Foul Deeds And Suspicious Deaths In York:

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in York Keith Henson, 2003-06-01 A local historian reveals the centuries of murder and mayhem lurking in the shadows of this charming English city Just beneath its genteel facade the city of York hides a dark past Once England's second city it is built on a thousand years of bloodshed From brutal war to noble rebellion and from petty crime to notorious killers death has tracked the city's long history Keith Henson begins with York's early history of punishment and close with the city's only unsolved murder From 1800-1946 the city slid from its Georgian splendor to a seething slum surrounded by medieval walls then began to reemerge after World War Two Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in York tells the story of some of the city's darkest moments from Hanging Bishops to Sweet Toothed Poisoners Insane Arsonists to Murder Most Foul

Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths/Folkestone Martin Easdown, 2006-11-01 Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths Around Folkestone takes the reader on a sinister journey through the annals of crime in Folkestone Hythe and the surrounding area Along the way we meet villains murderers and victims of many kinds including cut throat soldiers a baby farmer a Jack the Ripper imposter two inexplicable suicides and five individuals who died violent deaths in the House of Horror There is no shortage of harrowing and revealing incidents of evil to recount many of which will be unfamiliar to the reader Infant murders were once so rife in Folkestone it was termed the infanticide capital of Kent This fascinating book recalls many such grisly events as well as sad or unsavoury individuals who have darkened this otherwise pleasant corner of the Garden of England

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in & Around Durham Maureen Anderson, 2003-10-30 Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in and Around Durham spans four centuries with over fifty terrible tales of man's inhumanity to man which are related in the pages of this book In the early centuries superstition and ignorance were often the means by which justice was meted out If it was believed that a crime had taken place a person could be tried condemned and hanged by the side of the road on nothing more than the statement of a neighbor The nineteenth century saw the development of the coal industry This brought thousands of impoverished men looking for work Sadly the wages were often spent on alcohol and women were often nothing more than punching bags for the drunken abusive husbands as is the case of Dorothy Wilthew who was murdered at Jarrow by her husband after years of abuse Other cases include Joseph Hutchinson who murdered his brother and father at Sedgefield later he was found to be insane a child was kidnapped and later murdered by Isabella Thompson at Bishop Auckland and Maria Fitzmmons was found stabbed to death in Sunderland in 1869 it was to be 13 years before her killer Thomas Fury was convicted of the crime Take a journey into the darker and unknown side of your area as you read Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in and Around Durham

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in Leeds David Goodman, 2003-09-01 Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in Leeds is a collection of detailed accounts of foul deeds usually murders in the Leeds region during the period 1807-1926 The time period of Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in Leeds becomes a constant backdrop to the crimes committed Many lived in cramped and over populated conditions These appalling situations influenced some of the most notorious local crimes which commanded the headlines at the time Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in Leeds captivates crimes of passion in stark contrast to the seemingly calculated murders of Mary Bateman known as the Yorkshire Witch The detailed approach to these individual cases tells us much about the people involved and how their lives were dramatically altered Take a journey into the darker and unknown side of your area as you read Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in Leeds

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in London's East End Geoffrey Howse,2005-06-01 The author of The A Z of London Murders investigates Jack the Ripper s stalking grounds for even more crimes and killings in England s capital For centuries London s East End has been associated with some of the worst elements of human depravity where foul deeds and murder were commonplace and in 1888 the area s disrepute was added to by the horrific murders committed by Jack the Ripper The East End was populated by people crammed together in close knit communities As the district grew from the ancient villages along the river much of the village atmosphere and rivalry remained along with some of the worst corruption and vilest slums to be found anywhere in the country For instance the residents of Bethnal Green looked down their noses at those from Hoxton barely half a mile away During the 1930s after the Depression a government report estimated 60 percent of the children in Bethnal Green suffered from malnutrition and 85 percent of the housing was unsatisfactory These were the times when the infamous Kray Twins were cutting their teeth The East End s claim to fame in the annals of crime in England is not without justification as the pages of this book show

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in Manchester Martin Baggoley,2013-06-17 Martin Baggoley was born in Eccles He spent several years working in London and Salford as a civil servant before qualifying as a probation officer in 1976 Since then he has worked in the Greater Manchester area and during this period gained a masters degree in criminology He has written for a number of UK and American professional journals on criminal justice issues His main interest is the history of crime and punishment and for this book he has combined his professional experience and academic expertise with his interest in local history

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in & Around Halifax Stephen Wade,2004-02-29 Calderdale has gone down in the annals of crime in England as the birthplace of Christie of Rillington Place and as the haunt of the Yorkshire Ripper But there is much more in the criminal history of the Halifax area to interest the reader with a taste for true crime As a town with a shifting population of labour for the new mills of the Industrial Revolution Halifax in the nineteenth century was a focus for urban disorder and lawbreaking This book tells some of the tales from this period of social history and from earlier times when feuds and brutal punishment for crime were the order of the day Here are the accounts of murders within the family but also sad suicides and tragic assaults public riots and violent vendettas Every northern town has its darkunderbelly beneath the visible civic progress and commercial achievements Halifax and the cluster of towns nearby have had plenty of this nasty side of history and these pages recount some of the most heinous and vicious crimes recorded between the anarchy of the Middle Ages and the dark twentieth century The author a graduate of Leeds University is a social historian with a special interest in the chronicles of law and crime in the north He has been a lecturer at the University of Huddersfield and has edited a number of books on literature and history with a regional context He is currently working on Unsolved Yorkshire Murders also published by Wharncliffe Books He is planning to teach a course on the writing of crime in local history at the University of Nottingham Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in and Around Mansfield Geoff

Sadler,2005-01-01 A young waylaid and battered with a hedge stake while returning home from Mansfield on a summer evening four family members butchered in a blazing house just off Commercial Street an old farmer speared with a hay fork in the mire of a rural farmyard Such cases detailed here show how often violent death has visited Mansfield in the past

Stratford Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths Nick Billingham,2006-03-01 Foul Deeds and Suspicious Death in Stratford and South Warwickshire is an exploration of the darker history of the area Behind the famous tourist industry of Shakespears everyday life on farms and factories carried on just like anywhere else Ancient superstitions and curious legends provided inspriation for the great bard and other authors but real life was punctuated by sudden death jealousy and ruthlessness This book examines some of the most dramatic incidents in detail Dranw from contemporary sources newspapers legal documents and coroner s records each case provides a glimpse into life and death in its historical setting The changes in the town both in its architecture and social values from the background to the lives and deaths of its citizens

More Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in Wakefield Kate Taylor,2003-10-30 A historic account of the Northern England city s crimes including misdeeds that shed light on past ways of life from death by neglect to police killings How the body of a Wakefield murder victim was exhibited for a fee in 1853 the odd story of a Normanton miner attacked by a prosperous Crofton gentleman in 1875 the tragic death of a twenty one year old woman on what should have been her wedding day in 1909 and the case of the Sandal dental lecturer who killed his adopted daughter in 1966 are among the many foul deeds recounted in More Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in Wakefield In a companion volume to Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in Wakefield 2001 Kate Taylor has assembled more than fifty further accounts of horrific deaths in or near Wakefield Some killings reflect the tensions and resentment of domestic life but there are mysteries too like the case of a man found dead in 1860 in a shallow beck with no marks of violence on him In an incident in Horbury involving the death of a baby in 1849 it was the assistant constable pursuing the inquiries who died The book shows something of the cultural context that can promote murder the stigma of illegitimacy in the past and the more recent risks of glue sniffing and the appalling bullying of immigrants Take a journey into the darker and unknown side of your area as you read More Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in Wakefield Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in Croydon Caroline Maxton,2006-10-31 We are all drawn to understand the circumstances that lead others to commit unforgivable acts of violence the moment that turns a caring human being into a killer the series of events that drive ordinary people to murderous acts of inhumanity or the slow premeditated steps of the callous criminal And the circumstances and the twisted motivation behind such violent acts are the subject of Caroline Maxton s fascinating investigation of individuals whose misdeeds have tarnished the history of the Croydon area She investigates a wide range of murders and unexplained deaths some of which are truly stranger than fiction The events cover a span of several centuries and the locations will be chillingly familiar to the inhabitants of Croydon Local crimes that hit the national headlines like the Bentley case of 1952 are covered in fresh detail but the author concentrates on less well known but equally intriguing and shocking episodes the bizarre mustard and cress murder of 1870 the brutal murder of Eliza Osborne in 1877 the Kenley Stud Farm mystery of 1921 the Birdhurst Rise poisoning of the late 1920s the notorious unsolved murder of 11 year old Miles Vallint of 1959

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in Hull David Goodman,2005-01-04 Hull is best known for its thriving port The industrial revolution which profited Hull so well came a a higher cost than most would expect In only 100 years the population rose from 22000 to 239000 Houses were built quickly and close together public health suffered dramatically and disease was rife The vast population meant a very high level of crime With almost one murder every other week assaults suicides and other acts of violence were so frequent that newspapers only reported the most vile of crimes Victorian Hull was a very dangerous place to live indeed David Goodman has put together a number of murders suicides and unsolved murders from 1873 through to 1924 Stories include Murder on the Farm 1903 Annie Marshall a 15 year old farm worker was shot twice in the face and dumped into the river by a fellow worker Horrific Child Murder 1873 Sarah Alice only 4 months old was beheaded by her own mother after she failed to bond with the child she was found not guilty on the grounds of insanity and detained at her majesty s pleasure

cover an extraordinary variety of misdeeds some motivated by brutal impulse or despair others by malice Most involve ill fated individuals who are only known to us because they were caught up in crime but more famous episodes appear as well such as the murder of the Duke of Buckingham and the disappearance of the Cold War frogman Buster Crabb Includes illustrations

Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in Sheffield Geoffrey Howse, 2009-05-21 The author of A History of London's Prisons reveals the ugly criminal past of one of England's most beautiful cities It hardly seems surprising that what has become England's fourth city has within its rich history a sinister and darker side Take a journey to discover cases of petty crime riots burglary robbery assault suicide unlawful killing manslaughter and murder as well as a host of quirky and quizzical crimes from the early Victorian period to modern times One sensational case covered is that of Sheffield born Charles Peace considered by some criminologists to be England's most notorious murderer He was hanged at Leeds on February 25 1879 for the killing of Arthur Dyson at Darnall in 1876 Peace's criminality seemed to know no bounds Several other sensational and forgotten murders are featured and a range of cases mentioned refer to many former landmarks in and around old Sheffield from public houses and hotels to factories shops and steelworks This book is sure to be an absorbing read for anyone interested in our local social history

The Top Books of the Year Foul Deeds And Suspicious Deaths In York The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Foul Deeds And Suspicious Deaths In York : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
