Ramirez,2020-03-03 A timely informative and fascinating study of 8 inventions and how they shaped our world with totally compelling insights on little known inventors throughout history Elizabeth Kolbert Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Sixth Extinction In The Alchemy of Us scientist and science writer Ainissa Ramirez examines 8 inventions and reveals how they shaped the human experience Clocks Steel rails Copper communication cables Photographic film Light bulbs Hard disks Scientific labware Silicon chips Ramirez tells the stories of the woman who sold time the inventor who inspired Edison and the hotheaded undertaker whose invention pointed the way to the computer She describes how our pursuit of precision in timepieces changed how we sleep how the railroad helped commercialize Christmas how the necessary brevity of the telegram influenced Hemingway's writing style and how a young chemist exposed the use of Polaroid's cameras to create passbooks to track black citizens in apartheid South Africa These fascinating and inspiring stories offer new perspectives on our relationships with technologies Ramirez shows not only how materials were shaped by inventors but also how those materials shaped culture chronicling each invention and its consequences intended and unintended Filling in the gaps left by other books about technology Ramirez showcases little known inventors particularly people of color and women who had a significant impact but whose accomplishments have been hidden by mythmaking bias and convention Doing so she shows us the power of telling inclusive stories about technology She also shows that innovation is universal whether it's splicing beats with two turntables and a microphone or splicing genes with two test tubes and CRISPR The Golden Book Magazine

,1927 The Routledge Guide to Music Technology Thom Holmes,2013-10-18 First published in 2006 This guide is an A to Z trade reference aimed at music students technophiles and audio video computer users The world of music technology has exploded over the last decades thanks to introductions of new digital formats At the same time there has been a renaissance in analog high fidelity equipment and resurgent interest in turntables long playing records and vintage stereo systems Music students collectors and consumers will appreciate the availability of a guide to all things musical in the technological universe Freunds Musical Weekly ,1906 Indian Classical Music and the Gramophone, 1900-1930 Vikram

Sampath,2022-06-30 In 1902 The Gramophone Company in London sent out recording experts on expeditions across the world to record voices from different cultures and backgrounds All over India it was women who embraced the challenge of overcoming numerous social taboos and aesthetic handicaps that came along with this nascent technology Women who took the plunge and recorded largely belonged to the courtesan community called tawaifs and devadasis in North and South India respectively Recording brought with it great fame brand recognition freedom from exploitative patrons and monetary benefits to the women singers They were to become pioneers of the music industry in the Indian sub continent However despite the pioneering role played by these women their stories have largely been forgotten Contemporaneous with the courtesan women adapting to recording technology was the anti nautch campaign that sought to abolish these women from the performing space and brand them as common prostitutes A vigorous renaissance and arts revival movement followed leading to the creation of a new classical paradigm in both North Indian Hindustani and South Indian Carnatic classical music This resulted in the standardization universalization and institutionalization of Indian classical music This newly created classical paradigm impacted future recordings of The Gramophone Company in terms of a shift in genres and styles Vikram Sampath sheds light on the role and impact of The Gramophone Company s early recording expeditions on Indian classical music by examining the phenomenon through a sociocultural historical and musical lens The book features the indefatigable stories of the women and their experiences in adapting to recording technology The artists from across India featured are Gauhar Jaan of Calcutta Janki Bai of Allahabad Zohra Bai of Agra Malka Jaan of Agra Salem Godavari Bangalore Nagarathnamma Coimbatore Thayi Dhanakoti of Kanchipuram Bai Sundarabai of Pune and Husna Jaan of Banaras
