Foundations Of Management:

Foundations of Management Robbins & Bergman & Stagg, 2008-11-11 FOUNDATIONS OF MANAGEMENT 3e has been written to address the needs of introductory management subjects that require an accessible and concise introduction. This streamlined text of 15 chapters covers the principal concepts of management to provide students with a solid foundation for understanding key issues. Management is a dynamic discipline and a textbook in this area must constantly undergo significant changes to prepare students to manage modern ever-changing organisations within our transforming world. This new third edition builds on the success of its previous editions by exploring the new challenges that face managers today. New topics and features have been added to better reflect the field of management and to capture the excitement of this dynamic discipline. The text highlights six integrative topics throughout. These topics are managing for sustainability, globalisation, innovation, customer service, diversity, and ethics. In particular, we believe the inclusion of managing for sustainability is an important recognition of the challenge that must be met by today's managers and organisations as they start to tackle the issue of global warming. This best-selling text is not a book that just describes management theories. In addition, it includes many practical examples and cases which illustrate the theories in action. As it successfully integrates the various functions of management, the book establishes a dialogue with managers from a variety of fields. This third edition continues to make management concepts meaningful and to excite readers about the possibilities of careers in management.

Scriptural Foundations for Management Michael E. Cafferky, 2013-08 Foundations of Management Robert Kreitner, 2005 The Psychological Foundations of Management Henry Clayton Metcalf, 1927 A Foundation in the Principles of Management (First Edition) Daniel Kipley, Ronald Jewe, Roxanne Helm-Stevens, 2015-01-07. A Foundation in the Principles of Management gives readers a firm understanding of important principles of business management. These principles serve as building blocks for future business courses in the major. The initial chapters introduce the history of management and familiarize readers with different management roles and functions. Students then learn about ethics, an increasingly important focus in today's business education. The book addresses planning and decision making and how to effectively handle change, innovation, and conflict. Readers also explore management in distinct scenarios and environments, including managing communication, work teams, human resources, and service and manufacturing operations. Specific topics include interview formats, the history of management, the four functions of management, organizational structure and design, and strategic planning. Each chapter features clearly defined objectives to focus and enhance learning, a summary to support retention and review, and discussion questions that can be used to facilitate classroom interaction or to serve as outside assignments. Informative, interesting, and accessible, A Foundation in the Principles of Management is designed for introductory courses in management and business. Daniel Kipley holds a D.B.A. and an M.B.A. in strategic management from Alliant International University in San Diego, California, as well as a Masters in management from the University of Redlands.

California Dr Kipley is a professor at Azusa Pacific University where he has been nominated for the university's Distinguished Research Professor award Ronald Jewe earned his Ph D in organizational leadership at Regent University and his M B A from Arizona State University He is a professor the Undergraduate Chair and the Associate Dean in the School of Business and Management at Azusa Pacific University where he teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in management leadership and business ethics Roxanne Helm Stevens has a D B A in strategic management from Alliant International University and an M B A from Azusa Pacific University She is an associate professor and Director of Graduate Management Programs at Azusa Pacific where she teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in organizational behavior management business and employee development
