

BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Scriptures are saturated with educational implications and imperatives. The promotion and preservation of the faith are common themes throughout Scripture, but the means employed to fulfill these tasks are distinctive between the Testaments. Within this lies the caution that some models and methods of education in the Scriptures are by nature culturally specific. While the biblical principles are undeniably essential to Christian education, the specific methodology may have to be assessed in light of relevance to contemporary culture.
