Familiar Echo's Evan Hawkins, 2009-05 This is a story of dysfunctional families and the effects encountered by one young woman who has been in a state of denial for decades When the winds of change slowly blow in her direction this woman is reminded and convinced that her life has been a difficult one at best She is forced to search her scattered and fragmented memories in an attempt to survive the unrelenting devastating blows of a difficult reality The reality of her past begins to reveal its haunting qualities early one morning after a disturbing dream and continues to grow while she survives one devastating blow after another And through a persistent state of depression with a mutilated spirit and her amputated muse she begins therapy with a compassionate miracle worker Her journey is a long one as her therapist guides her through a maze of suppressed and repressed memories into recognition And with recognition is a set of new eyes viewing and evaluating all of her choices while living in a life of denial that she created for existence Surviving as a damaged person can dictate how a soul will evolve An important component is the disposition of the person A person's character dictates how the damaged person lives survives and they usually know how to survive it can be a negative or a positive life of survival Survival depends strongly upon the individual the boundaries and environment that they create to support his or her life With the support of her family and friends she finds acceptance of her reality and purges her soul of a mistaken life style of fantasies

Maps, Myths, and Men Kirsten A. Seaver, 2004 The Vinland Map first surfaced on the antiquarian market in 1957 and the map's authenticity has been hotly debated ever since in controversies ranging from the anomalous composition of the ink and the map's lack of provenance to a plethora of historical and cartographical riddles Maps Myths and Men is the first work to address the full range of this debate Focusing closely on what the map in fact shows the book contains a critique of the 1965 work The Vinland Map and the Tartar Relation scrutinizes the marketing strategies used in 1957 and covers many aspects of the map that demonstrate it is a modern fake such as literary evidence and several scientific ink analyses performed between 1967 and 2002 The author explains a number of the riddles and provides evidence for both the identity of the mapmaker and the source of the parchment used and she applies current knowledge of medieval Norse culture and exploration to counter widespread misinformation about Norse voyages to North America and about the Norse world picture
