insights into what's changing, why it's changing and how to work best with these changes. It looks at the key issues that have been thrown into sharp relief by crises such as world pandemics. Drawing on work from outstanding authors, this book shows the ways in which the doctoral process has altered the supervisor-supervisee model and the challenges that now need to be managed and demonstrates the importance of aligning all the stakeholders' systems and processes to ensure a successful future for doctoral education. Bringing together a range of perspectives, innovative practices and rigorous research, this book tackles topics such as how doctoral research changes in keeping with the global expansion and transformation of doctoral education programmes; the significant influence funding bodies, be they charities, governments, businesses or non-governmental agencies, can have on doctoral research; the extent to which doctoral research penetrates daily life and vice versa; how to encourage and embed an ethical approach to research as well as university responses to external challenges. Uniquely international and bringing together the many stakeholders in the research business, this book is essential reading for all doctoral supervisors, candidates and anyone involved in designing or organising research programmes for early career researchers and doctoral students. Chapter 9 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0) license.

The Handbook of Social Research Ethics Donna M. Mertens, Pauline E. Ginsberg, 2009. Brings together international scholars across the social and behavioural sciences and education to address those ethical issues that arise in the theory and practice of research within the technologically advancing and culturally complex world in which we live.

Values & Ethics in Counselling and Psychotherapy Gillian Proctor, 2014-03-14. This book offers an introduction to values and ethics in counselling and psychotherapy, helping you to develop the ethical awareness needed throughout the counselling process. The book covers Context and emergence of ethics in counselling; Exercises to explore personal and professional values; Tools to develop ethical mindfulness; Differences between therapeutic models; Relational ethics; Ethical dilemmas and issues; Practice issues including confidentiality, boundaries and autonomy versus beneficence. Using in-depth case studies of counselling students, the author demonstrates the constant relevance of values and ethics to counselling and psychotherapy, equipping trainees with the tools to successfully navigate values and ethics in their professional practice.

Becoming Board Certified by the American Board of Professional Psychology Christine Maguth Nezu, A.J. Finch, Jr., Norma P. Simon, 2009-06-30. For the past 60 years, the American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP) has been the premier credentialing agency for psychologists. ABPP is increasingly recognized as a highly valuable standard of specialty competency through the board certification process. For specialty recognition, some jurisdictions require ABPP certification with more states getting involved each year. Additionally, there is increasing recognition of the importance of the ABPP credential by employers such as hospitals and health service systems and organizations such as the US Public Health Service, the US Department of Defense, and the Department of Veteran Affairs. This edited book provides a comprehensive description and hands-on practical guide for individuals seeking certification from any one of the 13 specialty boards of the American Board of Professional Psychology. The book contains answers to frequent areas of inquiry and questions posed by potential candidates. In addition to providing a brief description of the history and mission of ABPP, the book offers step-by-step information concerning the where, what, and how of the board certification process. Finally, never before offered information is provided such as what pitfalls to avoid and how to get further involved in the profession as a board-certified psychologist.

Encyclopedia of Business and Professional Ethics Deborah C. Poff, Alex C. Michalos, 2023-05-24. This encyclopedia, edited by the past editors and founder of the Journal of Business Ethics, is the only reference work dedicated entirely to business and professional ethics. Containing over 2000 entries, this multi-volume major research reference work provides a broad-based disciplinary and interdisciplinary approach to all of the key topics in the field. The encyclopedia draws on three interdisciplinary and overlapping fields: business ethics, professional ethics, and applied ethics, although the main focus is on business ethics. The breadth of scope of this work draws upon the expertise of human and social scientists as well as that of professionals and scientists in varying fields. This work has come to fruition by making use of the expert academic input from the extraordinarily rich population of current and past editorial board members and section editors of and contributors to the Journal of Business Ethics.

Practicum and Internship Christin M. Jungers, Judith Scott, 2019-05-21. Completely revised and updated, the sixth edition of Practicum and Internship is a practical resource that provides students and supervisors with thorough coverage of all stages and aspects of the practicum and internship process. New to this edition are downloadable, customizable online forms, contracts, and other materials. Across the board, updates reflect 2016 CACREP standards. Incorporation of contemporary research and literature addresses recommended practices and ethical considerations regarding the use of technology in counseling. New information on preparing students to run their first counseling and therapy groups. A review of ethical standards and current perspectives on working with culturally diverse clients. Current perspectives on managing self-care during practicum and internship and beyond. A thoughtful presentation of trauma-informed approaches to counseling. A revised final chapter including guidelines for preparing for licensure exams and for longevity in the profession. With comprehensive information that spans across therapeutic approaches, concerns, and topics, this remains an essential foundational text for counseling and psychotherapy students and their supervisors.

Counseling Children and Adolescents Rebekah Byrd, Chad Luke, 2020-12-21. Counseling Children and Adolescents focuses on relationship building and creating a deep level of understanding of developmental attachment and brain-based information. Chapters place a clear emphasis on building strengths and developing empathy.

awareness and skills By going beyond theory and offering a strengths based attachment neuro and trauma informed perspective this text offers real world situations and tried and true techniques for working with children and adolescents Grounded in research and multicultural competency the book focuses on encouragement recognizing resiliency and empowerment This book is an ideal guide for counselors looking for developmentally appropriate strategies to empower children and adolescents
