Sahajananda, 2014-04-03 Fully Human Fully Divine Integral Dynamic Monotheism a Meeting Point between the Vedic Vision and the Vision of Christ is the latest book of John Martin Sahajananda. This book deals with finding the answer to the fundamental question Who are human beings. He looks for the answer to this basic question in two categories of spiritual traditions viz prophetic tradition and wisdom tradition. The wisdom tradition seems to focus on our oneness with God and the prophetic tradition on our humanness. He proposes a view that integrates these two views in an inclusive way. We are fully human and also fully divine. He looks at spiritual life as a dynamic process of evolution in relationship with God. This process he describes as Integral Dynamic Monotheism. In the second part of the book he explains to us about similarities between the spiritual awakening and spiritual evolution in the Vedic tradition and the biblical tradition. He shows how close these great traditions can come and when they come close together they realize what they need from one another to make them richer and fuller. Thus he says that the challenge of Upanishadic tradition to Christianity is to open the nondualistic experience of Jesus which is the radical love of God for all the Christians. In the same way the challenge of Christ to the Vedic tradition is to translate its nondualistic wisdom of God which is the radical love of God into nondualistic action and social transformation that is the radical love of one's neighbor Fully Human, Fully Divine Michael Casey (monk of Tarrawarra.), 2004 The World, Underworld, Overworld, Dreamworld Mike Hockney, 2014-09-12 Ancient cultures were faced with two immense problems Why is there something rather than nothing and why is the universe ordered rather than chaotic To answer these questions they invented cosmologies which were also the basis of their religious beliefs A person's cosmological and religious beliefs

are always interdependent The ordered universe of the ancients was divided into four 1 the World that we inhabit 2 the Overworld the sky and heavens that the gods inhabit 3 the Underworld that the dead inhabit and 4 Dreamworld the mysterious zone between sleep and death that connects the living dead and the gods This is the incredible story of these four worlds and how they have influenced the development of all human thought right up to the present day The Next Christian Faith Chris Kugler,2021-02-10 How does the Christian faith actually work as a worldview as a story as a larger vision of life within which the smaller categories of politics ethics and spirituality were designed to make sense That is after all what the Bible itself is offering one single if complex and multifaceted narrative worldview Scripture is a story And if we fail to appreciate this we will not only misread scripture but scripture s key character and from here we are likely to misread so much else Blue Sky God Don MacGregor,2012-07-16 Blue Sky God interprets some new scientific theories with blue sky thinking to bring radical insights into God Jesus and humanity drawing also on some deep wells from the past in the writings of the early Christians In an accessible style it looks at science research and theories in areas such as quantum physics and consciousness epigenetics morphic resonance and the zero point field From there seeing God as the compassionate consciousness at the ground of being it draws together strands to do with unitive consciousness and the Wisdom way of the heart Throughout it seeks to encourage an evolution in understanding of the Christian message by reinterpreting much of the theological language and meaning that has become orthodoxy in the West In doing so it challenges many of the standard assumptions of Western Christianity It outlines a spiritual path that includes elements from all of the world s great religions is not exclusive and yet has a place of centrality for Jesus the Christ as a Wisdom teacher of the path of transformative love Atonement, Christology and the Trinity Vincent Brummer,2020-10-07 For many believers today the doctrines of Atonement Christology and the Trinity seem like puzzling constructions produced by academic theologians They are cast in unintelligible forms of thought derived from Platonism or from feudal society and for many their existential relevance for life today remains unclear This book introduces these doctrines and proposes a reinterpretation in the light of the claim of many Christian mystics that ultimate happiness is to be found in enjoying the loving fellowship of God This claim is a matrix of faith in terms of which these doctrines are shown to be relevant for the life of faith of believers today Furthermore since this matrix can be defended within all three Abrahamic traditions Judaism Christianity and Islam the proposed understanding of these doctrines can also contribute usefully to the necessary dialogue between these traditions in a globalised world Survey on the Foundations of Catholic Theology Winifredo Nierras,2024-01-10 The Survey on the Foundations of Catholic Theology delves into the fundamental principles that underpin the Catholic faith Exploring the doctrines traditions and teachings this survey aims to unravel the core beliefs that shape the theological landscape of Catholicism From the significance of Scripture and Tradition to the sacramental life and moral teachings this study provides a comprehensive overview offering insight into the bedrock of Catholic theology that guides believers in their spiritual journey T&T Clark Handbook of Suffering and the Problem of Evil Matthias Grebe, Johannes Grössl, 2023-07-13 This wide ranging work provides an extensive exploration of the theology of theodicy asking questions such as should all instances of suffering necessarily be understood as evil Why would an omnipotent and benevolent God allow or perpetrate evil Is God unable or unwilling to reduce human and non human suffering on Earth Does humanity have the capacity to exercise a moral evaluation of God s motives and intentions Conventional disciplinary boundaries have tended to separate theological approaches to these questions from philosophical ones This volume aims to overcome these boundaries by including biblical Part I historical Part II doctrinal Part III philosophical Part IV and pastoral interreligious perspectives and alternative intersections Part V on theodicy Authors include thinkers from analytic and continental traditions multiple Christian denominations and other religions and both established and younger scholars providing a full variety of approaches What unites the essays is an attempt to answer these questions from the perspective of biblical testimony historical scholarship modern theological and philosophical thinking about the concept of God non Christian religions science and the arts The result is a combination of in depth analysis and breadth of scope making this a benchmark work for further studies in the theology of suffering and evil Out of Galilee M. Darrol Bryant, 2018-04-20 Out of Galilee The History of Christian Thought as a Great Conversation is an ambitious exploration of Christian thought over two millennia It discloses the remarkable unity in diversity of the thought of women monks mystics men philosophers and theologians who are seeking to unfold the meaning and mystery of divine intention in Jesus Christ From the first century in Galilee to the early apologists such as Irenaeus from Augustine s Confessions to the mystic voices of Hildegard of Bingen and Teresa of Avila and to reformers such as Martin Luther and John Calvin Christians have sought to understand the Christian vision and unfold paths of spirituality The quest continues among Pietists among Puritans such as Jonathan Edwards and among Methodists Together with modern thinkers such as Schliermacher and contemporaries such as Thomas Berry and Abhishiktanada these notable figures have woven the living narrative of Christian thought You will find them all here in accessible language intended for a generalist audience Avoiding technical language Out of Galilee reveals the essential contributions of each to the story of Christian thinking through the ages Systematic Theology Wayne A. study of church doctrine The multivolume set covers the major parts of church doctrine Canon God Creation Reconciliation and Redemption The first volume begins with an introduction to the entire project on why doctrine matters which stresses the ecumenical global and above all biblical horizons of church doctrine as a primary expression of Christian witness The purpose of this fourth volume is to celebrate the gospel of Jesus Christ as the treasure of the church and the power of God for the reconciliation of the world The gospel bears witness to the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and calls for faith in him as the free gift of forgiveness and new life The gospel is constantly in motion tearing down every barrier of human bigotry and prejudice not only forming a new society but reforming the church itself Church doctrine is not a luxury but a necessity for the living community of faith by which its witness in word and deed is tested against the one true measure of Christ the risen Lord
