Foul Deeds And Suspicious Deaths In And:

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in & Around Mansfield Geoffrey Sadler, 2005-07-01 Midlands murders take center stage in a gripping book that chronicles some of Mansfield's most gruesome deaths over the past two centuries. Mansfield Chad A young girl waylaid and battered with a hedge stake while returning home from Mansfield on a warm summer evening. Four family members butchered in a blazing house just off Commercial Street. An old farmer repeatedly speared by a hayfork in the mire of a rural farmyard. A drunken housewife found murdered in a haystack at Worksop. A razor killing and suicide on Nottingham Road and the mysterious woman's skeleton discovered in the spoil of Sherwood Colliery tip. These and other cases detailed here show how often violent death has visited Mansfield and North Nottinghamshire in the past. Drawing on two hundred years of reported crime in Mansfield and the surrounding area, this account reveals the grim catalog of foul deeds, the variety of lethal weapons used from a hedge stake to a mohair bootlace, and the age-old motives of greed, jealousy, forbidden desires, and thwarted love that have so often led men and women to murder. Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in Folkestone & Dover Martin Easdown, Linda Sage, 2006-11-30 Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths Around Folkestone takes the reader on a sinister journey through the annals of crime in Folkestone, Hythe, and the surrounding area. Along the way we meet villains, murderers, and victims of many kinds, including cut-throat soldiers, a baby farmer, a Jack the Ripper imposter, two inexplicable suicides, and five individuals who died violent deaths in the House of Horror. There is no shortage of harrowing and revealing incidents of evil to recount, many of which will be unfamiliar to the reader. Infant murders were once so rife in Folkestone it was termed the infanticide capital of Kent. This fascinating book recalls many such grisly events as well as sad or unsavoury individuals who have darkened this otherwise pleasant corner of the Garden of England. Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in and Around Barnsley Geoffrey Howse, 2007-08-16 Barnsley and the surrounding area has a dark and sinister past. There were many foul deeds committed throughout the centuries of the most heinous kind, and many suspicious circumstances. Poverty was at the root of many of the early cases. During the Victorian period, some seemingly uncaring magistrates appeared to take the view that to be poor was a crime to be dealt with severely and meted out extreme penalties. The unhappy state of some criminals resulted in ending their days in the workhouse. Throughout the 20th century, the area was periodically rocked with murder cases which often made the national headlines. Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in & Around Halifax Stephen Wade, 2004-02-29 Calderdale has gone down in the annals of crime in England as the birthplace of Christie of Rillington Place and as the haunt of the Yorkshire Ripper. But there is much more in the criminal history of the Halifax area to interest the reader with a taste for true crime. As a town with a shifting population of labour for the new mills of the Industrial Revolution, Halifax in the nineteenth century was a focus for urban disorder and lawbreaking. This book tells some of the tales from this period of social history and from earlier times when feuds and brutal punishment for crime were the order of the day. Here are the accounts of murders within the family but also sad suicides and tragic assaults public riots and violent vendettas Every northern town has its darkunderbelly beneath the visible civic progress and commercial achievements Halifax and the cluster of towns nearby have had plenty of this nasty side of history and these pages recount some of the most heinous and vicious crimes recorded between the anarchy of the Middle Ages and the dark twentieth century The author a graduate of Leeds University is a social historian with a special interest in the chronicles of law and crime in the north He has been a lecturer at the University of Huddersfield and has edited a number of books on literature and history with a regional context He is currently working on Unsolved Yorkshire Murders also published by Wharncliffe Books He is planning to teach a course on the writing of crime in local history at the University of Nottingham

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in London's East End Geoffrey Howse,2005-06-01 The author of The A Z of London Murders investigates Jack the Ripper s stalking grounds for even more crimes and killings in England s capital For centuries London s East End has been associated with some of the worst elements of human depravity where foul deeds and murder were commonplace and in 1888 the area s disrepute was added to by the horrific murders committed by Jack the Ripper The East End was populated by people crammed together in close knit communities As the district grew from the ancient villages along the river much of the village atmosphere and rivalry remained along with some of the worst corruption and vilest slums to be found anywhere in the country For instance the residents of Bethnal Green looked down their noses at those from Hoxton barely half a mile away During the 1930s after the Depression a government report estimated 60 percent of the children in Bethnal Green suffered from malnutrition and 85 percent of the housing was unsatisfactory These were the times when the infamous Kray Twins were cutting their teeth The East End s claim to fame in the annals of crime in England is not without justification as the pages of this book show Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in Manchester Martin

Baggoley,2013-06-17 Martin Baggoley was born in Eccles He spent several years working in London and Salford as a civil servant before qualifying as a probation officer in 1976 Since then he has worked in the Greater Manchester area and during this period gained a masters degree in criminology He has written for a number of UK and American professional journals on criminal justice issues His main interest is the history of crime and punishment and for this book he has combined his professional experience and academic expertise with his interest in local history Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in London's West End Geoffrey Howse,2006-04-06 London s West End is associated with fashion and glamour but for centuries it has had a far darker side Geoffrey Howse has uncovered an astonishing catalogue of sinister deeds some of them famous but others long forgotten Read about spying treason embezzlement regicide robbery forgery religious persecution suicide murder and mutilation and witness horrendous punishments such as drawing hanging disemboweling quartering castration beheading and burning Earlier cases include the execution of Scottish patriots 1305 6 and three monks who dared to question the supremacy of Henry VIII in 1535 Such events attracted great public attention as did the extraordinary execution of Charles I in 1649 and in 1820 the hanging and mutilation of the Cato Street Conspiritors The foul murder of the famous actor William Terriss by a madman in 1897 is featured as are several notable cases from the twentieth century including the horrific wartime murders of Gordon Cummins the strange disappearances of the socialist MP Victor Grayson and Lord Lucan the Charing Cross Trunk Murder as well as the mysterious death of boxer Freddie Mills
