The Forty Plus Entrepreneur: How to Start a Successful Business in Your 40's, 50's and Beyond Gary S.

Goodman, 2018-10-09 At age 90 Jack Smiley wasn't thrilled with the community in which he retired so he built his own Today it provides him with a net income of 40 000 each month Famously KFC's 65 year old Kentucky Colonel Harlan Sanders supplemented a paltry Social Security check by franchising his unique recipe for fried poultry Past 50 McDonald's Ray Kroc made a similar trek in multiplying by many thousands a few popular golden arched hamburger stands from San Bernardino California Contrary to popular mythology entrepreneurship is not spearheaded mostly by baby faced technology savvy postadolescents whose brands include Facebook and Apple According to a recent study fully 80 percent of all businesses are started up by people over 35 Amy Groth of Business Insider cites these reasons that fortune favors the old First older entrepreneurs have more life and work experience In some cases they have decades of industry expertise and a better understanding of what it truly takes to compete and succeed in the business world Second they also have much broader and vaster networks Even if older entrepreneurs are seeking to start businesses in entirely different industries they have deep connections from all walks of life for example a brother in law could be the perfect COO Third those over 50 have acquired more wealth and better credit histories which helps with securing loans and are smarter with their finances In this book from best selling author Gary Goodman you'll discover Supporters are everywhere Your age cohort is the wealthiest Now is the time to cash in your wisdom Overcoming false beliefs and self sabotage why the only person holding you back is you The Giraffe Syndrome why the first step is the scariest Busting age myths Nobody will work with me at my age My best years are behind me It takes money to make money and more Hearings United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the District of Columbia, 1961 40 Plus Years Allen Cato, 2017-03-06 This book of poems began forty years ago when our family moved from Evansville Indiana to Hillsborough North Carolina a small town near Durham and Chapel Hill We moved into a large house on a ninety acre farm Our family consisted of my wife Adrian and our three sons Jo age eleven and identical twins Mike and Dan age eight On Christmas Eve 1975 I thought of a poem to write to my wife Adrian I put it in the tree that evening and she found it Christmas morning She was so fond of it that she asked that I write her a poem each Christmas So for the next forty plus years with only few exceptions I wrote a Christmas Eve poem each year The subject matter varied but was always tied in to our family and Adrian Since we lived on a farm we tried farming for the years the sons were at home We tried raising cattle and one of my favorite monikers for Adrian Mrs Moo was derived from it She was always hopping around very busily and that is why I also refer to her as Toad Jo married and had three children Caleb Megan and Jacob He was later divorced but remarried to Kelli Mike married Sonya and they have three children Michael Elizabeth and Richard Dan married Kimmie and they have two children Sarah and Kenneth To me the most amazing thing about these poems is that on every single occasion without exception I thought of the poem on Christmas Eve not a minute before It became very stressful as each Christmas approached since I had not a clue of what I was going to write So many times I thought I was going to have to say that I simply could not think of anything but each Christmas Eve something would come to me
