Henri Lefebvre and Education Sue Middleton, 2013-11-07 During his lifetime Henri Lefebvre 1901-1991 was renowned in France as a philosopher sociologist and activist Although he published more than 70 books few were available in English until The Production of Space was translated in 1991 While this work often associated with geography has influenced educational theory's spatial turn educationalists have yet to consider Lefebvre's work more broadly This book engages in an educational reading of the selection of Lefebvre's work that is available in English translation After introducing Lefebvre's life and works the book experiments with his concepts and methods in a series of five spatial histories of educational theories In addition to The Production of Space these studies develop themes from Lefebvre's other translated works Rhythmanalysis The Explosion the three volumes of Critique of Everyday Life and a range of his writings on cities Marxism technology and the bureaucratic state In the course of these inquiries Lefebvre's own passionate interest in education is uncovered his critiques of bureaucratised schooling and universities the analytic concepts he devised to study educational phenomena and his educational methods Throughout the book Middleton demonstrates how Lefebvre's conceptual and methodological tools can enhance the understanding of the spatiotemporal location of educational philosophy and theory Bridging disciplinary divides it will be key reading for researchers and academics studying the philosophy sociology and history of education as well as those working in fields beyond education including geography history cultural studies and sociology

Routledge Handbook of Primary Physical Education Gerald Griggs, Kirsten Petrie, 2017-11-27 The Routledge Handbook of Primary Physical Education goes further than any other book in exploring the specific theoretical and practical components of teaching PE at the primary or elementary school level As the most comprehensive review of theory research and practice in primary PE yet published it represents an essential evidence based guide for all students researchers and practitioners working in this area Written by a team of leading international primary PE specialists from academic and practitioner backgrounds this handbook examines the three discourses that dominate contemporary PE health education and sport With case studies from twelve countries including the UK USA Canada Australia New Zealand Norway Spain and South Korea it provides a truly international perspective on key themes and issues such as primary PE pedagogy policy and curriculum development assessment and standards child development diversity and inclusion teacher training and professional development Offering an unprecedented wealth of material this handbook is an invaluable reference for any undergraduate or postgraduate degree programme in primary physical education or any primary teacher training course with a physical education element

Student Engagement in Neoliberal Times Nick Zepke, 2016-12-14 This book investigates origins meanings uses and effects of student engagement in higher education and addresses three core questions 1 Why is student engagement so visible in higher education today 2 What are its dominant characteristics 3 What is missing in the popular view of student engagement These questions pave the way for a fresh approach to student engagement The book argues that an elective affinity between student engagement and policies embedded in neoliberalism the dominant ideology of the early 21st century enables student engagement to transcend diverse intellectual and practice contexts This affinity encourages quality learning and teaching that enables student to succeed in their studies and future careers The book shows that focusing on neoliberal objectives for learning and teaching limits the potential of student engagement in higher education

This conclusion leads to a critical and practical social ecological perspective that approaches engagement more as a pathway to social justice than as a list of techniques This book is a work of critical scholarship backed by empirical research It questions accepted theories and practices and offers fresh insights into student engagement in higher education including how engagement could promote social justice Going to School in Oceania Craig Campbell, Geoffrey Sherington, 2007-10-30 The history and current practices for school systems in the countries of the Oceanic region depend on the economic political and cultural circumstances of their countries Divided into four chronological sections pre nineteenth century nineteenth century twentieth century and present times each chapter traces the factors that have impacted educational philosophy and goals for each country Identifying available options for students of all economic backgrounds each chapter also includes a Day in the Life feature that shares with readers what a typical student in that country will experience at their school Australia Fiji New Zealand Papua New Guinea Samoa Languages of New Zealand Allan Bell, Ray Harlow, Donna Starks, 2005 Publisher Description Global Perspectives on Spirituality and Education Jacqueline Watson, Marian de Souza, Ann Trousdale, 2013-12-04 In recent decades and around the world much attention has been given to the role of spirituality in the education of children and young people While educationalists share many common goals and values in nurturing the spiritual lives of children and young people national and regional cultures religions and politics have impacted on the approaches scholars and practitioners have adopted in their investigations and practices The different contexts across nations and regions mean that educators face quite distinct conditions in which to frame their approaches to spiritual education and research and the nature and impact of these differences is not yet understood This book brings together thinkers from around the globe and sets them the task of explaining how their research on children s spirituality and education has been shaped by the historical cultural religious and political contexts of the geographic region in which they work The book presents contributions in three sections Europe and Israel Australasia and The Americas and concludes with a chapter highlighting what is common and what is contextually unique about global approaches to spirituality and education
