Venue in Transnational Litigation Andrew S. Bell, 1994 Forum Shopping in International Adjudication Luiz Eduardo Salles, 2014-05-22 How can procedural objections be used to address the emerging phenomenon of forum shopping before international tribunals , International Litigation in Intellectual Property and Information Technology Arnaud Nuyts, Jean-Sylvestre Bergé, 2008-01-01 At head of title European Commission Research Project on Judicial Cooperation in Matters of Intellectual Property and Information Technology Jurisdiction in International Litigation Mary Keyes, 2005 Transport and communications technologies have made international disputes common and a frequent practical issue is which country or countries have jurisdiction to resolve the dispute Existing literature on private international law tends to emphasize choice of law rather than jurisdiction Cases tend to show that the practical significance of Jurisdiction has yet to be appreciated This groundbreaking book fills in these gaps and offers a critical analysis of the principles and the theoretical foundations applied to resolve private international jurisdictional disputes and of the manner in which those principles are applied in practice by Describing the context in which international jurisdiction disputes are determined Explaining and critically analysing the principles of jurisdiction Explaining and critically analysing the manner in which the principles are applied Identifying the interests which motivate principles and the courts application of the principles Recommending reforms to the principles by demonstrating that the existing principles of jurisdiction are flawed and ought to be reformed by taking into account the law s objectives defined by relevance to state and private interests

The Nature and Enforcement of Choice of Court Agreements Mukarrum Ahmed, 2017-10-05 PRAISE FOR THE BOOK This constitutes a work of impressive scholarship that will become a major reference point for future discourse on choice of court agreements Dr Ahmed advances a firm thesis in a lucid manner that will satisfy both academics and practitioners The discussion is supported by a monumental foundation of underpinning research Ahmed s monograph throughout shows clear understanding of underlying substantive laws and in Chapter 11 displays a refreshing willingness to engage in intelligent speculation on the implications of Brexit Professor David Milman University of Lancaster The book is an excellent attempt to understand the theoretical underpinnings of choice of court agreements in private international law Anyone with an interest in the theory and practice of choice of court agreements in particular in mechanisms for their enforcement should read this book They will find much of value by doing so Professor Paul Beaumont University of Aberdeen from the Series Editor s Preface This book examines the fundamental juridical nature classification and enforcement of choice of court agreements in international commercial litigation It is the first full length attempt to integrate the comparative and doctrinal analysis of choice of court agreements under the Brussels I Recast Regulation the Hague Convention on Choice of Court Agreements Hague Convention and the English common law jurisdictional regime into a theoretical framework In this regard the book analyses the impact of a multilateral and regulatory conception of private international law on the private law enforcement of choice of court agreements before the English courts In the process it both pre empts and offers innovative solutions to issues that may arise under the jurisprudence of the emergent Brussels I Recast Regulation and the Hague Convention The need to understand the nature and enforcement of choice of court agreements before the English courts from the perspective of the EU private international law regime and the Hague Convention cannot be understated This important new study aims to fill an existing gap in the literature in relation to an account of choice of court agreements which explores and reconnects arguments drawn from international legal theory with legal practice However the scope of the work remains most relevant for cross border commercial lawyers interested in crafting pragmatic solutions to the conflicts of jurisdictions

Treaty Shopping in International Investment Law Jorun Baumgartner, 2016-11-24 Treaty shopping also known under the terms of nationality planning corporate re structuring or corporate maneuvering implies a strategic change of nationality or strategic invocation of another nationality with the aim of accessing another usually more favourable investment treaty for purposes of investment arbitration When deciding on whether an investment claim based on treaty shopping should be upheld or dismissed investment arbitral tribunals have been increasingly faced with significant questions such as What is treaty shopping and how may legitimate nationality planning be distinguished from treaty abuse in international investment law Should a claimant that is controlled by a host State national be considered a protected investor or should tribunals pierce its corporate veil Does an investor have to make the investment in good faith and does it have to make a contribution of its own to the investment it is claiming protection for When does a corporate restructuring constitute an abuse of process and which is the role of the notion of dispute in this respect How efficient are denial of benefits clauses to counter treaty shopping Treaty Shopping in International Investment Law examines in a systematic manner the practice of treaty shopping in international investment law and arbitral decisions that have undertaken to draw this line While some legal approaches taken by arbitral tribunals have started to consolidate others remain unsettled painting a picture of an overall inconsistent jurisprudence This is hardly surprising given the thousands of international investment agreements that provide for the investor s right to sue the host State on grounds of alleged breaches of investment obligations This book analyses and discusses the different ways by which arbitral tribunals have dealt with the value judgment at the core of the distinction between objectionable and unobjectionable treaty shopping and makes proposals de lege ferenda on how States could reform their international investment agreements in particular with respect to treaty drafting in order to make them less susceptible to the practice of treaty shopping Principles of International Economic Law Matthias Herdegen, 2013-01-10 Principles of International Economic Law gives a comprehensive overview of the central topics in international economic law with an emphasis on the interplay between the different economic and political interests on both the international and domestic levels The book sets the classic topics of international economic law WTO law investment protection commercial law and monetary law in context with human rights environmental protection good governance and the needs of developing countries It thus provides a concise picture of the current architecture of international economic law Topics covered range from codes of conduct for multinational enterprises to the human rights implications of the exploitation of natural resources The book demonstrates the economic foundations and economic implications of legal frameworks It puts into profile the often complex relationship between on the one hand international standards on liberalization and economic rationality and on the other state sovereignty and national preferences It describes the new forms of economic cooperation which have developed in recent decades such as the growing number of transnational companies in the private sector and forms of cooperation between states such as the G8 or G20 Providing a perfect introductory text to the field of international economic law the book thoroughly analyses legal developments within their wider political economic or social context International Investment Perspectives 2006 OECD, 2006-09-18 Reviews recent developments in foreign direct investment with a special focus on international investment agreements Comparative Civil Procedure Margaret Y.K. Woo, Cornelis H. van Rhee, 2025-03-12 Bringing together an international array of legal scholars this discerning Research Handbook provides a comparative analysis of civil procedure law Chapters examine the rules that dictate how a civil dispute is initiated processed decided and enforced in a court of law comparing each aspect of the procedure across continents including Asia Europe and the Americas Globalization and Health Belinda Bennett, George F. Tomossy, 2006-06-21 Within contemporary society globalization has emerged as a key concern at the centre of ethical legal and policy debates relating to health care Conflicts between public interests and individual rights the challenge of regulating health professionals and access to health services and the effects of a global market all feature prominently in these discussions As a result of globalization these issues can no longer be understood solely within the political boundaries that define traditional notions of individuals and communities Rather solutions demand a global conception of rights and obligations which in turn requires new approaches to health policy formulation and a reevaluation of existing ethical and legal frameworks In essence the impact of globalization on human health is testing the robustness of modern regulatory systems legal doctrines and ethical paradigms PUBLIC HEALTH DEVELOPING GLOBAL CONCERNS The interconnectedness of the global economy presents new challenges in public health While globalization has facilitated improvements in health care it has also created new hazards and avenues for the exploitation of vulnerable persons It is becoming increasingly apparent that both national and international responses are required Indeed as the chapters in this section convey public health is rightly a global concern Globalization has led to a sharing of both risks and responsibilities in public health Belinda Bennett reminds us of the ease with which infectious diseases can spread within the global community given the speed of modern travel and trade
