Committee on Un-American Activities,1956 Up the Republic! Fintan O'Toole,2012-10-30 In this important book historians lawyers economists and writers come together to put a coherent case that although the Irish economic collapse has resulted in national humiliation renewed emigration and a decline in living standards for the majority of the population there is still hope that the country can be reformed and renewed Irish politicians offered the now notorious blanket guarantee to all the banks which had got in over their heads during the great property bubble including one that had become little more than a criminal enterprise A different set of politicians grimly enforces the consequences of that guarantee locking an entire generation of Irish men and women into paying for the mistakes of greedy bankers and their corrupt friends in government The energy of hope has to come from elsewhere These essays demonstrate how simple measures and different economic and social policies could release that energy and fulfil the promise of an educated literate and culturally vibrant people Report of the Select Committee to Investigate Communist Aggression and the Forced Incorporation of the Baltic States Into the U.S.S.R. United States. Meija,2005-07-11 Latvians have contributed to the cultural mosaic and economy of Michigan far more than one might imagine There are three large Latvian communities in Michigan Kalamazoo Detroit and Grand Rapids with several smaller enclaves elsewhere in the state An underlying goal of Latvians who now live in Michigan as well as other parts of the United States and Canada is to maintain their language and culture More than five thousand Latvians came to Michigan after World War II found gainful employment purchased homes and became a part of the Michigan population Most sought to reeducate themselves and struggled to educate their children in Michigan s many colleges and universities Latvians in Michigan examines Latvia and its history and describes how World War II culminated in famine death and eventual flight from their homeland by many Latvian refugees After the war ended most Latvian emigrants eventually made their way to Sweden or Germany where they lived in displaced persons camps From there the emigrants were sponsored by individuals or organizations and they moved once again to other parts of the world Many came to the United States where they established new roots and tried to perpetuate their cultural heritage while establishing new lives
