Educating Emotionally Disturbed Children And Youth Theories And Practices For Teachers:

Educating Emotionally Disturbed Children and Youth James L. Paul, Betty Cooper Epanchin, 1991 EDUCATING EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN MANGAL, S. K., 2007-08-14 Intended as a text for undergraduate and postgraduate courses B Ed M Ed B A M A Education and diploma level courses in Education as well as for courses in Special Education this comprehensive and accessible book provides a sound base for understanding Special Children through an insightful and incisive discussion on Special Education The text dwells on exceptional children or children with special needs who either suffer from various deficits or disabilities or are gifted Such children include the mentally retarded the visually and hearing impaired the emotionally disturbed those with autism cerebral palsy and the deprived as well as the gifted and the creative This well organized and pedagogically rich text should be extremely useful to students as well as professionals special education teachers those engaged in guidance and counselling educational policy makers and field workers who have an abiding interest in the education of exceptional children and in special education KEY FEATURES Includes student friendly features like illustrations examples tables and research based experimental findings Provides a complete picture of exceptionality from the early years of human history to the present day Gives case histories to practically illustrate the subject

Rethinking Professional Issues in Special Education James L. Paul, Carolyn D. Lavery, Ann Cranston-Gingras, Ella L. Taylor, 2002-07-30 Special educators are facing new challenges at the beginning of the 21st century as public education is being reformed by a vision focusing on measurable student outcomes The future course of the field will be shaped by the policy and programmatic responses to several issues including demographic changes in student populations a lack of certified special education teachers criticism in the public media for the rising costs of services and debates about the preferred philosophy of service delivery for students with disabilities Additional chapters discuss university school collaboration charter schools disability studies school violence disproportionality in placement male African American teachers and ethics This book has been written out of a context of research and program development activities with public schools over the past decade in one of the largest Colleges of Education in a diverse metropolitan area in the country The issues selected for analysis and the perspective guiding those analyses grew out of this work and out of a national Delphi study of the views of parents and constituent organizations and leading researchers teacher educators and policy makers in Special Education Research in Education ,1971 Resources in Education ,1998 Designing Teaching Strategies R. Douglas Greer, 2002-07-17 can provide an educational system that treats the students and the parents as the clients Curriculum Development for Students with Mild Disabilities , Inclusion Faith Edmonds Andreassen, 2014-04-09 Inclusion Teachers Perspectives and Practices delineates timely strategies that address teachers concerns regarding the inclusive environment Prior research is amalgamated with author Faith Andreassen s investigation to arm the reader with a variety of appropriate student supports with the goal of strengthening inclusionary practice Multiple educators clarify why they prefer particular methods when addressing various situations thus detailing how inclusive classrooms can be established and sustained The participants herein work with various age groups in assorted settings and have diverse years of experience Informative and compelling the reader completes Inclusion Teachers Perspectives and Practices armed with a variety of ideas and easy to implement applicable strategies that were gleaned from those who practice it every day ERIC Clearinghouse Publications ,1981 Living Contradiction Sean Warren,2017-08-31 Co authored by Sean Warren and Stephen Bigger Living Contradiction A Teacher s Examination of Tension and Disruption in Schools in Classrooms and in Self charts Warren s journey as an experienced and successful teacher who lost himself in his rigid commitment to upholding standards and documents his research to find a better way Values are in vogue in education they are stated in school policies across the land They are a list of what the school wants people to think about them and their educational aims that they are caring effective and ethical in rooting pedagogy and all educational processes in positive relationships between teachers and pupils Amidst the reality of classroom life however the very best of intentions can be compromised as the insidious influences of power pressure and responsibility come to bear In this candid account presented in the form of a dual narrative Warren describes how he adopted a persona infused with control and intolerance as his authoritarian approach to suppressing conflict in the secondary school classroom became increasingly incongruent with his personal values and aspirations as an educator Then through undertaking his action research project and engaging in a process of reconceptualisation under co author Bigger s mentorship Warren began to explore how he could redefine his classroom leadership and authenticate his teaching practice without compromising standards or authority Living Contradiction investigates the efficacy of Warren s modified approach and tells the story of how he overcame the incessant demands of tension and disruption by becoming confident in uncertainty Grappling with both the philosophical and the pragmatic the authors offer two distinct perspectives in their commentary on Warren s journey supporting their interspersed critical reflections with thought provoking insights into the methodology and outcomes of Warren s research project The book is split into five parts and is punctuated throughout with expert surveying of a wide range of related research that challenges the status quo on the effectiveness of punishment and authoritarianism as approaches to behaviour management Furthermore in exploring how schooling should be as much about developing motivated citizens as encouraging qualifications Living Contradiction goes in search of answers to the question that all educationalists must ask What do we want our education system to do for our children Suitable for teachers NQTs and policy makers Living Contradiction is a resonatory self examination of teacher identity and a significant contribution to the debate about how schools and classrooms are run Personal Perspectives on Emotional Disturbance/behavioral Disorders Benjamin Leigh Brooks,David A.
