Formation Of The Phillipps Library Betwe:

The Formation of the Phillipps Library Alan Noel Latimer Munby, 1954 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Mediaeval Art and Architecture in the East Riding of Yorkshire Christopher Wilson, 2024-12-20 The conference proceedings and transactions of the British Archaeological Association Conference for the year 1983 With focus on the topic of Medieval Art and Architecture in the East Riding of Yorkshire The Manuscripts Club Christopher de Hamel, 2023-11-14 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice The acclaimed author of Meetings with Remarkable Manuscripts introduces us to the extraordinary keepers and companions of medieval manuscripts over a thousand years of history The illuminated manuscripts of the Middle Ages are among the greatest works of European art and literature We are dazzled by them and recognize their crucial role in the transmission of knowledge However we generally think much less about the countless men and women who made collected and preserved them through the centuries and to whom they owe their existence This entrancing book describes some of the extraordinary people who have spent their lives among illuminated manuscripts over the last thousand years a monk in Normandy a prince of France a Florentine bookseller an English antiquary a rabbi from central Europe a French priest a Keeper at the British Museum a Greek forger a German polymath a British connoisseur and the woman who created the most spectacular library in America all of them members of what Christopher de Hamel calls the Manuscripts Club This exhilarating fraternity and the fellow enthusiasts who come with it throw new light on how manuscripts have survived and been used by very different kinds of people in many different circumstances Christopher de Hamel s unexpected connections and discoveries reveal a passion that crosses the boundaries of time We understand the manuscripts themselves better by knowing who their keepers and companions have been In 1850 or thereabouts John Ruskin bought his first manuscript at a bookseller s in a back alley This was his reaction The new worlds which every leaf of this book opened to me and the joy I had in counting their letters and unravelling their arabesques as if they had all been of beaten gold as many of them were cannot be told The members of de Hamel s club share many such wonders which he brings to us with scholarship style and a lifetime s experience A Guidebook to Manuscripts in the Library of the Thomas Gilcrease Institute of American History and Art Thomas Gilcrease Institute of American History and Art. Library, 1969 Liturgy, Books and Franciscan Identity in Medieval Umbria Anna Welch, 2015-09-29 In Liturgy

Books and Franciscan Identity in Medieval Umbria Anna Welch explores how Franciscan friars engaged with manuscript production networks operating in Umbria in the late thirteenth and early fourteenth centuries to produce the missals essential to their liturgical lives A micro history of Franciscan liturgical activity this study reassesses methodologies pertinent to manuscript studies and reflects on both the construction of communal identity through ritual activity and historiographic trends regarding this process Welch focuses on manuscripts decorated by the ateliers of the Maestro di Deruta Salerno active c 1280 and Maestro Venturella di Pietro active c 1317 in particular the Codex Sancti Paschalis a missal now owned by the Australian Province of the Order of Friars Minor The Formation of the Phillipps Library A N L (Alan Noel Latimer) Munby, 2021-09-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Production of Books in England 1350-1500 Alexandra Gillespie, Daniel Wakelin, 2011-04-14 Between roughly 1350 and 1500 the English vernacular became established as a language of literary bureaucratic devotional and controversial writing metropolitan artisans formed guilds for the production and sale of books for the first time and Gutenberg s and eventually Caxton s printed books reached their first English consumers This book gathers the best work on manuscript books in England made during this crucial but neglected period Its authors survey existing research gather intensive new evidence and develop new approaches to key topics The chapters cover the material conditions and economy of the book trade amateur production both lay and religious the effects of censorship and the impact on English book production of manuscripts and artisans from elsewhere in the British Isles and Europe A wide ranging and innovative series of essays this volume is a major contribution to the history of the book in medieval England AB Bookman's Yearbook ,1982 Antiquarian Bookman ,1961 The Making of the Middle Ages Marios Costambeys, Andrew Hamer, Martin Heale, 2007-04-01 Liverpool s contribution to the modern construction of the middle ages is here recognized for the first time From the eighteenth century to the twenty first scholars from Merseyside have made pioneering advances in fields as diverse as Celtic philology and manuscript collecting each in their own way contributing to our steadily deepening understanding of the real middle ages and to the widening use to which images of the middle ages have been put Merseyside presents in microcosm the different building blocks of the modern middle ages In addition to its local focus this book therefore also examines some of the most significant aspects of the modern study of the middle ages in the round It offers fresh perspectives from leading experts in their fields on medieval Celtic languages on English poetic literature on heroes on pageantry on mystery plays and on the effect of nationalist perspectives on the writing of medieval history Tracing the burgeoning appreciation in Merseyside and beyond of the period in which the city was founded this collection of essays is a fitting commemoration of Liverpool's octocentenary British Librarianship and Information Science, 1961 John Nichols's The Progresses and Public Processions of Queen Elizabeth: Volume I John Nichols, 2014 The first volume in this annotated collection of texts relating to the progresses of Queen Elizabeth I around England includes accounts of dramatic performances orations and poems and a wealth of supplementary material dating from 1533 to 1578 The Postmaster of Ipswich Janet Ing Freeman, 1997 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: 600-1660 George Watson, 1974 National Library Service Cumulative Book Review Index, 1905-1974: Authors. [A-Z] National Library Service Corporation, 1975 The Ranuzzi Manuscripts Maria Xenia Zevelechi Wells, University of Texas at Austin. Humanities Research Center, 1980 Italian Post-1600 Manuscripts and Family Archives in North American Libraries Maria Xenia Zevelechi Wells, 1992 Library Journal, 1978-07 Thomas Hobbes: Elements of Law Johann P. Sommerville, 2024-10-16 Hobbes's Elements of Law was written in 1640 on the eve of the English Civil War It circulated in manuscript and eleven manuscripts now survive Two of them contain a substantial amount of material in Hobbes's own handwriting Soon after writing it Hobbes fled to France while in England civil war broke out over many of the issues discussed by Hobbes in this book In France he wrote a Latin version of his political theory De Cive on the Citizen and then the English Leviathan of which a Latin revision followed and in which he greatly expanded what he had to say about religion and church state relations The Elements of Law presents a complete but succinct version of Hobbes's political theory and of his more general philosophy It analyzes the nature of knowledge and science discusses psychology and human nature surveys the rights and duties of individuals and argues for the need of states to be governed by sovereign authority It discusses the relationship between politics and religion and the extent and limitations of political power It is a work of extraordinary assurance an almost fully fledged statement of Hobbes's entire political philosophy Noel Malcolm This edition is intended to replace the one edited by Ferdinand Tönnies 1889 from which that of J C A Gaskin Oxford World's Classics 1994 derives It establishes a more accurate text based on all the eleven known manuscripts and includes much material omitted by Tönnies who knew of only six manuscripts It draws extensively on modern scholarship on Hobbes and his contexts
