Fundamental Fear Eurocentrism And The Emergence Of Islamism:

A Fundamental Fear S. Sayyid, 1997-09-01 This is a brilliant and provocative re evaluation of political Islam Theoretically innovative the book shows how Islamism can only be understood in the context of its relation with Eurocentrism Using a neopragmatist approach inspired by Richard Rorty and drawing on political and cultural theorists such as Stuart Hall Agnes Heller and J F Lyotard the book disrupts the conventional accounts of modernity and postmodernity and presents a radical new reading of Islamism as a response to the de centring of the West Breaking with the Arab centrism of Islamic studies Bobby Sayyid provides a critical analysis of Kemalism as dominant postcolonial ideology in the Muslim world an ideology based on a Weberian understanding of the relationship between modernization and the West Using the metaphor of Kemalism to narrate the political order in the postcolonial world the author examines the rise of Islamism in the context of the postmodern critique of modernity The book provides a much needed conceptual narrative for an understanding of political Islam and its relationship to decolonization and the passing of the Age of Europe It is also an accessible introductory guide to the resurgence of Islamism and poststructuralist political theory

A Fundamental Fear Salman Sayyid, 2003 Machine generated contents note 1 Framin fundamentalism 2 Thinking Islamism re thinking Islamism 3 Kemalism and the politicization of Islam 4 Islam modernity and the West 5 Islamism and the limits of the invisible empire

A Fundamental Fear S. A. Sayid, 1995 The Symbolic Scenarios of Islamism Andrea Mura, 2016-03-09 The Symbolic Scenarios of Islamism initiates a dialogue between the discourse of three of the most discussed figures in the history of the Sunni Islamic movement Hasan al Banna Sayyid Qutb and Osama bin Laden and contemporary debates across religion and political theory providing a crucial foundation upon which to situate current developments in world politics Redressing the inefficiency of the terms in which the debate on Islam and Islamism is generally conducted the book examines the role played by tradition modernity and transmodernity as major symbolic scenarios of Islamist discourses highlighting the internal complexity and dynamism of Islamism By uncovering forms of knowledge that have hitherto gone unnoticed or have been marginalised by traditional and dominant approaches to politics accounting for central political ideas in non Western sources and in the Global South the book provides a unique contribution towards rethinking the nature of citizenship antagonism space and frontiers required today While offering valuable reading for scholars of Islamic studies religious studies and politics it provides a critical perspective for academics with an interest in discourse theory post colonial theory political philosophy and comparative political thought

Islam in Southeast Asia K. S. Nathan, Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2005 Examines the role relevance and challenges as well as the political and strategic dimensions of Islam in contemporary Southeast Asia

Radical Islam in the West Brian R. Farmer, 2014-01-10 This book explores the challenge posed by the immersion of 15 million Muslims in Western democracies and the few but volatile terrorists present within the larger body of believers The fact that immersion in Western culture is insufficient to stem the tide of extremism is discussed along with the factors that contribute to the growth of radical Islam such as the presence of charismatic authoritarian leadership educational options that downplay critical thinking and colonialism Hope that radical Islam can be kept to a minimum in Western societies is provided by the Islamic concept of Ijtihad through which Muslims reinterpret their own religion Just as mainstream Mormons have dispensed with polygamy and Christians with witch hunting Muslims in Western societies have the potential to minimize the growth of radicalism Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

The New Politics of Islam Naveed S. Sheikh, 2003-08-29 This timely study of Islam's international relations details both the theory of pan Islamism from classical to post caliphal times and the foreign policy practice of Saudi Arabia Iran and Pakistan from the colonial period to the present day

Debating Islam Samuel M. Behloul, Susanne Leuenberger, Andreas Tünger-Zanetti, 2014-03-15 Conspicuously Islam has become a key concern in most European societies with respect to issues of immigration integration identity values and inland security As the mere presence of Muslim minorities fails to explain these debates convincingly new questions need to be asked How did Islam become a topic Who takes part in the debates How do these debates influence both individual as well as collective self images and image of others Introducing Switzerland as an under researched object of study to the academic discourse on Islam in Europe this volume offers a fresh perspective on the objective by putting recent case studies from diverse national contexts into comparative perspective

Political Theory and South Asian Counter-Narratives Maidul Islam, 2021-09-28 This book evaluates the promise of human progress and secularism in grand political narratives of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries comparing counter narratives of South Asia within the context of a fast changing twenty first century The book embraces a broad range of sources and theoretical approaches that include political philosophy film and ideological discourse analysis In the twenty first century global inequality and significant growth of religious and majoritarian nationalisms have been appended with a protracted economic slowdown and recession in many countries Examining what went wrong in terms of secularism and distributive justice in India this book critiques the Euro American visions of democracy global capitalism and their so called universality As an alternative it proposes a progressive politics of radical democracy for the Indian people Reconsidering alternatives to capitalism western secularism and the radical possibilities of Islamism Political Theory and South Asian Counter Narratives will appeal to students and scholars of political theory international relations global history and South Asian politics

Political Islam in Post-Revolutionary Iran Majid Mohammadi, 2015-05-05 The relationship between the Islamic Republic of Iran and the Western World is fraught with challenges and tensions In order to generate the capacity for greater engagement and dialogue there is a need for the West to better understand the complex ideological developments that are central to Iran Majid Mohammadi charts the central concepts and nuances of the ideological map of post revolutionary Iran and examines the rise and development of Shi'i Islamism He recognizes that the Islamic Republic of Iran and Iranian political discourse are the outcome of contesting perspectives and ideologies identity oriented socialist nationalist authoritarian Shari'a scripturalist mystical militarist and fascist This is a comprehensive comparative contribution to one of today's most important topics that of the relationship between Political Islam and the West

Islam and International Relations D. Abdelkader, N. Adiong, R. Mauriello, 2016-04-15 This edited volume conceives of International Relations IR not as a unilateral project but more as an intellectual platform Its contributors explore Islamic contributions to this field addressing the theories and practices of the Islamic civilization and of Muslim societies with regards to international affairs and to the discipline of IR

Post-Islamism Asef Bayat, 2013-05-28 At least since the Islamic revolution of 1979 in Iran political Islam or Islamism has been the focus of attention among scholars policymakers and the general public Much has been said about Islamism as a political and moral ethical trend but scant attention is paid to its ongoing development There is now a growing acknowledgment within the scholarly and policy communities that Islamism is in the throes of transformation but little is known about the nature and direction of these changes The essays of Post Islamism bring together young and established scholars and activists from different parts of the Muslim World and the West to discuss their research on the changing discourses and practices of Islamist movements and Islamic states largely in the Muslim majority countries The changes in these movements can be termed post Islamism defined both as a condition and a project characterized by the fusion of religiosity and rights faith and freedom Islam and liberty Post Islamism emphasizes rights rather than merely obligation plurality instead of singular authoritative voice historicity rather than fixed scriptures and the future instead of the past

Reporting Islam Suad Joseph, 2022-12-29 Reporting Islam examines the coverage of Muslim women in the New York Times from 1979 2011 The analysis addresses the nature of the coverage whether there are parallels in the depiction of Muslim women from the Middle East and South Asia and with the US government policies toward these countries and the relationship between feminism in the US and the representation of Muslim women in the US At a time when women often become the iconic representatives of their nations their cultures and their religions this book offers unique insight into how a dramatic period of contemporary history for the Middle East and South Asia was depicted by the leading print newspaper in the world The coverage captures the Islamic Revolution in Iran the rise of Islamist movements across the Middle East South Asia and Africa the first Gulf War the 9 11 events the second Gulf War the War on Terror and the Arab uprisings The book asks critical questions about the wider implications of the misrepresentation of Muslim women in the media and the links between print news US foreign policy and women

Secularism and Islam in Bangladesh Abdul Wohab, 2023-10-13 Secularism and Islam in Bangladesh comprehensively analyses the syncretistic form of Bengali Islam and its relationship with secularism in Bangladesh from pre British to contemporary times It focuses on the importance of understanding the dynamics between religion and secularism within specific cultural contexts The author draws upon historical sociological and political literature Bangladeshi electoral results newspaper reports and elite interviews with political commentators and offers a rich historical and empirical analysis Arguing that extremist interpretations of Islam which aim to establish a theocratic state have not been able to influence the pluralistic religious and cultural life of Bangladesh substantially the book shows that religious and cultural pluralism will continue to thrive despite the apparent threat posed by increasing religiosity among Bangladeshi Muslims This book is a timely and significant contribution to the discourse on secularism and Islam with relevance beyond Bangladesh and the wider Islamic world It will appeal to scholars and researchers working in the fields of South Asian studies Asian religions and the sociology of religion Thamyris 4.2 Nanny M. W. de Vries, Jan Best, Studying Islam Clinton Bennett, 2010-02-10

Including historical foundations scripture society thought ethics rituals spirituality and aesthetics this is the ideal study aid for those approaching Islam for the first time Islamism and the West Uriya Shavit, 2013-11-26 Offering a unique analysis of Islamist ideology Islamism and the West attempts to explain how and why mainstream Islamist leaders have for the past century developed and canonized theories which depict the West as engaged in a sophisticated conspiracy to undermine Muslim identity by cultural means while morally collapsing and yearning for the spiritual salvation brought by Muslim migrants This book demonstrates how seemingly triumphalist Islamist writings served in fact to legitimize pragmatic concessions undertaken by Islamists from cooperating with regimes allied with the West to encouraging Muslim migration to Christian lands Following the Arab Spring and with Islamism becoming a dominant force in Middle Eastern politics Islamism and the West is an essential reading for the understanding of a region in transition Providing new insights on familiar concepts including cultural imperialism liberal democracy and civilisational decline this book will be of use to students of Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies Political Science Migration Studies and Cultural Studies Philosophical

Hermeneutics and Islamic Thought Sylvain Camilleri, Selami Varlik, 2022-05-03 This book investigates the methodological issues raised by the encounter between Islamic thought and contemporary philosophical hermeneutics It features essays that examine why and how current Muslim thinkers refer to Continental philosophy The contributors put the universality of the hermeneutic order to the test with three different approaches The first looks at exegetical aspects It addresses contemporary thinkers from the Islamicate world who have engaged critically or not with main representatives or key concepts of philosophical hermeneutics The second presents an interpretative analysis The essays here present attempts at using philosophical hermeneutics in order to develop new interpretations of canonical or traditional ensembles of texts such as the Qur'an and the Hadith as well as legal spiritual and philosophical corpuses from the Islamicate world The third looks at different political and critical issues The clear and sound reference to religion of Islamic thought makes its entanglement with philosophical hermeneutics a burning challenge for all parties involved Is it true as some contend that philosophical hermeneutics can help interpret Islamic thought anew This book reveals how the two philosophies are likely to expand each other's horizons and influence each other's conceptual frameworks It features revised papers from an International Conference Understanding Islam and the West Nathan Lean, 2018-03-26 As the world's second largest faith and by some accounts the most fast growing Islam is often at the forefront of intense public conversation in debates about politics international relations globalization modern society and culture From the rise of ISIS and revolutions in North Africa and Middle East to more tempered discussions about what it means to be a Muslim in the West and foreign policy making this student focused textbook unpacks how we talk about and represent Islam its place in and relationship to the West Supported by an accessible introduction real world case studies a glossary of terms and discussion points at the end of each chapter Nathan Lean offers students a comprehensive and alternative framework to Islam and the West in the 21st Century The New Spirit of Islamism Ezgi Basaran, 2024-05-02 This book explains the aspirations and concerns of Islamist actors in the aftermath of the Arab Uprisings by looking at two sets of relationships between Turkey's ruling AKP and the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood and the AKP and Tunisia's Ennahda It presents a unique analysis of the interplay between the AKP Ennahda and the Muslim Brotherhood characterizing the actors the structure and the main features of the relationship and thereby illuminating a political confluence among these three critical Islamist entities in the aftermath of the Arab Uprisings Existing scholarship has assumed that this relationship revolves primarily around an ideological Islamist agenda however this research demonstrates a more complex and nuanced situation Ezgi Basaran puts forward that the interplay was not based on an aspiration of building an ideological Islamist bloc in the MENA region but rather revolved around the concept of political success and had a strong neoliberal ethos Basaran draws on data collected from over 60 interviews with high level members of the AKP Ennahda and Muslim Brotherhood to demonstrate how in the hope of achieving success and legitimization Ennahda and the Muslim Brotherhood have relied on the managerial prescriptions provided by the AKP The contents of this success formula were derived from the AKP's experience as an Islamist party in power since 2002 and includes tactics on crisis evasion legitimization winning elections and maintaining power
