Forgotten God Perspectives In Biblical Theology:

The Forgotten God Paul J. Achtemeier, A. Andrew Das, Frank J. Matera, 2002-01-01 This volume provides a comprehensive survey of the unity and diversity behind biblical conceptions of God This is accomplished by respecting the distinctive theology of each canonical book and by placing reflection about God in conversation with major themes of biblical theology Christology pneumatology anthropology Four essays examine the Old Testament images of God while ten essays address the way in which God is presented in the New Testament The volume is rounded off with an essay exploring biblical preaching about God The Forgotten God A. Andrew Das, Frank J. Matera, 2002 God's Saving Grace Frank J. Matera, 2012-11-17 Distinguished biblical scholar Frank Matera here views the theology of the Pauline letters through the lens of the saving grace that Paul experienced at his call and conversion Focusing on Christology soteriology theology anthropology ecclesiology ethics and eschatology Matera explores both the unity and the diversity of the thirteen Pauline letters Written in a clear and coherent style God's Saving Grace presents students professors and pastors with a comprehensive yet concise and accessible overview of the theology found in the entire corpus of Paul's letters God as Father in Luke-Acts Diane G. Chen, 2006 God as Father in Luke Acts argues that Father is the central image for God in Luke Acts by tracing a line of continuity in the portrayal of God as Israel's merciful faithful and authoritative Father from the Old Testament to Luke Acts and its Second Temple Jewish milieu The fulfillment of the promises to Abraham David and Israel in Jesus is best understood as the fatherly actions of Israel's God Furthermore the striking similarities between God as Father and Augustus as Pater Patriae undermine the assertion of the Lukan view of the Roman Empire as highly polemical Ex Auditu - Volume 20 Klyne Snodgrass, 2005-02-12 Ex Auditu began as the journal incorporating the papers of the Fredrick Neumann Symposium of Princeton Theological Seminary After the first four volumes the journal began publishing the papers from the North Park Symposium on the Theological Interpretation of Scripture The intent from the first has been to provide a forum for doing interdisciplinary theology from a biblical perspective for the benefit of the Church Each annual publication focuses on a topic crucial to the life of today's Church Additionally each issue contains an annotated bibliography and a sermon which makes it a practical guide for pastors EDITOR Dr Stephen Chester Associate Professor of New Testament North Park Theological Seminary EDITOR EMERITUS Dr Klyne R Snodgrass Paul W Brandel Professor of New Testament Studies at North Park Theological Seminary ASSOCIATE EDITOR Dr D Christopher Spinks Acquisitions Editor at Wipf and Stock Publishers EDITORIAL BOARD Terence E Fretheim Luther Seminary St Paul MN Richard B Hays Duke Divinity School Durham NC Jon R Stock Wipf and Stock Publishers Eugene OR Miroslav Volf Yale Divinity School New Haven CT John Wipf Wipf and Stock Publishers Eugene OR SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION Individuals U S A and all other countries in U S funds 20 00 Students 12 00 Institutions 30 in the U S and 40 for international shipments in U S funds To subscribe Send pertinent information to Wipf and Stock Publishers at orders@wipfandstock.com and indicate your preferred method of payment Back issues are

Father, Son and Spirit Andreas J. Köstenberger, Scott R. Swain, 2016-02-10 In this New Studies in Biblical Theology volume Andreas J Köstenberger and Scott R Swain provide a thorough biblical survey and theological treatment of the three persons of the Godhead in John's Gospel

The Baptismal Episode as Trinitarian Narrative Hallur Mortensen, 2020-11-09 Hallur Mortensen examines the concept of God in Mark's Gospel with particular emphasis on the baptismal scene of 1:9-11 This he closely relates to the beginning and end of the prologue 1:2-3 and 1:14-15 concerning the coming of the Lord the gospel and the kingdom of God The allusions of the divine voice to Psalm 2 and Isaiah 42 reveal the function and identity of Jesus as the Son of God and thus also of God as the father of Jesus The identity and descent of the Spirit at the baptism as an anointing is discussed in detail and has a critical function in the coming of the kingdom and the defeat of Satan These aspects are examined in the context of Jewish monotheism and what Hans W Frei calls the intention action description of identity that being is constituted by action and Mortensen thus argues that Mark's Gospel portrays a proto and narrative trinitarian conception of God

You Are My Son Amy L. B. Peeler, 2014-04-24 The author of Hebrews calls God Father only twice in his sermon This fact could account for scholarship's lack of attention to the familial dynamics that run throughout the letter Peeler argues however that by having God articulate his identity as Father through speaking Israel's Scriptures at the very beginning and near the end of his sermon the author sets a familial framework around his entire exhortation The author enriches the picture of God's family by continually portraying Jesus as God's Son the audience as God's many sons the blessings God bestows as inheritance and the trials God allows as pedagogy The recurrence of the theme coalesces into a powerful ontological reality for the audience because God is the Father of Jesus Christ they too are the sons of God But even more than the model of sonship Jesus relationship with his Father ensures that the children of God will endure the race of faith to a successful finish because they are an integral part of comprehensive inheritance promised by his Father and secured by his obedience Because of the familial relationship between God and Jesus the audience of Hebrews God's children can remain in the house of God forever

The Theological Role of Paradox in the Gospel of Mark Laura C. Sweat, 2013-08-15 Scholarship on the Gospel of Mark has long been convinced of the paradoxical description of two of its primary themes christology and discipleship This book argues that paradoxical language pervades the entire narrative and that it serves a theological purpose in describing God's activity Part One focuses on divine action present in Mark 4:10-12 In the first paradox Mark portrays God's revelatory acts as consistently accompanied by concealment The second paradox is shown in the various ways in which divine action confirms yet counters scripture Finally Mark describes God's actions in ways that indicate both wastefulness and goodness deeds that are further illuminated by the ongoing yet defeated presence of evil Part Two demonstrates that this paradoxical language is widely attested across Mark's passion narrative as he continues to depict God's activity with the use of the three paradoxes observed in Mark 4 Through paradoxical narrative Mark emphasizes God's transcendence and presence showing that even though Jesus has brought revelation a complete understanding of God remains tantalizingly out of their grasp until the eschaton 4 22

Text Message Ian Stackhouse, Oliver D. Crisp, 2014-03-10 Preaching has fallen on hard times with many questioning its relevance and even its validity as a New Testament practice This symposium of specially commissioned essays draws together an international team of thirteen scholars and pastors to address the importance of textual preaching in the history and life of the early church the historic church and the contemporary church Contributions include essays on Old Testament preaching preaching in Hebrews gender sensitive preaching preaching in the theology of Jonathan Edwards Charles Spurgeon Dietrich Bonhoeffer and in Eastern Orthodoxy It also includes essays on a range of homiletical challenges that textual preaching raises for the contemporary preacher including genre preaching without notes inhabiting the text and preaching without platitudes A final reflection by Dave Hansen on the state of textual preaching rounds out the collection The preaching of the gospel stands at the heart of Christian praxis These essays make a vital contribution to the recovery of the importance of preaching focused on the text of Scripture Written with an eye to the pastor and practitioner as well as those in the pews and in the classroom this is a book that should appeal to a wide range of readers Love in the Gospel of John Francis J. SDB Moloney, 2013-11-19 The command to love is central to the Gospel of John Internationally respected scholar Francis Moloney offers a thorough exploration of this theme focusing not only on Jesus's words but also on his actions Instead of merely telling people that they must love one another Jesus acts to make God's love known and calls all who follow him to do the same This capstone work on John's Gospel uses a narrative approach to delve deeply into a theme at the heart of the Fourth Gospel and the life of the Christian church Uniting rigorous exegesis with theological and pastoral insight it makes a substantive contribution to contemporary Johannine scholarship The Bible and Spirituality Andrew T. Lincoln, J. Gordon McConville, Lloyd K. Pieterse, 2013-07-05 The essays in this volume aim to contribute to the newly developing academic subject of biblical spirituality It is prompted by the belief that although the Christian tradition has always nurtured an emphasis on spirituality rooted in the Bible and its interpretation few biblical scholars until recently have pursued their work by making connections with either this religious tradition or present day interest in the broader phenomenon of spirituality Spiritual interpretation has overlaps with theological interpretation but is distinctive because of its focus on the wisdom of lived experience and practice The essays therefore attempt from within the context of the academy responsible readings of Scripture that have as a major focus the study of how particular texts might contribute to a spirituality in which individual and communal flourishing is a major feature The essays began as papers produced for an international symposium on the Bible and Spirituality in May 2012 hosted by the Centre for the Study of the Bible and Spirituality in the School of Humanities at the University of Gloucestershire Abingdon Old Testament Commentaries: Psalms 73-150 Dr. Richard J. Clifford, 2003-11-01 This second volume completes Richard Clifford's Commentary on the Psalms The rich imagery of the Psalms has guided and molded pray-ers since ancient times As we seek to understand the threads and colors of the Psalms Clifford helps us see their inner dramatic logic how they organize the experience and desires of the pray-er and how they seek to move us His primary concern is to help readers see the pattern and progression within the Psalms while attending to their complex evocative nature Reconsidering Creation Ex Nihilo in Genesis 1 Nathan J. Chambers, 2020-11-15 There is a broad consensus among biblical scholars that creation ex nihilo from nothing is a late Hellenistic concept with little inherent connection to Genesis 1 and other biblical creation texts In this book Nathan J

Chambers forces us to reconsider the question arguing in favor of reading this chapter of the Bible in terms of ex nihilo creation and demonstrating that there is a sound basis for the early Christian development of the doctrine. Drawing on the theology of Augustine of Hippo and Thomas Aquinas, Chambers considers what the ex nihilo doctrine means and does in classical Christian dogma. He examines ancient Near Eastern cosmological texts that provide a potential context for reading Genesis 1. Recognizing the distance between the possible historical and theological frameworks for interpreting the text, he illuminates how this doctrine developed within early Christian thought as a consequence of the church's commitment to reading Genesis 1 as part of Christian Scripture. Through original close readings of the chapter that engage critically with the work of Jon Levenson, Hermann Gunkel, and Brevard Childs, Chambers demonstrates that far from precluding interpretive possibilities, reading Genesis 1 in terms of creation from nothing opens up a variety of interpretive avenues that have largely been overlooked in contemporary biblical scholarship. Timely and innovative, this book makes the case for a new or recovered framework for reading Genesis 1 that will appeal to biblical studies scholars and seminarians.

Mission after Pentecost (Mission in Global Community) Amos Yong, 2019-10-15. Bringing Pentecostal theology into the Bible and mission conversation, Amos Yong identifies the role of the divine spirit in God's mission to redeem the world. As he works through the Bible from Genesis to Revelation, Yong emphasizes the global missiological imperative: People of all nations reaching out to people of all nations. Sidebars include voices from around the globe who help the author put the biblical text into conversation with twenty-first century questions, offering the church a fresh understanding of its mission and how to pursue it in the decades to come.

The Letter to the Hebrews: Critical Readings Scott D. Mackie, 2018-04-05. The Letter to the Hebrews is a key text in the New Testament canon. It has recently received a great deal of attention, prompting a resurgence of scholarly works and a need to re-engage with some of the foundational works of scholarship on the text. The history of research on Hebrews is presented in this volume of critical readings, edited by Scott D. Mackie. The volume is organized thematically, addressing the following sub-areas: theology, Christology, and pneumatology; eschatology; authorship and audience; structure; and Greco-Roman influences; the relationship with contemporaneous Judaism and soteriology. Each section is prefaced by an introduction and summary of the particular theme in Hebrews. At the end of each section is an annotated bibliography to point researchers towards further readings in and engagements with these key themes.
