The Labyrinth Key Howard V. Hendrix, 2006-01-31 In a secret war waged in worlds both virtual and real the fates of nations depend on the definitive weapon And that weapon is knowledge knowledge to die for The race is heating up between the U S and China to develop a quantum computer with infinite capabilities to crack any enemy's codes yet keep secure its own secrets The government that achieves this goal will win a crucial prize No other computer system will be safe from the reach of this master machine Dr Jaron Kwok was working for the U S government to build such a computer But in a posh hotel in Hong Kong a Chinese policewoman sifts through the bizarre ashlike remains of what's left of the doctor With the clock ticking alliances will be forged and there are those who will stop at nothing to discover what the doctor knew As the search for answers intensifies it becomes chillingly clear that the quantum computer both sides so desperately want will be more powerful more dangerous than anyone could have ever imagined For in the twenty first century machines become gods gods become machines and the once impossible now lies within reach The key to unlimited knowledge will create the ultimate weapon of mass destruction or humanity's last chance to save itself Clockwork Phoenix 2 Claude Lalumière, Leah

Wild Romanticism Markus Poetzsch, Cassandra Falke, 2021-03-30 Wild Romanticism consolidates contemporary thinking about conceptions of the wild in British and European Romanticism clarifying the emergence of wilderness as a cultural symbolic and ecological idea This volume brings together the work of twelve scholars who examine representations of wildness in canonical texts such as Frankenstein Northanger Abbey Kubla Khan Expostulation and Reply and Childe

Harold's Pilgrimage as well as lesser known works by Radcliffe, Clare, H. L. P. B. Shelley and Hogg. Celebrating the wild provided Romantic period authors with a way of thinking about nature that resists instrumentalization and anthropocentrism but writing about wilderness also engaged them in debates about the sublime and picturesque as aesthetic categories about gender and the cultivation of independence as natural and about the ability of natural forces to resist categorical or literal enclosure. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Romanticism, environmental literature, environmental history and the environmental humanities more broadly.
