The Ghost of Lizzie Borden Drac Von Stoller, Jessica and her friends Tim John and Susan were fascinated with the famous Lizzie Borden hatchet murders that took place in 1892 at Fall River, Massachusetts. They would have liked to have met Lizzie in person but she died in 1927 in her hometown, Fall River, Massachusetts. Jessica and her friends only lived about fifty miles from the Borden's house but never paid a visit. John had this crazy idea they would all spend the night in Borden's house and try to conjure up Lizzie Borden's ghost and try to communicate with her and find out the real truth if she really killed her father and stepmother. Tim, being the rich one of the bunch, called the owner on the telephone to see if he and his friends could rent out the Borden's house for the weekend and the owner agreed. The others met Tim at his house and brought along some ghost hunting equipment and an Ouija board in hopes of communicating with the ghost of Lizzie Borden. Everyone piled into Tim's Bentley and headed to Fall River, Massachusetts with excitement on their faces. As they were traveling down the highway, Susan said, "After this is all over and we get concrete proof of the killer's identity, I'm going to write a book of our experiences at the Borden's house and I'll bet we'll sell a million copies." Dream on, girl, chimed in John, laughing under his breath. Jessica said, "John, lay off if that's her dream, let her have it." Okay, Okay, replied John.

Anxious Power Carol J. Singley, Susan Elizabeth Sweeney, 1993-07-01. This book explains the conflicting feelings of anxiety and empowerment that women historically excluded from masculine discourse feel when they read and write and it analyzes narrative strategies that reveal this ambivalence. Anxious Power draws upon feminist literary theory, narrative theory, and reader response criticism to define women's ambivalence toward language. It is the first collection to address issues of ambivalence in narrative by women to trace those issues from the medieval period to the present and to outline a theoretical framework for understanding them. The contributors address a broad spectrum of female literary voices ranging from familiar British and American writers Jane Austen, Charlotte Brontë and Willa Cather and those less well known Jane Barker, Caroline Lee Hensz, Susan Warner, Sarah Grand and Fanny Howe to European, Canadian, African American, South and Latin American and Asian American writers Christine de Pizan, Marie Catherine d'Aulnoy, Margaret Atwood, Harriet Jacobs, Toni Morrison, Clarice Lispector, Sandra Cisneros and Maxine Hong Kingston. Anxious Power considers forms of women's narrative ranging from fairy tales through romances, novels and autobiographies to feminist metafiction.

Confounded Expectations George W. Jarecke,Nancy K. Plant,2000 George W Jarecke and Nancy K Plant present a selection of cases across a broad spectrum of American law to demonstrate that our society relies inappropriately on the legal system to cure ills the system was not designed to address Jarecke and Plant note that while we in the United States worry considerably about the problem of individual assumption of responsibility whether for personal mistakes financial setbacks or pure bad luck we appear uneasy about the concept and unclear about what it means on a daily basis Not only are we incapable of accepting personal responsibility we barely know what it means to do so Mistakenly we turn to the legal system to solve this dilemma Yet our laws as our legislators write them as judges interpret them as lawyers argue them and as juries apply them send mixed messages about whether and how we should exercise personal responsibility Each chapter of Confounded Expectations features one main case to explain one legal theory with other cases noted as examples of facets of each theory To demonstrate the law that requires merchants to guarantee the quality of their products for example Jarecke and Plant discuss the case of the band mothers whose fund raising luncheon menu included turkey salad contaminated by salmonella Peripheral cases include a horse falsely sold as a gelding a riding mower that tipped over when used as instructed makeup that was guaranteed to be safe but caused a rash and pigs sick with hog cholera Crime Does Not Pay Archives Volume 3 Dick Wood,2012 Uncut and uncensored the infamous pre code Crime Does Not Pay comics are finally collected into a series of archival hardcovers With brutal realistic tales focusing on vile criminals Crime Does Not Pay was one of the most popular comics of the 1940s The series was a favorite target of Dr Frederic Wertham and other censors and is partially responsible for the creation of the stifling Comics Code Authority Christmas Tamales Robert B.
