Foundations For A Practical Theology Of Ministry:

Foundations for a Practical Theology of Ministry James Newton Poling, Donald Eugene Miller, 1985 The pastoral ministry is in danger of losing its focus say the authors of this perceptive and timely study Specialization in preaching counseling evangelism administration and education has diffused the impact of practical theology And because of competing ideas as to what now is central the very image of ministry may be breaking down Foundations for a Practical Theology of Ministry responds to the problem by introducing a specific method for doing practical theology which will be welcomed by concerned church leaders everywhere Presenting a realistic workable answer to those who call for a revival of this vital discipline Drs James N Poling and Donald E Miller propose that the unifying image for ministry becomes the formation of the community of faith After developing this as the most appropriate base for the practice of theology they carefully outline their method and show how it will work by demonstrating its success in the actual experiences of typical congregations For Christian leaders who seek to renew the integrity of ministry and restore the character of pastoral leadership this significant book will provide a solid foundation And for individuals interested or involved in education for the future of the church this important resource will prove invaluable

Preaching to Korean Immigrants Rebecca Seungyoun Jeong, 2022-09-14 In terms of practical theology's critical reflection on marginalized people's wounds in a wider society this book investigates the question How to proclaim the good news in response to first generation Korean immigrants contextual suffering in the United States To answer the question the book starts with investigating Korean immigrant hearers contextual predicaments in a new land to point out emerging practical theological issues in relation to the practice of preaching In this book the primary subjects are first generation Korean immigrants especially those who have relatively low socio economic status and struggle with the purpose of their lives as immigrants particularly those whose material dreams have been shattered In order to proclaim the good news this book proposes a more appropriate immigrant theology for in the practice of preaching by reclaiming the priorities of God's future in our lives and confirming God's active identification with Korean immigrant congregations in the depths of their predicament. Such reconstructive work for immigrant theology arises in response to their existential hardships, marginality, ethnic discrimination, and relative powerlessness in life. While acknowledging both the possibilities and limits of the diverse forms of current Korean immigrant preaching, the book then offers a strategic proposal for a new homiletic theory, namely, a psalmic theological homiletic. This proposed homiletic is deeply rooted in the theology of the Psalms and their rhetorical movement. This re-envisioned mode of eschatological and prophetic preaching in times of difficulty recovers ancient Israel's psalmic rhetorical tradition that aims toward faith. Its theological rhetorical strategy intends to both transform hearers' habitus of living in faith and enhance their hope-filled life through communal anticipation of God's coming future on the margins. Specifically, this proposed homiletic critically adopts key features from psalms of lament and their typical fourfold theological rhetorical movement: i.e., lament, retelling a story, confessional doxology, and obedient vow as now core elements of a revised Korean immigrant preaching practice.

Practical Theology for Aging Derrell R. Watkins, 2013-01-11. Learn new approaches for strengthening the religious bonds of our aging population. Through Scripture studies and the personal experiences of religious leaders and congregants, Practical Theology for Aging offers new concepts for ministering to our older population. Each chapter looks at a different concern for the elderly and addresses it with the assurance that aging is part of God's great work. From scientific models and case studies to passages from both the Old and New Testaments, this volume illuminates the power of faith in keeping the elderly whole and well. Practical Theology for Aging reveals several barriers to the spiritual wellness of our elders. These include society's stereotypical views of frailty and incompetence in older people, the lack of common support by communities of faith, and the dissatisfaction of the elderly with outdated traditional answers to their concerns of aging, suffering, and death. Each barrier can be overcome by utilizing the practical theology you will find in this book. Restated throughout the volume is the message that the journey into old age does not have to be filled with dread and fear but can be seen as a path to spiritual maturity. This book has practical suggestions that address God's purpose for aging: why do we have to grow old, sexual health for senior citizens, the suffering and physical debilitation that sometimes accompany aging, afflictions like dementia and Alzheimer's disease, and how to minister to the unresponsive. The inclusion of spirituality in rehabilitation to heal the whole person after catastrophic illness or injury, preaching to senior citizens as opposed to preaching to a younger congregation, so much more. Practical Theology for Aging presents tips and strategies for spiritual advisement as well as traditional quotes and references reminding us to respect and honor our aging men and women. Whether you are a religious leader, caretaker, family member, or esteemed elder, this book is vital for strengthening spirituality in the elderly and promoting their inclusion into the religious community.

Rethinking Faith James Newton Poling, 2011-08. What can practical theology contribute to other theological disciplines and the church about the nature of God and the church's witness to Jesus Christ in the world What can we learn about the love and power of God in Jesus Christ from the community of survivors of violence Rethinking Faith urges all Christians to consider themselves practical theologians by drawing on their own experiences in making theological assertions Poling couples his understanding of the tradition with his work with survivors of violence to demonstrate the resilience of Christianity Christian Practical Wisdom Dorothy C. Bass ,Kathleen A. Cahalan ,Bonnie J. Miller-McClemore ,James R. Nieman ,Christian B. Scharen ,2016 In this richly collaborative work five distinguished scholars examine the oft neglected embodied practical wisdom that is essential for true theological understanding and faithful Christian living After first showing what Christian practical wisdom is and does in several real life situations the authors tell why such practical wisdom matters and how it operates exploring reasons behind its decline in both the academy and the church and setting forth constructive cases for its renewal Overture to Practical Theology Jeanne Stevenson-Moessner,2016-11-10 In Overture to Practical Theology Jeanne Stevenson Moessner takes a new route to introduce theology students and others to the field of practical theology Although she is certainly aware of relatively recent efforts to show the academic credentials of practical theology through careful definition citing that of David Tracy analysis of components and linkages to other disciplines within and without the overall framework of theology she proceeds by means of a double analogy rather than abstract academic precision to illumine practical theology Actual case studies also helpfully illumine aspects of her work From the Foreword by James N Lapsley The book examines biblical foundations historical roots and current manifestations of social justice ministry Stevenson Moessner shows how practical theology addresses racism sexism violence anti-Semitism ecological imbalance and life at the margins of society the vexing issues of today's ministry Practicing Discipleship Nicole L. Johnson,2009-06-01 Despite a plurality of doctrinal statements on war peace and nonviolence some United Methodists sustain a commitment to nonviolence Through qualitative research Practicing Discipleship draws out lived theologies of nonviolence in order to understand how nonviolent United Methodists define ground and practice nonviolence and to give that voice opportunity to challenge church doctrine and thereby the wider church An analysis of statements from the Book of Disciplines and the Book of Resolutions reveals the plurality of Methodist teachings on moral issues related to war and peace While such plurality is indicative of the inclusive tradition of United Methodism Johnson shows that it also causes confusion thus hindering the vitality and authority of the church's witness This study's qualitative analysis of in depth interviews with twelve nonviolent United Methodists reveals a lived theology rooted in Scripture and theological reflection it points particularly to a christocentrism that posits nonviolence as central to Christ's teachings and example While study participants affirm the tradition of openness in the United Methodist Church they also call for more tangible and extensive support for and education about nonviolence as a faithful option for Christians Through amicable and constructive practical theological dialogue doctrinal plurality and ecclesial openness are affirmed as appropriate and possible only within the context of the church's profound commitment to serious discipleship which includes transformation toward nonviolence Implications of this interaction include developing and adopting a more truthful conception of a nonviolent ethics moving toward broadly conceived Christian formation in nonviolence and fostering ongoing ecclesial dialogue about difficult moral issues of war peace and nonviolence T&T Clark Handbook of Thomas F. inner shape of learning and meaning making for individuals and groups especially ways in which individuals are formed for the task of their work Building on empirical research into the author s professional practice the book takes the use of poetry in clergy continuing ministerial development as a case study to examine the value of poetry in professional learning Setting out the advantages and limitations of poetry as a stimulant for imaginative critical reflexivity and formation within professional reflective practice the study develops a practical model for group reflection around poetry distilling pedagogical approaches for working effectively with poetry in continuing professional development Drawing together a number of strands of thinking about poetry Practical Theology and reflective practice into a tightly argued study the book is an important methodological resource It makes available a range of primary and secondary sources offering researchers into professional practice a model of ethnographic research in Practical Theology which embraces innovative methods for reflexivity and theological reflection including the value of auto ethnographic poetry Ministry on the Fireline Ray S.

Anderson,2011-07-12 The best theory for fighting fires comes from actually engaging in the battle against the flames Ray Anderson writes For the thousands of pastors and church leaders who are on the firelines of God s mission in the world we need a theology that sings even as it stings igniting the mind and stirring the heart In these pages then Anderson passionately sets forth a vision of the church s work and mission based on its birthday Pentecost At Pentecost Christians were given the Holy Spirit in order to understand the incarnation and come alive to God So this key event directs and empowers the church in its service to the world In the light of Pentecost we learn that we can come to know God only in praxis truth discovered through action In the process of elucidating this praxis Anderson seeks to construct a theology that not only truly respects and aids ministers on the firelines but will also heal the breach between Pentecostal and mainline church theology Faithful Companionship Chris R.
