understand the assumptions that give rise to the difficulties in proclaiming the atonement The second section examines Karl Barth's account of reconciliation in terms of the judgement of Jesus Christ and its relationship to victory redemption and sacrifice The proposal is made that judgement is the paradigmatic metaphor of the doctrine of atonement The implications of this claim are then considered for the response to the work of Christ and how repentance baptism Eucharist and holiness are related to judgement

Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray, 2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement Receptive Ecumenism that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice Beyond this the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other's gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesialogists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts

Caring Liturgies Susan Marie Smith, 2012-12-01 Caregiving practices in churches often center around listening and giving counsel making referrals and creating support groups for specific needs In Caring Liturgies Susan Marie Smith proposes that Christian ritual is both a method and a means for helping people through liminal times of transition and uncertainty even vulnerability and fear This volume teaches readers to recognize the ritual needs of fellow Christians and thus create post baptismal rites of passage and healing that might strengthen and support them in the fulfillment of their ministries The book extends the usefulness of denominational occasional services books and other resources by suggesting ways to build a rite around a central symbolic action pointing out issues of ritual honesty and ethics and identifying skills and attributes necessary to preparing and leading a rite Numerous narrative examples help to flesh out the principles and illustrate the key argument that rituals are necessary means to enable human growth and maturity both through times of suffering and times of transition and that ritual making leaders are central to the ongoing health of the church

Meditations on the Mysteries of Our Holy Faith Luis de la Puente, 1854 Emmaus: Stage 1 Morehouse Publishing, John Finney, 1996-09 A guide to leading both nurture and growth groups of the Emmaus course this book lays a biblical framework for group leadership using Jesus as the example and model It examines practical issues such as the role of leader in the group how to make newcomers feel welcome how to prepare for each session and how to use shared meals and retreats to help a group grow The ABC of Sunday Matters Mark O'Brien, 2013-10-01 This book provides reflections on the Sunday Bible readings in the Roman Catholic Lectionary for Years A B and C of the liturgical cycle They previously appeared in separate volumes of Sunday Matters published by ATF Theology in the Dominican Series They have now been combined in this single volume colour coded for easier use and with a revised general introduction and introduction to the Gospel of Matthew Like the previous volumes this one is intended to assist those preparing homilies and those with a desire to understand a little more deeply the readings used in the Sunday liturgy
