Children and Crime Connie M. Tang, 2018-08-02 Children and Crime offers a multidisciplinary and research based approach to the study of child maltreatment and juvenile delinquency Connie M Tang first examines children as victims of maltreatment exploring how developmental trauma and societal factors influence children s behavior and psyche Topics covered include child neglect physical abuse sexual abuse and psychological abuse Later chapters address how children come into conflict with the law and discuss gang membership and substance abuse Engaging real life case studies illustrate the intersectionality of race gender and crime as well as the role of Child Protective Services and juvenile courts In particular Tang examines how abuse and neglect can later play a role in a child s delinquency Children and Crime provides an innovative and accessible text for psychology social work and criminal justice courses in child abuse neglect and delinquency

A Different Home Dr Kelly Degarmo, John DeGarmo, 2014-01-21 Jessie tells us her story of being placed in foster care and the worries she had The new home is not like her old home but she begins to see that this different home is kind of nice Sensitively written and fully illustrated in color this story will help children in foster care to settle in and answer some of the questions they may have Encyclopedia of Primary Prevention and Health Promotion Thomas P. Gullotta, Martin Bloom, 2003-01-31 Foundational topics such as history ethics and principles of primary prevention as well as specific issues such as consultation political issues and financing The second section addresses such topics as abuse depression eating disorders HIV AIDS injuries and religion and spirituality often dividing such topics into separate entries addressing childhood adolescence and adulthood Children in Family Contexts Lee Combrinck-Graham, 2006-03-16 The noted contributors represent diverse theoretical approaches but all share a focus on the family as the primary context of development and the most important resource for children who are struggling Accomplishing Permanency: Reunification Pathways and Outcomes for Foster Children Elizabeth Fernandez, 2012-09-13 Reunification is a primary goal of foster care systems and the most common permanency planning decision It is defined as the return of children placed in protective care to the home of their birth family and used to describe the act of restoring a child in out of home care back to the biological family Yet reunification decision making and the process of reintegrating children into birth families remains under researched This Brief takes a look at family reunification knowledge and research in Australia where there is evidence that most children placed in protective care are eventually reunited with their birth parents It explores how a knowledge of reunification decision making and outcomes can contribute to strengthening practice and informing policy formulation and program planning in Child Welfare Handbook on Parent Education Marvin J. Fine, 2014-05-10 Handbook on Parent Education presents a contemporary picture of the state of the parent education movement It tackles a number of critical issues such as the programs that are available or when parent education should begin Different models of parent education are described along with parenting programs for youth The application of parenting programs for specific groups including foster parents parents of preschoolers abusive parents and parents of handicapped children is also discussed Comprised of 14 chapters this book begins with an overview of the parent education movement as well as several prototype programs and some ethical issues The distinction between education and therapy is explained and parent education with special interest groups is described In addition problems of research and evaluation and a projection for the future are presented Subsequent chapters focus on the state of the nuclear family in American society during the 1970s Rudolf Dreikurs impact on childrearing practices and his contribution to individual psychology together with the social context of child behavior Haim Ginott s approach to parent education and the effects of parent effectiveness training on families Transactional analysis approaches to parent education and parent education as a strategy for the prevention of child abuse are also examined This monograph will appeal to educators parents sociologists and educational psychologists The Massachusetts register ,1998
