Education for the New Century Donald D. Gainey, 1993 Questions and answers about school reform Resources in Education, 2000-10

Designing High Performance Schools Francis Duffy, 1996-04-29 When so much is being said about restructuring schools and so little is actually being done successfully it is a pleasant breath of fresh air to read Designing High Performance Schools There is outcome based education year round schools alternative assessment and site based management There are new methods for student evaluation a return to nongraded schools a redesigning of grouping and attempts to connect classroom experiences with community based activities Wading through this maze of possibilities and unresolved solutions comes an answer for the critical decade of the 90s If you are a school practitioner or a consultant working with schools here is the most practical step by step guidance available on how to plan conduct and evaluate a comprehensive and complex restructuring Using a model derived from the fields of socio technical systems design business process reengineering knowledge work quality improvement and organization development this book lays out every aspect needed for restructuring

Changing Role of Leadership for Vocational Education in Wisconsin High Schools Eugene E. Szymaszek, 1996 New Schools for a New Century Tewel, 1995-02-28 Combining both the theory as well as the practice of the education reform process this unique breakthrough volume focuses on every aspect of the change process in high school education today Short and long term strategies for each phase of the process provoking creating managing supporting and sustaining reform are covered Based on the real life experiences of the author and others this book recognizes that most high school reform is short lived It stresses the ways to create and maintain positive change making the process a long lasting worthwhile mission for the school s leadership and ultimately the students Short useful summaries of high school reform provide true life pictures of what really happens in the midst of changing the way educational institutions operate These stories cover school based management collaborative or shared leadership school within a school groupings interdisciplinary instruction school based budgeting new models for professional development and others Through these examples readers can understand how reform strategies work and how to apply and adapt them to their own situations As an added feature this book provides the names and locations of schools attempting each reform as well as the names and addresses of school reform networks that readers can contact in their own efforts

The Principal's Office Kate Rousmaniere, 2013-11-01 The first comprehensive history of principals in the United States The Principal's Office is the first historical examination of one of the most important figures in American education Originating as a head teacher in the nineteenth century and evolving into the role of contemporary educational leader the school principal has played a central part in the development of American public education A local leader who not only manages the daily needs of the school but also represents district and state officials the school principal is the connecting hinge between classroom practice and educational policy Kate Rousmaniere explores the cultural economic and political pressures that have impacted school leadership over time and considers professionalization the experiences of women and people of color and progressive community initiatives She discusses the intersections between the role of the school principal with larger movements for civil rights parental and community activism and education reform The school principal emerges as a dynamic character in the center of the educational enterprise ever maneuvering between multiple constituencies responding to technical and bureaucratic demands and enacting different leadership strategies By focusing on the historic development of school leadership this book provides insights into the possibilities of school improvement for contemporary school leaders and reformers

New Teachers for a New Century ,2000 During the reign of the Kingdom of Burgundy at the Rhone River about 443 534 a Burgundian church developed with an Arian homoian profile This led to disputes but also to an intensive theological exchange with the predominantly Nicene Gallo Roman population and with Bishop Avitus of Vienne For the first time this monograph provides selected letters and fragments written by Avitus with German translation and annotation which indicate problems of church organization and refer to discourses on religion and theological discussions in particular on the Holy Spirit filioque in order to clarify more exactly the meaning of Arian at that time Primary Education ,1896 New York School Journal ,1897 ERS Bulletin ,1993 The School Journal ,1904 Education for the New Era ,1927

Gist, Travis J. Bristol, 2022-10-15 Teachers of Color and Indigenous Teachers are underrepresented in public schools across the United States of America with Black Indigenous and People of Color making up roughly 37% of the adult population and 50% of children but just 19% of the teaching force Yet research over decades has indicated their positive impact on student learning and social and emotional development particularly for Students of Color and Indigenous Students A first of its kind the Handbook of Research on Teachers of Color and Indigenous Teachers addresses key issues and obstacles to ethnoracial diversity across the life course of teachers careers such as recruitment and retention professional development and the role of minority serving institutions Including chapters from leading researchers and policy makers the Handbook is designed to be an important resource to help bridge the gap between scholars practitioners and policy makers In doing so this research will serve as a launching pad for discussion and change at this critical moment in our country s history The volume s goal is to drive conversations around the issue of ethnoracial teacher diversity and to provide concrete practices for policy makers and practitioners to enable them to make evidence based decisions for supporting an ethnoracially diverse educator workforce now and in the future Journal of Education ,1882 The Scientific Basis of Education Productivity Rena F. Subotnik, Herbert J. Walberg, 2006-02-01 This volume is not primarily concerned with what students should learn nor even how they should learn Rather it concerns how we can discover the best means and conditions for teaching them in school at home and in society Expressed more explicitly we seek to find out how students can learn efficiently or productively as much as possible within a given amount of time and resources As in agriculture medicine public health and modern industries we can turn to rigorous science as one of the best sources for informing ourselves The intended audiences are not only scholars in a variety of academic disciplines but also research consumers including educators policymakers parents and citizens who seek principles to critically separate valid from invalid claims for the efficacy and efficiency of education products personnel and policies Initial versions of the chapters were discussed at a national invitational conference sponsored by the Laboratory for Student Success LSS the mid Atlantic regional educational laboratory at Temple University Center for Research in Human Development and Education LSS operates under a contract with the U S Department of Education s Institute of Education Sciences

The Training and Development of School Principals Ward Sybouts, Frederick C. Wendel, 1994-12-08 The school principalship is one of the most demanding and misunderstood jobs in American education This professional reference offers practical advice on how to perform that job successfully The volume overviews the efficient management of resources the importance of strategic planning and the legal and business concerns that principals must face The book also emphasizes the role of the principal as a leader in the educational community
