Presence Of Mind Pepi Leistyna,2019-05-20 Taking up the ever shifting cultural and political landscape in the United States Presence of Mind addresses how power manifests itself within and across different social and educational terrain covering a number of contemporary topics and polemics that are central to teaching educational theory and practice

Pepi Leistyna argues that it is imper Living within Limits Garrett Hardin,1995-04-06 We fail to mandate economic sanity writes Garrett Hardin because our brains are addled by compassion With such startling assertions Hardin has cut a swathe through the field of ecology for decades winning a reputation as a fearless and original thinker A prominent biologist ecological philosopher and keen student of human population control Hardin now offers the finest summation of his work to date with an eloquent argument for accepting the limits of the earth s resources and the hard choices we must make to live within them In Living Within Limits Hardin focuses on the neglected problem of overpopulation making a forceful case for dramatically changing the way we live in and manage our world Our world itself he writes is in the dilemma of the lifeboat it can only hold a certain number of people before it sinks not everyone can be saved The old idea of progress and limitless growth misses the point that the earth and each part of it has a limited carrying capacity sentimentality should not cloud our ability to take necessary steps to limit population But Hardin refutes the notion that goodwill and voluntary restraints will be enough Instead nations where population is growing must suffer the consequences alone Too often he writes we operate on the faulty principle of shared costs matched with private profits In Hardin's famous essay The Tragedy of the Commons he showed how a village common pasture suffers from overgrazing because each villager puts as many cattle on it as possible since the costs of grazing are shared by everyone but the profits go to the individual The metaphor applies to global ecology he argues making a powerful case for closed borders and an end to immigration from poor nations to rich ones The production of human beings is the result of very localized human actions corrective action must be local Globalizing the population problem would only ensure that it would never be solved Hardin does not shrink from the startling implications of his argument as he criticizes the shipment of food to overpopulated regions and asserts that coercion in population control is inevitable But he also proposes a free flow of information across boundaries to allow each state to help itself The time honored practice of pollute and move on is no longer acceptable Hardin tells us We now fill the globe and we have nowhere else to go In this powerful book one of our leading ecological philosophers points out the hard choices we must make and the solutions we have been afraid to consider

My Son is an Alien Marcel Danesi, 2003 My Son Is an Alien is an entertaining informative look at cultural influences on today's youth Based on interviews with hundreds of teens pre teens and parents the book sketches out facets of the adolescent's cultural portrait from body image and slang to peer pressure and drugs Filled with facts commentaries anecdotes and resources it also includes numerous features on topics like teen expressions and the least family friendly TV shows Danesi proposes strategies for changing the prevailing mindset on youth including reconnecting adolescents to adult society

Debates on U.S. Immigration Judith Gans, Elaine M. Replogle, Daniel J. Tichenor, 2012-08-17 This issue's based reference work available in both print and electronic formats shines a spotlight on immigration policy in the United States The U S is a nation of immigrants Yet while the lofty words enshrined with the Statue of Liberty stand as a source of national pride the rhetoric and politics surrounding immigration policy all too often have proven far less lofty In reality the apparently open invitation of Lady Liberty seldom has been without restriction Throughout our history impassioned debates about the appropriate scope and nature of such restriction have emerged and mushroomed among politicians among scholars of public policy among the general public In light of the need to keep students researchers and other interested readers informed and up to date on status of U S immigration policy this volume uses introductory essays followed by point counterpoint articles to explore prominent and perennially important debates providing readers with views on multiple sides of this complex issue While there are some brief works looking at debates on immigration as well as some general A to Z encyclopedias we offer more in depth coverage of a much wider range of themes and issues thus providing the only fully comprehensive point counterpoint handbook tackling the issues that political science history and sociology majors are asked to explore and to write about as students and that they will grapple with later as policy makers and citizens Features Benefits The volume is divided into three sections each with its own Section Editor Labor Economic Debates Judith Gans Social Cultural Debates Judith Gans and Political Legal Debates Daniel Tichenor Sections open with a Preface by the Section Editor to introduce the broad theme at hand and provide historical underpinnings Each section holds 12 chapters addressing varied aspects of the broad theme of the section Chapters open with an objective lead in piece or headnote followed by a point article and a counterpoint article All pieces headnote point article counterpoint article are signed For each chapter students are referred to further readings data sources and other resources as a jumping off spot for further research and more in depth exploration Finally volume concludes with a comprehensive index and the electronic version includes search and browse features as well as the ability to link to further readings cited within chapters should they be available to the library in electronic format Library Journal ,1990 Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts ,1993
