Mediterranean Timescapes Ray Laurence, Francesco Trifilò, 2023-04-27 This book built around the study of the representation of age and identity in 23 000 Latin funerary epitaphs from the Western Mediterranean in the Roman era sets out how the use of age in inscriptions and in turn time varied across this region Discrepancies between the use of time to represent identity in death allow readers to begin to understand the differences between the cultures of Roman Italy and contemporary societies in North Africa Spain and southern Gaul The analysis focuses on the timescapes of cemeteries a key urban phenomenon in relation to other markers of time including the Roman invention of the birthday the revering of the dead at the Parentalia and the topoi of life's stages In doing so the book contributes to our understanding of gender the city the family the role of the military freed slaves and cultural changes during this period The concept of the timescape is seen to have varied geographically across the Mediterranean bringing into question claims of cultural unity for the Western Mediterranean as a region Mediterranean Timescapes is of interest to students and scholars of Roman history and archaeology particularly that of the Western Mediterranean and ancient social history Fantasy Annual V Terry Carr, 1982

Imagining Time in the English Chronicle Play Marissa Nicosia, 2023-09-15 Imagining Time in the English Chronicle Play Historical Futures 1590 1660 argues that dramatic narratives about monarchy and succession codified speculative futures in the early modern English cultural imaginary This book considers chronicle plays plays written for the public stage and play pamphlets composed when the playhouses were closed during the civil wars in order to examine the formal and material ways that playwrights imagined futures in dramatic works that were purportedly about the past Through close readings of William Shakespeare's 1 2 Henry IV Richard III Shakespeare's and John Fletcher's All is True Samuel Rowley's When You See Me You Know Me John Ford's Perkin Warbeck and the anonymous play pamphlets The Leveller's Levelled 1 2 Craftie Cromwell Charles I and Cromwell's Conspiracy the volume shows that imaginative treatments of history in plays that are usually associated with the past also had purchase on the future While plays about the nation's past retell history these plays are not restricted by their subject matter to merely document what happened Playwrights projected possible futures in their accounts of verifiable historical events

The Struggle for the People's King Hajar Yazdiha, 2023-05-30 How the misuses of Martin Luther King's legacy divide us and undermine democracy In the post civil rights era wide ranging groups have made civil rights claims that echo those made by Black civil rights activists of the 1960s from people with disabilities to women's rights activists and LGBTQ coalitions Increasingly since the 1980s white right wing social movements from family values coalitions to the alt right now claim the collective memory of civil rights to portray themselves as the newly oppressed minorities The Struggle for the People's King reveals how as these powerful groups remake collective memory toward competing political ends they generate offshoots of remembrance that distort history and threaten the very foundations of multicultural democracy In the revisionist memories of white conservatives gun rights activists are the new Rosa Parks antiabortion activists are freedom riders and antigay groups are the defenders of Martin Luther King's Christian vision Drawing on a wealth of evidence ranging from newspaper articles and organizational documents to television transcripts press releases and focus groups Hajar Yazdiha documents the consequential reimaging of the civil rights movement in American political culture from 1980 to today She shows how the public memory of King and civil rights has transformed into a vacated sanitized collective memory that evades social reality and perpetuates racial inequality Powerful and persuasive The Struggle for the People's King demonstrates that these oppositional uses of memory fracture our collective understanding of who we are how we got here and where we go next

The Safe Standing Movement in Football Mark Turner, 2023-09-08 This book tells the important story of the 30 year social movement against all seated stadia in football in England and Wales that developed in the wake of the Hillsborough stadium disaster and the wider European and international significance of that movement Examining the fan networks relations tactics and interactions which built the Safe Standing movement this book reveals an untold social history of football supporter activism and represents an important contribution to our understanding of football supporter based social movements the sociology of football and social movement studies more broadly This book argues that Safe Standing is sociologically highly significant because the restriction and partial exclusion of football fans as a social group in the timescape of English football after Hillsborough marked a moment of profound social change in the UK Applying relational sociology and drawing on original research and insider access this book considers how events and ruptures such as Hillsborough shape the dynamics of a social movement In this case supporters who have been deeply affected by the all seating legislation are now in a position to affect the future consumption of football This book shows how this was achieved and how a small core network of approximately 30 supporters networked with supporter groups across Europe now stand to impact and shape the consumption habits of a key leisure practice all over the world This is fascinating reading for any student researcher or policy maker with an interest in football sociology political science public policy or cultural and social history Light, 1909 ETHNIC MOBILITY IN BALLADS Andrew C. Rouse, David Atkinson, 2017-11-30 Ethnic Mobility in Ballads is the fourth volume in the new SPECHEL editions series It comprises studies about ballads that in different ways reflect the movement of ethnic groups transcending and defying national borders in ways that range from the borrowing of national heroes to popular interpretations and distortions of ethnicities not one's own to the transfer of humour from one ethnicity to another The studies are the result of the 44th International Ballad Conference of the Kommission für Volksdichtung held in Pécs a city in Southern Hungary Cultural Capital of Europe 2010 which was occupied by the Ottoman Turks after the defeat of the Hungarians at Mohács in 1526 and inhabited by them for over a century so it is hardly surprising that several of the papers make up a distinct group about balladic Turks of one degree of reality or another but a study about the Slovenian appropriation of a Hungarian hero is also indicative of the spread of the papers The Exit is the Entrance Lydia Paar, 2024 Lydia Paar joined the American workforce at age 14 holding a wide variety of jobs 27 at last count between then and now across 25 different homes in eight states The essays in this collection explore her attempts to evade or transform the lower middle class American experience across various cityscapes towns deserts and in between places jails cross country bus rides and U S army basic training Each essay interrogates the interior emotional work that accompanies such grappling labors of love and friendship of learning motion maintenance and of finding faith in potential for positive change Across a range of interior and exterior landscapes Paar meditates on subcultures agendas violences alliances and on the natural world our human endeavors intersect on how what we try to transform so often transforms us Mendelssohn's South African Bibliography Sidney Mendelssohn, 1910 Time Machines Paul J.
