Normative Justification of a Global Ethic Uchenna B. Okeja,2013 The focus of this book is the normativity of global ethic Over the years different cultures and civilizations have been brought closer than never before by globalization This trend has both its negative and positive dimensions Overall the main problem of this present trend of societal organization and human interaction called globalization is a moral issue namely the question how should we treat one another Okeja's global ethic seeks to answer this question It underscores that we should treat one another in our current age of globalization in accordance with the Golden Rule principle The suggestion of this ethic is therefore that we should not treat others the way we would not want to be treated This sounds simple enough The problem however is that it is not exactly clear what this principle of moral conduct would suggest in both simple and complex moral situations Most importantly it is not clear why it is reasonable to treat people the way we would not want to be treated Why in other words should we act in accordance with the Golden Rule principle What is the justification of the demand the Golden Rule makes on us This book answers these and other questions about the normative plausibility of the Golden Rule and thus global ethic from the comparative perspective of ethics in African philosophy It analyzes three stages of the possible normative justification of the moral imperative of global ethic and proposes a deliberative form of justification African Metaphysics, Epistemology and a New Logic Jonathan

O. Chimakonam,L. Uchenna Ogbonnaya,2021-05-06 This book focuses on African metaphysics and epistemology and is an exercise in decoloniality The authors describe their approach to decoloniality as an intellectual repudiation of coloniality using the method of conversational thinking grounded in Ezumezu logic Focusing specifically on both African metaphysics and African epistemology the authors put forward theories formulated to stimulate fresh debates and extend the frontiers of learning in the field They emphasize that this book is not a project in comparative philosophy nor is it geared towards making Africa ns the object subjects of philosophy Rather the book highlights and discusses philosophical insights that have been produced from the African perspective which the authors argue must be further developed in order to achieve decoloniality in the field of philosophy more broadly

Ka Osi Sọ Onye: African Philosophy in the Postmodern Era Jonathan O. Chimakonam, Edwin E. Etieyibo, 2018-05-15 This collection is about composing thought at the level of modernism and decomposing it at the postmodern level where many cocks might crow with African philosophy as a focal point It has two parts part one is titled The Journey of Reason in African Philosophy and part two is titled African Philosophy and Postmodern Thinking There are seven chapters in both parts Five of the essays are reprinted here as important selections while nine are completely new essays commissioned for this book As their titles suggest in part one African philosophy is unfolded in the manifestation of reason as embedded in modern thought while in part two it draws the effect of reason as implicated in the postmodern orientation While part one strikes at what V Y Mudimbe calls the colonising structure or the Greco European logo phallo euro centricism in thought part two bashes the excesses of modernism and partly valorises postmodernism In some chapters modernism is presented as an intellectual version of communalism characterised by the cliché our people say Our thinking is that the voice of reason is not the voice of the people but the voice of an individual The idea of this book is to open new vistas for the discipline of African philosophy African philosophy is thus presented as a disagreement discourse Without rivalry of thoughts Africa will settle for far less This gives postmodernism an important place perhaps deservedly more important than history of philosophy allocates to it It is that philosophical moment that says philosophers must cease speaking like gods in their hegemonic cultural shrines and begin to converse across borders with one another In this conversation the goal for African philosophers must not be to find final answers but to sustain the conversation which alone can extend human reason to its furthest reaches

Mmolai, 2007-12-29 Ever since the publication of Placide Tempel's epoch making work Bantu Philosophy African philosophers have worked to dispel the myth that there is no metaphysics in Africa In the East African context we remember the names of Joseph Nyasmi and Odera Oruka and in the West African context Pauline Hountondji and Kwesi Wiredu have made monumental contributions to elucidate African metaphysics This compendium presented by a group of scholars from the University of Botswana seeks to build bridges between the seemingly estranged disciplines of African metaphysics existential philosophy and economics in the contexts of HIV AIDS

Nationalism and African Intellectuals Toyin Falola, 2004 An examination of the attempt by Western educated African intellectuals to create a better Africa through connecting nationalism to knowledge from the anti colonial movement to the present day This book is about how African intellectuals influenced primarily by nationalism have addressed the inter related issues of power identity politics self assertion and autonomy for themselves and their continent from the mid nineteenth century onward Their major goal was to create a better Africa by connecting nationalism to knowledge The results have been mixed from the glorious euphoria of the success of anti colonial movements to the depressing circumstances of the African condition as we enter a new millennium As the intellectual elite is a creation of the Western formal school system the ideas it generated are also connected to the larger world of scholarship This world is in turn shaped by European contacts with Africa from the fifteenth century onward the politics of the Cold War and the subsequent collapse of the Soviet Union In essence Africa and its elite cannot be fully understood without also considering the West and changing global politics Neither can the academic and media contributions by non Africans be ignored as these also affect the ways that Africans think about themselves and their continent Nationalism and African Intellectuals examines intellectuals ambivalent relationships with the colonial apparatus and subsequent nation state formations the contradictions manifested within pan Africanism and nationalism and the relation of academic institutions and intellectual production to the state during the nationalism period and beyond Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin

CRITICAL ESSAYS ON POSTMODERNISM Godfrey O. Ozumba, Patrick J. Mendie, Michael Ukah & Christopher A. Udofia (Edited), 2017 The aim of this book is to tell a fuller story of postmodernism as applied to philosophy and a few other related disciplines The book considers postmodernism from different angles Apart from examining the nexus between postmodernism and different branches of philosophy The ideas of leading postmodern thinkers we critically discussed In an age where students find it very difficult to buy relevant books this book is a handy reference material because it covers the very essential areas of postmodernism I must commend the Editors of the book for their editorial astuteness and all the contributors for exhibiting a wonderful and overwhelming enlightenment for philosophy students and students of related disciplines I strongly recommend the book for these and enlightened readers who seek a deeper knowledge of the subject Contemporary African Metaphysical Thought Ada Agada, Emmanuel Ofuasia, Bruno Yammeluan Ikuli, 2024-12-22 African metaphysics question a variety of issues ranging from the nature of fundamental reality to the meaning of human existence African philosophers have introduced groundbreaking metaphysical theories in response to these metaphysical issues and questions These theories provide uniquely African perspectives that challenge philosophers to look inwards and produce globally competitive ideas instead of exoticising traditional African worldviews for the intellectual entertainment of a non African audience This volume advances the field of African metaphysics by critically engaging with key metaphysical ideas and concepts developed by African metaphysical thinkers The chapters contributed in this volume by established researchers and promising young scholars challenge and modify existing metaphysical theories while proposing novel theories that shape debates in the field Exploring the Occult and Paranormal in West Africa Josephat Obi Oguejiofor, Tobias Wendl, 2012 The point of departure for this book is a phenomenon which is often referred to as the return of the religious a recent but apparently ubiquitous phenomenon which does not fit the modernist axiom of secularization neither in the developed nor the developing worlds In Africa the last two decades have witnessed a remarkable and steady increase in the spread and reinforcement of occult and paranormal phenomena The reports on these developments are not restricted to specific countries or areas they cover the whole continent and surface in the most diverse images media stories and rumors The credence accorded to them has become an important factor that shapes social relationships in everyday life economic and political actions medical decisions and religious adherence Series African Studies Afrikanische Studien Vol 47
