Lantern's Passage Andrew L. Macnair, 2009-02-28 Drew MacLaren remembers the summers of 1958 and 1959 in the Outer Banks more clearly than any in his life the months when super heroes streaked across the pages of comic books and the hurricane winds of Big Leo ripped cottages from their pilings when Clarisse Silver went violently insane and his best friend Maggie was accused of murdering her mother On a gray windy afternoon Drew secretly watches Maggie Silver crying He listens terrified as a voice shrieks inside her cottage and dishes of oatmeal shatter against the wall He knows nothing about his neighbor only like all children instinctively do that she is poor and older than he is He knows that her brother Skeeter has had polio and rolls around their porches on a low board with caster wheels But from the moment he sees her smile rise up through her tears he becomes determined to learn more of who she is And from that smile the adventure of his life begins
