Wartime Paul Fussell, 1990-10-25 Winner of both the National Book Award for Arts and Letters and the National Book Critics Circle Award for Criticism Paul Fussell s The Great War and Modern Memory was one of the most original and gripping volumes ever written about the First World War Frank Kermode in The New York Times Book Review hailed it as an important contribution to our understanding of how we came to make World War I part of our minds and Lionel Trilling called it simply one of the most deeply moving books I have read in a long time In its panoramic scope and poetic intensity it illuminated a war that changed a generation and revolutionized the way we see the world Now in Wartime Fussell turns to the Second World War the conflict he himself fought in to weave a narrative that is both more intensely personal and more wide ranging Whereas his former book focused primarily on literary figures on the image of the Great War in literature here Fussell examines the immediate impact of the war on common soldiers and civilians He describes the psychological and emotional atmosphere of World War II He analyzes the euphemisms people needed to deal with unacceptable reality the early belief for instance that the war could be won by precision bombing that is by long distance he describes the abnormally intense frustration of desire and some of the means by which desire was satisfied and most important he emphasizes the damage the war did to intellect discrimination honesty individuality complexity ambiguity and wit Of course no Fussell book would be complete without some serious discussion of the literature of the time He examines for instance how the great privations of wartime when oranges would be raffled off as valued prizes resulted in roccoco prose styles that dwelt longingly on lavish dinners and how the high mindedness of the era and the almost pathological need to accentuate the positive led to the downfall of the acerbic H L Mencken and the ascent of E B White He also offers astute commentary on Edmund Wilson s argument with Archibald MacLeish Cyril Connolly s Horizon magazine the war poetry of Randall Jarrell and Louis Simpson and many other aspects of the wartime literary world Fussell conveys the essence of that wartime as no other writer before him For the past fifty years the Allied War has been sanitized and romanticized almost beyond recognition by the sentimental the loony patriotic the ignorant and the bloodthirsty Americans he says have never understood what the Second World War was really like In this stunning volume he offers such an understanding A Season in Purgatory Tony Moss,2007-01-01 At a school where basketball is king the Villanova football team fights its opponents both on and off the field This book tells the story of Villanova s 2005 season and of how coach Andy Talley and his team negotiate this thorny territory It takes a broader view of the class system that exists in college football Penguin Power Ron Cey,Ken Gurnick,2023-06-13 Mention The Penguin to any Dodgers fan and you re sure to evoke not just memories of the beloved third baseman Ron Cey but also of the glory years of modern Dodgers baseball a rollicking run through the 70s and 80s highlighted by the loquacious Tommy Lasorda Fernandomania a historic infield anchored by Cey and an unforgettable 1981 World Series title In Penguin Power Dodger Blue Hollywood Lights and a One in a Million Big League Journey The Penguin Ron Cey and veteran Dodgers scribe Ken Gurnick take fans on an amazing ride from Cey s formative years in the Pacific Northwest through his stardom on and off the field in Los Angeles and beyond As part of the longest running infield in MLB history six time All Star and 1981 co World Series MVP Cey joined Steve Garvey Davey Lopes and Bill Russell to help the Dodgers triumph after years of postseason heartbreak and bring the first World Series back to Los Angeles since Sandy Koufax and the Boys of Summer of 1965 Featuring charming stories from Cey s time in a memorable clubhouse alongside Dodger legends Lasorda Garvey and Fernando Valenzuela with Vin Scully and Jaime Jarr n in the booth as well as tales of the life of a star during a magical time in Los Angeles Penguin Power is a must read for fans of an unforgettable era of Dodgers baseball Storm MC Unfiltered Nina Levine,2023-03-02 Escape with a Nina Levine alpha Always protective Always possessive And their women give as good as they get This collection features a year of Storm group texts between all the Brisbane Storm couples as well as some bonus scenes You fell in love with them as they all found their HEA now see them living that happily ever after You ll laugh you ll swoon and you ll smile big while reading these texts and bonus scenes If you love the Storm MC you ll love this collection The Storm MC world from USA Today and Wall Street Journal bestselling author
