicated to social modernization and openness Alahmed contends that globalization and the neoliberalism capitalist mode of politics have reinforced the transformation of cultural production into global entertainment production Therefore the author shows how the entertainment sector relies heavily on reproducing the Western culture of entertainment production and depends on Western businesses to bring entertainment into the country instead of investing in local entertainment businesses which forces the state to adopt neoliberal capitalism The author provides evidence on how the new modernity of Saudi Arabia has become a political tool through which neoliberal capitalists can create positive relationships with Western capitals as part of the postcolonial struggle of neoliberalism in the Global South Alahmed argues that there is a connection between the role of geopolitical power in globalization and postcolonial studies that explains the struggles of indigenous cultures related to providing their own production to society Young Men in Uncertain Times Vered Amit, Noel Dyck, 2011-11-01 Anthropology is particularly well suited to explore the contemporary predicament in the coming of age of young men Its grounded and comparative empiricism provides the opportunity to move beyond statistics moral panics or gender stereotypes in order to explore specific aspects of life course transitions as well as the similar or divergent barriers or opportunities that young men in different parts of the world face Yet effective contextualization and comparison cannot be achieved by looking at male youths in isolation This volume undertakes to contextualize male youths circumstances and to learn about their lives perspectives and actions and in turn illuminates the larger structures and processes that mediate the experiences entailed in becoming young men The situation of male youths provides an important vantage point from which to consider broader social transformations and continuities By paying careful attention to these contexts we achieve a better understanding of the current influences encountered and acted upon by young people
