Raymond Callahan's lively study exposes the alarming lengths to which school administrators went particularly in the period from 1910 to 1930 in sacrificing educational goals to the demands of business procedures. He suggests that even today the question still asked is: How can we operate our schools? Society has not yet learned to ask: How can we provide an excellent education for our children? Race Hygiene and National Efficiency Sheila Faith Weiss,2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach and impact.
