You've made it this far, completed the course work and are preparing for the "comps." We hope this guide will aid you in that preparation.

Should you require further assistance or have other questions, please don't hesitate to contact any of us in the Research emphasis.

Best Wishes and Good Luck!

- (1) Can you identify and distinguish among the basic families of research studies (i.e., descriptive, correlational, evaluation, experimental, causal comparative/ex. post facto)?
- (2) Do you know the difference between narratively stating a:
(a) research question;
(b) problem statement;
(c) hypothesis?
- (3) Can you identify the related design methodologies pertinent to the various families of research studies?
- (4) Can you specify an appropriate sampling procedure pertinent to a given research question, problem statement or hypothesis?
- (5) Can you identify and discuss the forms and format of related instrumentation and/or sources of information pertinent to a given research question, problem statement or hypothesis?
- (6) Can you identify appropriate quantitative and/or qualitative data analysis and reporting procedures to answer a given research question or test a given hypothesis?
- (7) Can you identify the related potential threats to internal and external validity associated with a given study design as well as how they might be mitigated by the researcher?

"THE ESSENTIALS": BASICS OF A QUALITATIVE RESEARCH LIBRARY

Burrow, John, & Hunter, Albert (1989). Multimethod research: A synthesis of styles.

Already a "citable classic," in terms of logically developed rationale for the ways in which multimethodologic designs/data collection procedures enhance study validity. A "must" for anyone using such procedures.

Patton, Michael Quinn (1990). Qualitative evaluation and research methods (2nd ed.).

"The" compendium? Great compilation of all of his previous works. Highly readable, including creative graphs, charts, anecdotes, etc. Covers "the basics" of such techniques as participant observation, in-depth interviewing, etc.

Student Study Guide to Accompany Creswell's Educational Research Vicki L. Plano Clark, John W.

Creswell, 2007-07 A Beginner's Guide to Doing Your Education Research Project Mike Lambert, 2012-09-05 Mike Lambert's book is a useful source of information helping to create and shape your research methods project. The book contains detailed chapters with easy to follow guidelines, tips and suggestions ensuring help at every step of the way from start to finish. Alexander Miesen, student, Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences. In this basic guide, step by step advice is presented in a clear way and chapters take the reader through the entire process from planning and doing research to writing it up. Each stage is covered with detailed help on choosing a topic, drawing up research questions, doing the literature review, choosing and designing research methods, the ethics of doing research, analyzing data and collating and presenting findings. Features in the text include explanations of key research terms, activities with answers, progress sheets, case studies. Online resources to accompany the book are available at www.methodspace.com/groups/mikelambert. This is an ideal text for undergraduate students undertaking their first ever research project, postgraduates pursuing Masters awards and teachers carrying out action research.
