In the Face of the Absolute Frithjof Schuon, 2015-01-30 Religion scholar Huston Smith called Frithjof Schuon the most important religious thinker of the 20th century. In this revised edition of his classic work, perennialist author Frithjof Schuon addresses diverse aspects of the religious phenomenon with his characteristic authority. In the book's first section, Schuon provides striking insights into age-old religious and philosophical controversies such as the problem of evil, predestination and free will, and the meaning of eternity in the realms of heaven and hell. In the second section, Schuon masterfully harmonizes the divergent theological claims of the three main branches of Christianity: Orthodoxy, Catholicism, and Protestantism, in the light of universal metaphysical truth. The final section contains several chapters relating to Islamic esoterism and concludes with a remarkable chapter on the spiritual substance of the Prophet of Islam. This fully revised edition contains 60 pages of completely new material, including a new translation from the original French that corrects errors and omissions in the previous edition, as well as a new Appendix of previously unpublished letters and other writings. Also featured are a new Editor's Preface and extensive Editor's Notes by Harry Oldmeadow, which have been included to help explain and annotate various key terms, references, and historical figures mentioned in the text. A helpful Glossary of foreign terms and an Index have also been added.

Logic and Transcendence Frithjof Schuon, 2009-08-16 Frithjof Schuon (1907-1998) is the foremost representative of the Traditionalist or Perennialist school of comparative religious thought. This new edition of Logic and Transcendence, his most important philosophical work, is a fully revised translation from the French original and contains an extensive Appendix with previously unpublished selections from Schuon's letters and other private writings. Logic and Transcendence contains chapters devoted to specifically philosophical questions such as the contradiction of relativism, the notion of the concrete and abstract, and the limitations of Christianity/Islam.

Frithjof Schuon, 2008-03-26 Schuon's articles on the relationship between Christianity and Islam have profound implications in the field of inter-religious dialogue. Several thought-provoking chapters shed light from an inward dimension upon the apparent outward contradictions between these two religions, notably in the field of moral divergences. This new edition is a fully revised translation of the original French edition and contains an extensive new Appendix with previously unpublished selections from his letters and other private writings.

A Christian Woman's Secret Staveland Lilian, 2009-02-16 Possessing an extraordinary love for God, Protestant Lilian Staveland (1878-1928) teaches us to combine an inner and hidden dialog with Jesus Christ along with an outward life of everyday duties.
