Reassessing the Roles of Women as 'Makers' of Medieval Art and Architecture, 2012-05-07 These volumes propose a renewed way of framing the debate around the history of medieval art and architecture to highlight the multiple roles played by women Today s standard division of artist from patron is not seen in medieval inscriptions on paintings metalwork embroideries or buildings where the most common verb is made fecit At times this denotes the individual whose hands produced the work but it can equally refer to the person whose donation made the undertaking possible Here twenty four scholars examine secular and religious art from across medieval Europe to demonstrate that a range of studies is of interest not just for a particular time and place but because from this range overall conclusions can be drawn for the question of medieval art history as a whole Contributors are Mickey Abel Claire D Anderson Jane L Carroll Nicola Coldstream Mar a Elena D ez Jorge Jaroslav Folda Alexandra Gajewski Loveday Lewes Gee Melissa R Katz Katrin Kogman Appel Pierre Alain Mariaux Therese Martin Eileen McKiernan Gonz lez Rachel Moss Jenifer N Ghr daigh Felipe Pereda Annie Renoux Ana Maria S A Rodrigues Jane Tibbetts Schulenburg Stefanie Seeberg Miriam Shadis Ellen Shortell Loretta Vandi and Nancy L Wicker

Édith Thomas Dorothy Kaufmann, 2018-07-05 dith Thomas 1909 1970 a remarkable French woman of letters was deeply involved in the traumatic upheavals of her time most crucially the resistance to Nazi occupation and the collaborationist Vichy regime but also the Spanish Civil War and the Algerian War During the occupation she played an essential role in the struggle to counteract Nazi and P tainist propaganda She was the only woman in the Paris network of Resistance writers they held their clandestine meetings in her left bank apartment Dorothy Kaufmann s powerful and moving book is based in large part on previously unavailable material that dith Thomas a historian novelist and journalist chose not to publish during her lifetime A particularly fascinating chapter in Thomas s life was her intimate relationship with Dominique Aury who wrote Story of O as Pauline R age The astonishing documents made available to Kaufmann by Aury include Thomas s eight notebooks of diaries which she kept from 1931 to 1963 her fictional diary of a collaborator written during the first year of the occupation and her political memoir to which she gave the disturbing title Le T moin compromis The Compromised Witness dith Thomas A Passion for Resistance sheds light on the historical dimensions of Thomas s life and work and on the autobiographical complexity of her writing which everywhere illustrates her personal courage Kaufmann follows dith Thomas s itinerary as it intersects with that of well known contemporaries in particular Simone de Beauvoir Jean Paul Sartre Albert Camus Louis Aragon Jean Paulhan and of course Dominique Aury

My Dear Governess Irene Goldman-Price, 2012-06-05 An exciting archive came to auction in 2009 the papers and personal effects of Anna Catherine Bahlmann 1849 1916 a governess and companion to several prominent American families Among the collection were one hundred thirty five letters from her most famous pupil Edith Newbold Jones later the great American novelist Edith Wharton Remarkably until now just three letters from Wharton s childhood and early adulthood were thought to survive Bahlmann who would become Wharton's literary secretary and confidant emerges in the letters as a seminal influence closely guiding her precocious young student's readings translations and personal writing Taken together these letters written over the course of forty two years provide a deeply affecting portrait of mutual loyalty and influence between two women from different social classes This correspondence reveals Wharton's maturing sensibility and vocation and includes details of her life that will challenge long held assumptions about her formative years Wharton scholar Irene Goldman Price provides a rich introduction to My Dear Governess that restores Bahlmann to her central place in Wharton's life Works of L. Literary Impostors Rosmarin Heidenreich, 2018-07-30 In the first half of the twentieth century a number of Canadian authors were revealed to have faked the identities that made them famous What is extraordinary about these writers is that they actually became in everyday life characters they had themselves invented Many of their works were simultaneously fictional and autobiographical reflecting the duality of their identities In Literary Impostors Rosmarin Heidenreich tells the intriguing stories both the true and the fabricated versions of six Canadian authors who obliterated their pasts and re-invented themselves Grey Owl was in fact an Englishman named Archie Belaney Will James the cowboy writer from the American West was the Quebec born francophone Ernest Dufault the prairie novelist Frederick Philip Grove turned out to be the German writer and translator Felix Paul Greve Chief Buffalo Child Long Lance Onoto Watanna and Sui Sin Far were the chosen identities of three mixed race writers whose given names were respectively Sylvester Long Winnifred Eaton and Edith Eaton Heidenreich argues that their imposture in some cases not discovered until long after their deaths was not fraudulent in the usual sense these writers forged new identities to become who they felt they really were In an age of proliferating cyber identities and controversial claims to ancestry Literary Impostors raises timely questions involving race migrancy and gender to illustrate the porousness of the line that is often drawn between an author's biography and the fiction he or she produces
