Formes Des Metropoles Nouveaux Designs:

Formes des métropoles, 1991      Cuadernos de Diseño 3: Diseño, innovación, empresa Perry King, Santiago Miranda, Montse Cuesta, Ezio Manzini, Javier Romero, Lorenzo Fluxá, Andrea Branzi, Carlotta de Bevilacqua, Joan Costa, Carlos Barrabés, Enric Ruiz-Geli, George M. Beylerian, 2013-06-21 DESCRIPCIÓN Desde el diseño y sobre el diseño podemos identificar hoy nuevos problemas más próximos a las condiciones derivadas de los cambios culturales del habitar humano que de ciertos análisis centrados en experimentos formales y estéticos de décadas anteriores porque el diseño ha pasado a ser uno de los laboratorios de discusión más activos con relación al debate contemporáneo sobre los estilos de vida que la humanidad está en proceso de realizar. Para solucionar los nuevos retos sociales se han de implementar y desarrollar métodos y experiencias abiertas en diálogo con los proyectos de investigación de las empresas entendiendo el proyecto creativo como una invención para responder a un problema habitacional o de vida sea cual sea su dimensión y tipología. Esto permite el encuentro de las ideas y los hechos asumiendo la complejidad y la tensión existentes en el interior de todo pensamiento que se atreve a imaginar y construir el futuro. AUTORES Francisco Jarauta ed. Perry King, Santiago Miranda, Montse Cuesta, Ezio Manzini, Javier Romero, Lorenzo Fluxá, Andrea Branzi, Carlotta de Bevilacqua, Joan Costa, Carlos Barrabés, Enric Ruiz-Geli y George M. Beylerian. History of Industrial Design: 1919-1990, The dominion of design, 1990      European Masters: Furniture and lamps, 1991      Jewelry of Our Time Helen Williams Drutt, Peter Dormer, 1995. An illustrated survey of contemporary jewellery and its developments since 1960. It has three major elements. Firstly it has a display of the jewellery itself photographed in colour. Secondly it provides a critical history tracing the first challenges to traditional forms of jewellery as early as the 1930s but focusing on the inspired use of new tools, new materials and new ideas since 1960. Finally it has a reference section correcting previous information on the subject including biographies of over a hundred makers. The dream factory Alberto Alessi, 2016-11-24T00:00:00+01:00. I believe that our true nature is closer to an industrial research laboratory in the sphere of the applied and decorative arts than to a true industrial company in a traditional sense. I would insist on this concept. We are research laboratories whose role is to engage in a continuous mediation between the most advanced and inspired expressions of international creativity in product design on the one hand and the public's desires and dreams on the other: a laboratory which by definition has to be distinguished by the utmost openness and receptiveness to the world of creativity. Alberto Alessi. The Making of Grand Paris Theresa Enright, 2023-09-19. A critical examination of metropolitan planning in Paris: the Grand Paris initiative and the building of today's networked global city. In 2007 the French government announced the Grand Paris initiative. This ambitious project reimagined the Paris region as integrated, balanced, global, sustainable and prosperous. Metropolitan solidarity would unite divided populations; a new transportation system, the Grand Paris Express, would connect the affluent city proper with the low-income suburbs; streamlined institutions would replace fragmented governance structures. Grand Paris is more than a redevelopment plan; it is a new paradigm for urbanism.

In this first English language examination of Grand Paris Theresa Enright offers a critical analysis of the early stages of the project considering whether it can achieve its twin goals of economic competitiveness and equality Enright argues that by orienting the city around growth and marketization Grand Paris reproduces the social and spatial hierarchies it sets out to address For example large expenditures for the Grand Paris Express are made not for the public good but to increase the attractiveness of the region to private investors setting off a real estate boom encouraging gentrification and leaving many residents still unable to get from here to there Enright describes Grand Paris as an example of what she calls grand urbanism large scale planning that relies on infrastructural megaprojects to reconfigure urban regions in pursuit of speculative redevelopment Democracy and equality suffer under processes of grand urbanism Given the logic of commodification on which Grand Paris is based these are likely to suffer as the project moves forward Branding the Middle East Steffen Wippel,2023-10-04 This edited volume investigates place product and personal branding in the Middle East and North Africa including some studies from adjacent regions and the wider Islamicate world Going beyond simply presenting logos and slogans it critically analyses processes of strategic communication and image building under general conditions of globalisation neoliberalisation and postmodernisation and in a regional perspective of lasting authoritarian rule and increased endeavours for worlding In particular it looks at the multiple actors involved in branding activities their interests and motives and investigates tools channels and forms of branding A major interest exists in the entanglements of different spatial scales and in the inconsistencies of communication measures Attention is paid to reconfigurations of certain images over time and to the positioning of objects of branding in time and space Historical case studies supplement the focus on contemporary branding efforts While branding in the Western world and many emerging economies has been meticulously analysed this edited volume fills an important gap in the research on MENA countries Producing and living the high-rise: New contexts, old questions? Manoel Rodrigues Alves,Manuel Appert,Christian Montès,2024-05-14 The purpose of the book is to assess the process of urban verticalization in different contexts through time to provide insight into the relationships between highrise design and the way inhabitants negotiate them in their everyday lives to assess how planners politicians and designers negotiate residential highrises in the strategies they develop for building the city and to introduce urban narratives and cartographies Verticalization although not new currently takes place in a very different context than post 1945 Today highrise residential buildings are more than architectural solutions they are commodities in a global market where capital flows are fixed by developers and municipalities Our exploration of residential verticalization is anchored in case studies revealing different types of local global negotiations in the design of the city and has been framed by three interrelated dynamics first the complex relationships within the financialization of real estate markets revealing differences in the types of local global negotiations in the construction of the neo liberal city secondly the most developed anchors residential verticalization in the processes of socio spatial differentiation within cities mostly identified as gentrification associated to processes of urban renewal and densification the third related to readings and interpretations of the urban landscape and social spatial practices and its iconographic and cartographic representations This book is of interest to academics students planners architects and urban studies professionals It shows that the chosen research object is an increasingly relevant angle of analysis of the contemporary city It also provides a better knowledge of the processes of residential verticalization their impact on the privatization of the urban space and on urban segregation or fragmentation

European Masters: Industrial design ,1991      Bioregional Planning and Design: Volume II David

Fanfani,Alberto Matarán Ruiz,2020-07-22 This book provides insights and discusses the practical application of the theoretical concept of urban bioregion complementing the general bio regional planning cross disciplinary issues provided in Volume I It examines planning practices such as relocalisation of energy flows land protection for climate change territorial heritage enhancement the consideration of urban ecosystems and agro ecology It presents discussions on regional contexts practices and projects for a bioregional recovery and includes case studies from France Belgium Spain Greece Austria and Italy discussing topics that range from the reframing of local energy production delivery planning systems to soil protection and farmland sustainable exploitation schemes This volume concludes with three cross European case studies that make clear the worldwide relevance and potential of bioregional approach beyond the Global North or Western countries
