"Paint It Black" How Rock-N-Roll And Other Tools Are The Best Problem Solving Techniques Rom Werran Gayoso, 2016-02-12 This book is a self reflection exercise designed to help readers overcome challenging problems through the use of specific problem solving techniques In the introduction we learn about decision making strategies that work in situations of uncertainty and we learn scenario planning a technique invented in the 1960's for the US Dept of Defense later adapted for use in the private sector Each of the seven practical cases listed comprehend a short explanation of the context a stated objective and a story Each story is summarized and at the end of the chapter there is a guided self reflection questionnaire to help the reader adapt the story to a specific problem they want to solve followed by an exercise For example the seventh story Pick a musical instrument or let the instrument pick you is the inspiration for the title of this book The story

is the journey of a young musician trying to find a way to express himself through music The problem on hand is to pick one instrument over another so either a guitar or a bass The story presents two powerful instruments for self discovery the experiential approach and futuring In the experiential approach the musician is presented with each instrument one at a time and after each interaction the observer records how the musician felt Futuring involves presenting the musician with different situations using videos and then asking the musician which person they identify with in each case It is important to note as adults we have the added responsibility to exhibit positive behaviors we must share our experience so that hopefully those who come after us will learn from our mistakes The goal of the seventh story is to help us conduct a similar exercise making better choices and more enlightened decisions The first story Buying a House helps us consider the two most influential macro economic variables present in the purchasing of a house inflation and unemployment The second story A Life Changing Investment posts the challenge for us to decide between two good alternatives In the third story Where to Live we follow the journey of a person trying to decide on a place to live but the alternatives are in dramatically different places and cultures The fourth story Cousin Sophie s Wedding is a situation with various deeply ingrained conflicts The fifth story El Otro Lado describes the challenges a potential immigrant faces in the process of deciding to come to the United States or staying put where they are The sixth story Aunt Angie Turns 100 presents a conflict with a person we could not otherwise avoid and therefore need to develop a coping strategy In each story the challenges are real life problems involving characters we encounter on a daily basis and living through situations we cannot leave unattended rather they require immediate attention and the use of good strategies to help us become more successful This is not a feel good type of book rather it is written with the intent to guide the reader through a series of seven self reflection exercises designed to challenge and push us to overcome each specific challenge with the help of a decision making technique In other words the reader is expected to actively use the exercises to find solutions to problems and not to behave like a passive audience

Re-writing America Philip D. Beidler, 1991 With his first book American Literature and the Experience of Vietnam Philip Beidler offered a pioneering study of the novels plays poetry and literature of witness that sprang from the United States involvement in the Vietnam War Reviewing the book the journal American Literature declared It is more than just an introductory act It also sets forth what are sure to be lasting types of American literary response to Vietnam and of the scholarly response to the emerging literature of the war In Re Writing America Beidler charts the ongoing achievements of the men and women who first gained public notice as Vietnam authors and who are now recognized as major literary interpreters of our national life and culture at large These writers among them Tim O'Brien Philip Caputo Winston Groom David Rabe John Balaban Robert Stone Michael Herr Gloria Emerson and Frances Fitzgerald have applied in their later efforts says Beidler many of the hard won lessons of literary sense making learned in initial works attempting to come explicitly to terms with Vietnam Beidler argues that the Vietnam authors have done much to reenergize American creative writing and to lead it out of the poststructuralist impasse of texts as endless critiques of language representation and authority With their direct experience of a divisive and frustrating war a war not of their own making but of the making of politicians and experts a war of ancient animosities that cost nearly everything for those involved and settled virtually nothing these writers in many ways resemble the celebrated generation of poets and novelists who emerged from World War I Like their forebears of 1914-18 those of the Vietnam generation have undertaken a common project of cultural revision to re-write America to create an art that even as it continues to acknowledge the war's painful memory projects that memory into new dimensions of mythic consciousness for other and better times Beidler fills his book with detailed illuminating analyses of the writers' works which as he notes have moved across an almost infinite range of subject genre and mode From David Rabe for example have come innovative plays in which overt statements on the traumas of Vietnam The Basic Training of Pavlo Hummel Streamers have made way for broader commentaries on sex power and violence in American life In the Boom Boom Room HurlyBurly Winston Groom has moved from Better Times Than These a rather traditional even anachronistic war novel to further reaches of rambunctious humor in Forrest Gump And journalist Michael Herr whose Dispatches memorably defined a Vietnam landscape at once real and hallucinatory carried his vision into collaborations on the films Apocalypse Now and Full Metal Jacket As Beidler notes the immense price that Vietnam exacted from the American soul continues to draw a plethora of interpretations and depictions Vietnam authors remind us in Tim O'Brien's words of the things they carried But as Beidler makes clear they now command us not only to remember but to imagine new possibilities as well

Search and Clear William J. Searle, 1988 Search and Clear demonstrates that the seeds of war were implicit in American culture distinguishes between literature spawned by Vietnam and that of other conflicts reviews the literary merits of works both well and little known and explores the assumptions behind and the persistence of stereotypes associated with the consequences of the Vietnam War It examines the role of women in fiction the importance of gender in Vietnam representation and the mythic patterns in Oliver Stone s Platoon Essayists sharply scrutinize American values conduct and conscience as they are revealed in the craft of Tim O Brien Philip Caputo Michael Herr Stephen Wright David Rabe Bruce Weigl and others The Vietnam Plays David Rabe,2007-12-01 The only Vietnam plays to appear on Broadway while the war was raging from the Tony Award winning playwright of Hurlyburly Observer David Rabe has been a major voice and crucial force in American drama since 1971 when in the midst of the Vietnam War he startled the nation with The Basic Training of Pavlo Hummel The story of a native recruit s initiation into war it is by turns brutal and hilarious It won the young playwright an Obie and was hailed by The New York Times as rich humor irony and insight More than four decades later Rabe continues to be one of our most compelling dramatists In this the first of two volumes of The Vietnam Plays Pavlo Hummel is paired with the equally intense Sticks and Bones in which a blinded Vietnam veteran returns home numbed by the war and is astonished by his family s inability to comprehend their country s politics and his rage Pavlo won Al Pacino a Tony and Sticks and Bones won one for its Harriet Elizabeth Wilson plus a nomination for its Oz Tom Aldredge It also won the Best Play Tony Observer Defies a million slogans to become a contemporary masterpiece The Harvard Crimson on The Basic Training of Pavlo Hummel Sticks and Bones is still a searing critique of America s willful ignorance in the face of an ultra violent international war machine operating in our name TheaterMania This scalding work scores direct hits on the stubborn obliviousness of the folks back home to the realities of that dirtiest of 20th century wars The Hollywood Reporter on Sticks and Bones
