Ed Moses A Retrospective Of The Paintings And Drawings 19511996:

Ed Moses Ed Moses, John Yau, 1996 Ed Moses b 1928 is widely considered to be one of the central figures in the rich and complex history of postwar West Coast art Like Richard Diebenkorn and Sam Francis his work has been greatly influenced by the brilliant light of Southern California Modernism and European and American abstract art are also echoed in Moses's work and the vitality of his diverse oeuvre radiates throughout this first major retrospective of his paintings and drawings Although he attended art school Ed Moses is an autodidact who has labored to overcome his inability as he put it to draw three dimensionally And drawing has been central to his work the spine from which all of his art extends From his egg tempera paintings in the early 1950s to the ror shock paintings and drawings of the early 1990s he has found ways to investigate the relationship between spontaneity the legacy of abstract expressionism and control and balance inherited from Mondrian and the Russian constructivists Moving decisively from abstraction to figuration and from monochrome to tonality and color Moses like de Kooning and Pollock has consistently turned away from the predictable and has sought new ground In his bold exploration of forms and methods Ed Moses has avoided the label of a particular tradition and instead continues to reinvent himself With over seventy paintings and drawings that span his career this is the most comprehensive book on Ed Moses available today I felt as though these paintings were not something I created they were something I discovered Ed Moses Ed Moses Ed Moses, 1988 Creating the Future Michael Fallon, 2017-05-30

Conceived as a challenge to long standing conventional wisdom Creating the Future is a work of social history cultural criticism that examines the premise that the progress of art in Los Angeles ceased during the 1970s after the decline of the Ferus Gallery the scattering of its stable of artists Robert Irwin Ed Kienholz Ed Moses Ed Rusha and others and the economic struggles throughout the decade and didn't resume until sometime around 1984 when Mark Tansey Alison Saar Judy Fiskin Carrie Mae Weems David Salle Manuel Ocampo among others became stars in an exploding art market However this is far from the reality of the L A art scene in the 1970s The passing of those fashionable 1960s era icons in fact allowed the development of a chaotic array of outlandish and independent voices marginalized communities and energetic sometimes bizarre visions that thrived during the stagnant 1970s Fallon's narrative describes and celebrates through twelve thematically arranged chapters the wide range of intriguing artists and the world not just the objects they created He reveals the deeper more culturally dynamic truth about a significant moment in American art history presenting an alternative story of stubborn creativity in the face of widespread ignorance and misapprehension among the art cognoscenti who dismissed the 1970s in Los Angeles as a time of dissipation and decline Coming into being right before their eyes was an ardent local feminist art movement which had lasting influence on the direction of art across the nation an emerging Chicano Art movement spreading Chicano murals across Los Angeles and to other major cities a new and more modern vision for the role and look of public art a slow consolidation of local street sensibilities car fetishism gang and punk aesthetics into the earliest version of what would later

become the Lowbrow art movement the subversive co-opting in full view of Pop Art of the values aesthetics and imagery of Tinseltown by a number of young and innovative local artists who would go on to greater national renown and a number of independent voices who lacking the support structures of an art movement or artist cohort pursued their brilliant artistic visions in near isolation Despite the lack of attention these artists would later reemerge as visionary signposts to many later trends in art Their work would prove more interesting more lastingly influential and vastly more important than ever imagined or expected by those who saw it or even by those who created it in 1970 s Los Angeles Creating the Future is a visionary work that seeks to recapture this important decade and its influence on today s generation of artists Imagery Bob Nugent,2007-10-01 In 1985 winemaker Joe Benziger and Sonoma artist Bob Nugent struck on the idea of putting original art on special releases of Imagery Estate wines The goal was straight forward commission the world s modern art luminaries to create works for reproduction onto wine labels Two decades and 160 labels later they have assembled a staggering collection of contemporary art from the likes of Sol Lewitt Terry Winters Nancy Graves John Baldessari Judy Pfaff and Bob Arneson This book highlights 133 works of art the best of the Imagery collection The images are big and lush and accompanied by biographical sketches of the artists careers as well as a short description of their individual ideas and methods The pictorial index shows the works in their label form from 1985 to the most recent vintages These images are evocations of wine s multi faceted ability to inspire us Paradiso Diaspora John Yau,2006-06-27 More information to be announced soon on this forthcoming title from Penguin USA Uncontrollable Beauty David Shapiro,2001-10-01 In this acclaimed art anthology a prestigious group of artists critics and literati offer their incisive reflections on the questions of beauty past present and future and how it has become a domain of multiple perspectives Here is Meyer Schapiro s skeptical argument on perfection contributions from artists as profound as Louise Bourgeois and Agnes Martin and reflections of critics curators and philosophers on the problems of beauty and relativism Readers will find fascinating insights from such art theorists and critics as Dave Hickey Jeremy Gilbert Rolfe Donald Kuspit Carter Ratcliff and dozens more Borrowed Love Poems John Yau,2002-03-26 More information to be announced soon on this forthcoming title from Penguin USA
