Education Of A Yankee A New England Memoir:

The Education of a Yankee Judson D. Hale, 1987-08 The editor of Yankee magazine author of Inside New England is back again with a humorous informative and irreverent autobiography A delightfully engaging and unconventional memoir 40 illustrations The Education of a Yankee Judson D. Hale, 1988-09 The New Hampshire Century Felice Belman, Mike Pride, 2001 An illustrated account of 20th century New Hampshire told through the lives of those who made it The staff of the Concord Monitor have profiled 100 of the state's most interesting characters Among them are people working hard to preserve the past and people looking steadily forward 138 illustrations Autobiography of a Yankee Mariner Christopher Prince, 2002 Prince recalls his life at sea including service as a privateer during the Revolution Memoirs of a New England Lass Anne Trevethan Birkhoff, 2020-06-02 Memoirs of a New England Lass is an eclectic collection of memoirs about growing up in New England in the 1950s through the early 1970s From nature walks at an early age with her father to her first day of teaching high school English at the age of twenty one the author reflects on her true life experiences You may laugh or you may cry at the life lessons the author learns in the varied situations in which she finds herself The section entitled Questions to Ponder at the end of each selection provides readers with an opportunity to think back on their lives and encourages them to compose their own life stories Regional Interest Magazines of the United States Sam Riley, Gary W. Selnow, 1990-11-30 In Regional Interest Magazines of the United States Sam G Riley and Gary W Selnow focus on those magazines that direct their attention to a particular city or region and reach a fairly general readership interested in entertainment and information This work is a follow up to their earlier Index to City and Regional Magazines of the United States Titles are arranged alphabetically to facilitate access each entry includes a historical essay on the magazine's founding development editorial policies and content Entries also include two sections that provide data on information sources and publication history arranged in tabular form for ready reference In choosing the magazines to be profiled Riley and Selnow attempted to represent not only the biggest and most successful of this genre but also some smaller and newer titles plus significant earlier magazines that are no longer in print Special care was also taken to achieve an even geographical spread To attain greater accuracy regional writers were enlisted to do the entries on their own region These writers provide valuable information on how the various magazines began how conditions have caused them to change their problems their editors and publishers and their content as well as colorful and little known facts of their operation Magazines were arranged alphabetically and two informative appendices list the profiled titles by founding date and geographic location This volume will be a valuable resource for students of magazine publishing history Kirkus Reviews, 1987 Adult books are categorized by genre i.e. fiction mystery science fiction nonfiction Along with bibliographic information the expected date of publication and the names of literary agents for individual titles are provided Starred reviews serve several functions In the adult section they mark potential bestsellers major promotions book club selections and just very good books in the children

s section they denote books of very high quality The unsigned reviews manage to be discerning and sometimes quite critical
