Pazmiño, 2008-09-01 For almost twenty years Foundational Issues in Christian Education has been a key text for many Christian education courses Its perceptive analysis coupled with clear writing make it a resource without peer In the book Christian education expert Robert Pazmiño guides readers through a comprehensive discussion of the interdisciplinary foundations of Christian education calling all Christian educators to reevaluate the fundamentals of their discipline A careful exploration of foundations writes Pazmiño is essential before specifying principles and guidelines for practice This updated edition includes interaction with professional developments over the past ten years and appendixes that assess the impact of postmodernism as an educational philosophy In addition each chapter includes points to ponder for personal reflection or classroom use Education and Responsibility Tunis Romein, 2021-03-17 This book reveals the sources of the disquiet prevailing among educators over the apparent failure of the public school system to develop moral responsibility in America's youth The doctrine of separation of church and state has made sectarian religious training illegal in public schools and Tunis Romein shows that the task of providing moral guidance suddenly thrust upon educators has disclosed their deep schisms in educational philosophy basic contradictions which have split American education from top to bottom Romein explains the basic conflicts in education by examining three educational philosophies progressivism educational reconstructionism and classical humanism and comparing all of them with the traditional Christian view He holds that all educational philosophies whether secular or not

are based on faith and that all can be tested with regard to their beliefs about the nature of man and about the kind of moral responsibility education should develop in man. With sincerity and frankness Romein analyzes the moral and intellectual poverty of much of the thinking dominant in education today and he shows the necessity as well as the difficulty of making faith in God once more the underlying influence in American education. Educating for Peace through Countering Violence Candice Carter, Raj Kumar Dhungana, 2023-11-08. PHILOSOPHICAL EXPLORATION THROUGH THE MIND, HEART AND SOUL OF NURSES Anita Siccardi; Karen Iseminger, 2008-01-14. Creating an amalgamation of nursing education and philosophy is one of the distinctive features of this book. While each of these disciplines is well established in their academic endeavors, the book provides a unique voice of nursing in the analysis of philosophy's role in education. To that end, the book features nurses' critiques of leading philosophers who have very valuable lessons for health care education. Each chapter has been written to capture aspects of the heart, mind and soul of nursing as appreciated through an exploration of a foremost philosopher. The contributors investigate their scholar's history, the essential features and examination of their work and offer pragmatic discussion questions based upon their work. Personal transcendence of the authors occurred as an unexpected byproduct of their immersion with the philosophers. This book provides philosophical underpinnings of health care education that nurses, nursing educators, clinical specialists and general healthcare educators as well as academic faculty will appreciate.

Principles and Practices of Christian Education Robert W. Pazmino, 2002-04-29. Principles and Practices of Christian Education shows teachers how they can use two important principles that stand behind all evangelical practices to make their education program stand out from all the others in its nurture of students. First, evangelical Christian education recognizes the need for conversion, personal and corporate transformation that reconnects people to their Creator. Second, evangelical Christian education strives for connection, making contact with people as unique individuals who live in a particular society and who need to know more about scripture. In this book, Christian education students learn that the work for which they prepare is a partnership with

God to transform people Their central task is worship but through it and other activities they lead others to faith commitment and transformation of communities
