Introduction to Educational Administration Douglas J. Fiore, 2004 This comprehensive and practical text introduces your students to concepts and theories of educational administration It is unlike other texts which are structured in isolated units Instead the topics in this book are connected presented in the context of the ISLLC standards which reveal the real world of practicing school administrators

The Legacy of Educational Administration Izhar Oplatka, 2010 The legacy of the 1980s P 105

International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, Judith Chapman, P. Corson, P. Hallinger, Ann Hart, 2012-12-06 EDITORS This introduction to the International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration describes some of the motivation for developing the book and several assumptions on which is based much of the work represented in its 31 chapters A synopsis of the contents of those chapters is also provided SOME KEY ASSUMPTIONS It is sometimes suggested that the search for an adequate understanding of leadership is doomed to fail After all there is little evidence of agreement about the concept in spite of prodigious efforts dating back hundreds if not thousands of years Such a view is captured for example in Bennis' observation that Of all the hazy and confounding areas in social psychology leadership theory undoubtedly contends for top nomination Probably more has been written and less is known about leadership than any other topic in the behavioural sciences 1959 page 259 We do not find this state of affairs discouraging nor entirely accurate and of course it did not prevent Bennis from proceeding either One reason for our desire to continue in the face of such discouraging words is that a great deal of leadership research aspires to develop a general theory a theory which applies to all or most domains of organized human activity This aspiration inevitably produces decontextualized and therefore abstract categories of practice Howard Gardner's 1995 depiction of leadership as story telling is a case in point

International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Social (In)Justice Ira Bogotch, Carolyn M. Shields, 2013-11-11 The International Handbook on Educational Leadership and Social In Justice creates a first of its kind international forum on conceptualizing the meanings of social justice and leadership research approaches in studying social justice and combating social injustices school university and teacher leadership for social justice advocacy and advocates for social justice socio cultural representations of social injustices global policies and leadership development as interventions The Handbook is as much forward looking as it is a retrospective review of educational research literatures on social justice from a variety of educational subfields including educational leadership higher education academic networks special education health education teacher education professional development policy analyses and multicultural education The Handbook celebrates the promises of social justice while providing the educational leadership research community with concrete contextualized illustrations on how to address inequities and combat social political and economic injustices through the processes of education in societies and educational institutions around the world

The SAGE Handbook of Educational Leadership Fenwick W. English, 2011-01-11 This fully updated Second Edition offers an unflinching and comprehensive overview of the full range of both practical and theoretical issues facing educational leadership today Editor Fenwick W English and 30 renowned authors boldly address the most fundamental and contested issues in the field including culturally relevant and distributed leadership critical policy and practice issues predicting the new century's conflict the paradox of changes and the promises paradoxes and pitfalls of standards for educational leaders

Ethical Educational Leadership in Turbulent Times Joan Poliner Shapiro, Steven Jay Gross, 2013-03-05 Educational leaders not only face moral and ethical decisions regarding their classrooms schools districts and education institutions but they also must consider the complexities and threats that impact their communities In this unstable era of war terrorism natural disasters accountability and high stakes testing this process is particularly daunting Ethical Educational Leadership in Turbulent Times is an engaging case study based text that will assist leaders in their ethical decision making processes during a time of turbulence and uncertainty The book is framed by Gross's Turbulence Theory and Shapiro and Stefkovich's Multiple Ethical Paradigms of justice critique care and the profession Presenting clear explanations of theory in combination with authentic dilemmas developed by practitioners this book will assist leaders in dealing with challenging situations in their own settings New in the Second Edition Expanded discussion of Turbulence Theory and addition of the most recent scholarship in the field of ethical leadership New cases addressing adequate yearly progress misuse of student data financial pressures curriculum design student safety athletics and social justice issues Updated end of case questions to reflect contemporary issues Ethical Educational Leadership in Turbulent Times is a valuable book for both aspiring and practicing educational administrators and leaders

Bridging Educational Leadership, Curriculum Theory and Didaktik Michael Uljens, Rose M. Ylimaki, 2017-10-04 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This volume argues for the need of a common ground that bridges leadership studies curriculum theory and Didaktik It proposes a non-affirmative education theory and its core concepts along with discursive institutionalism as an analytical tool to bridge these fields It concludes with implications of its coherent theoretical framing for future empirical research Recent neoliberal policies and transnational governance practices point toward new tensions in nation state education These challenges affect governance leadership and curriculum involving changes in aims and values that demand coherence Yet the traditionally disparate fields of educational leadership curriculum theory and Didaktik have developed separately both in terms of approaches to theory and theorizing in USA Europe and Asia and in the ways in which these theoretical traditions have informed empirical studies over time An additional aspect is that modern education theory was developed in relation to nation state education which in the meantime has become more complicated due to issues of globalism This volume examines the current state of affairs and addresses the issues involved In doing so it opens up a space for a renewed and thoughtful dialogue to rethink and re-theorize these traditions with non affirmative education theory moving beyond social reproduction and social transformation perspectives
