Katzenstein, 1996 The political transformations of the 1980s and 1990s have dramatically affected models of national and international security Particularly since the end of the Cold War scholars have been uncertain about how to interpret the effects of major shifts in the balance of power Are we living today in a unipolar bipolar or multipolar world Are we moving toward an international order that makes the recurrence of major war in Europe or Asia highly unlikely or virtually inevitable Is ideological conflict between states diminishing or increasing Strategic Consequences of Nuclear Proliferation in South Asia Neil Joeck, 2025-04-01 Strategic Consequences of Nuclear Proliferation in South Asia 1986 examines the consequences for particular states should India and Pakistan decide to deploy nuclear weapons It looks in detail at the positions of both India and Pakistan and the responses of the United States the Soviet Union and China and their respective strategic positions This book includes contributions on the larger question of how nuclear pariah states pose a separate problem of nuclear proliferation as well as on the broader challenges to the nuclear non-proliferation regime Weapons Proliferation and World Order Brad Roberts, 2023-09-29 With the end of the Cold War the subject of weapons proliferation has acquired new interest and prominence So too have questions about the nature of the world order that will succeed the structure of the last

Elleman, 2005-07-28 Why did the Chinese empire collapse and why did it take so long for a new government to reunite China Modern Chinese Warfare 1795 1989 seeks to answer these questions by exploring the most important domestic and international conflicts over the past two hundred years from the last half of the Qing empire through to modern day China It reveals how most of China s wars during this period were fought to preserve unity in China and examines their distinctly cyclical pattern of imperial decline domestic chaos and finally the creation of a new unifying dynasty By 1989 this cycle appeared complete but the author asks how long this government will be able to hold power Exposing China as an imperialist country and one which has often manipulated western powers in its favour Bruce Elleman seeks to redress the views of China as a victimised nation
