Cumming, 2020-09-25 In this biography of Reformed theologian Francis Turretin 1623 87 Nicholas A Cumming provides critical context for the life and theology of this important seventeenth century theologian and his impact on the Reformed tradition as a whole Turretin has commonly been identified as a strict scholastic theologian this work places Turretin in his broader context analyzing his life and theology in terms of the political and religious aspects of post Reformation Europe and his posthumous influence on nineteenth and twentieth century Reformed theology This work begins with a biography of Turretin including his education and ministry then proceeds to the context of Turretin s theology in the early modern and modern periods particularly in relation to his major work The Institutes of Elenctic Theology Political Thought of Peter Martyr Vermigli : (the) , 1980 Humanism and Calvinism Steven J. Reid, 2016-12-05 Across early modern Europe the confessional struggles of the Reformation touched virtually every aspect of civic life and nowhere was this more apparent than in the universities the seedbed of political and ecclesiastical society Focussing on events in Scotland this book reveals how established universities found themselves at the centre of a struggle by competing forces trying to promote their own political religious or educational beliefs and under competition from new institutions It surveys the transformation of Scotland s medieval and Catholic university system into a greatly expanded Protestant one in the decades following the Scottish Reformation of 1560 Simultaneously the study assesses the contribution of the continentally educated religious reformer Andrew Melville to this process in the context of broader European social and cultural developments including growing lay interest in education as a result of renaissance humanism and the involvement of royal and civic government as well as the new Protestant Kirk in university expansion and reform Through systematic use of largely neglected manuscript sources the book offers fresh perspectives on both Andrew Melville and the development of Scottish higher education post 1560 As well as providing a detailed picture of events in Scotland it contributes to our growing understanding of the role played by higher education in shaping society across Europe The Theology of Early French Protestantism Martin I. Klauber, 2023-08-15 In the newest volume of the Reformed Historical Theological Studies series twelve historians survey the history and doctrine of the French Reformation Calvin and the Independence of the Church Herman A. Speelman, 2014-01-22 Herman Speelman deals with a central question in the intellectual history of the sixteenth century to what extent can Calvin be regarded as responsible for the tendency in Calvinism or broader in Reformed Protestantism to form a church which has its own ecclesiastical organization and office bearers So far claiming a great deal of independence for the church has been considered an important aspect of Calvin's legacy In this line of reasoning it is assumed that Calvin was a strong opponent of the church as a state organization that did not have its own governing body and power of excommunication To better understand this issue we first examine the position of the church within the city state of Bern Secondly we direct our attention to the manner in which Calvin gave form to ecclesiastical life in Geneva Next we deal with the church in France and finally we examine the influence of Calvin and French Calvinism on the organization of the Reformed church in The Netherlands in the 1570s "An Educated Clergy" Jack C. Whytock, 2008-02-01 Scotland has long been known for its emphasis upon an educated clergy yet little serious historical attention has been given to how this was actually fostered This book begins to fill that gap While a thoroughly historical study in Scottish church history and historical theology the book also serves as a springboard for reflection and application to the work of theological education today with the evangelical Presbyterian and Reformed community Calvin's Political Theology and the Public Engagement of the Church Matthew J. Tuininga, 2017-04-06 In Calvin's Political Theology and the Public Engagement of the Church Matthew J. Tuininga explores a little appreciated dimension of John Calvin's political thought his two kingdoms theology as a model for constructive Christian participation in liberal society Widely misunderstood as a proto political culture warrior due in part to his often misinterpreted role in controversies over predestination and the heretic Servetus Calvin articulated a thoughtful approach to public life rooted in his understanding of the gospel and its teaching concerning the kingdom of God He staked his ministry in Geneva on his commitment to keeping the church distinct from the state abandoning simplistic approaches that placed one above the other while rejecting the temptations of sectarianism or separatism This revealing analysis of Calvin's vision offers timely guidance for Christians seeking a mode of faithful respectful public engagement in democratic pluralistic communities today City on the Ocean Sea: La Rochelle, 1530-1650 Kevin C. Robbins, 2021-10-11 This important volume presents the first comprehensive history of early modern La Rochelle a port town whose fractious residents became embroiled in the French Reformations Opening chapters situate the Rochelais within the geopolitics of an oceanic frontier where urbanites created a strong heavily armed civic government in part because they perceived themselves as isolated civilizing agents surrounded by the savage inhabitants of a lawless environment Analysis of the city s Reformation proceeds within this context of place and politics showing how various ranks of the citizenry idiosyncratically adopted the tenets of Calvinism amalgamating these salvific doctrines with traditional civic rites and values to the consternation of more orthodox pastors Juxtaposing serial sources from multiple archives Robbins shows with innovative detail how local political and religious struggles intermeshed setting the city and its Reformed congregations on a fatal collision course with the Bourbon monarchy Concluding chapters examine how great aristocratic families churchmen and Catholic magistrates joined in a local Counter Reformation remaking urban power politics from the ground up

Pierre de L'Estoile and his World in the Wars of Religion Tom Hamilton, 2017-04-14 The Wars of Religion embroiled France in decades of faction violence and peacemaking in the late sixteenth century This study offers a new history of these Wars of Religion from the perspective of the period s great diarist and collector Pierre de L'Estoile 1546 1611 telling the story of his life and times When historians interpret these events they inevitably depend on sources of information gathered by contemporaries none more valuable than the diaries and collection of Pierre de L'Estoile 1546 1611 who lived through the civil wars in Paris and shaped how they have been remembered ever since Taking him out of the footnotes and demonstrating his significance in the culture of the late Renaissance this is the first life of L'Estoile in any language It examines how he negotiated and commemorated the conflicts that divided France as he assembled an extraordinary collection of the relics of the troubles a collection that he called the storehouse of my curiosities The story of his life and times is the history of the civil wars in the making Focusing on a crucial individual for understanding Reformation Europe this study challenges historians assumptions about the widespread impact of confessional conflict in the sixteenth century L'Estoile s prudent non confessional responses to the events he lived through and recorded were common among his milieu of Gallican Catholics His life writing and engagement with contemporary news books and pictures reveals how individuals used different genres and media to destabilise rather than fix confessional identities Bringing together the great variety of topics in society and culture that attracted L'Estoile s curiosity this volume rethinks his world in the Wars of Religion

To Make this Land Our Own Arlin C. Migliazzo, 2007 A case study in the social history of frontier town building set in the swamps of South Carolina On the banks of the lower Savannah River the military objectives of South Carolina officials the ambitions of Swiss entrepreneur Jean Pierre Purry and the dreams of Protestants from Switzerland France Germany Italy and England converged in a planned settlement named Purrysburg This examination of the first South Carolina township in Governor Robert Johnson s strategic plan to populate and defend the colonial backcountry offers the clearest picture to date of the settlement of the colony s Southern frontier by ethnically diverse and contractually obligated immigrants Arlin C Migliazzo contends that the story of Purrysburg Township founded in 1732 and set in the forbidding environment bounded by the Savannah River and the Coosawhatchie swamps challenges the notion that white colonists shed their ethnic distinctions to become a monolithic culture He views Purrysburg as a laboratory in which to observe ethnic phenomena in the colonial and antebellum South Separated by linguistic religious and cultural barriers the migrants adapted familiar social processes from their homelands to create a workable sense of community and identity His work is one of only a handful of examples of what has been deemed the new social history methodology as applied to a South Carolina subject Initially devastated by privation and a high mortality rate Purrysburg residents also suffered the vicissitudes of an indifferent provincial elite the encroachment of lowcountry rice planters Prevost's invasion in 1779 and ultimate destruction of the settlement by Sherman's army Migliazzo details the community's changing military and economic fortunes the gradual displacement of its residents to neighboring communities the role of African Americans in the region the complex religious life of township settlers and the quirky contributions of Purry's climatological speculations to the fateful siting of this first township

Fear God, Honor the King Andrew Allan Chibi, 2020-05-14 From a medieval perspective God had provided a church to shepherd believers toward salvation It had a divine mission a sacred history a hierarchy of officers and the intellectual support of respected thinkers It provided a means for believers to interact with God Believers also had to interact with neighbors strangers and their rulers Fear God Honor the King considers that sometimes surprisingly problematic issue What is the correct relationship between the church believers and the ruling magisterial authority whether alderman mayors or kings The thinkers of the Reformation era produced many answers They explained in a variety of ways how the church related to or fit in with or was separate from or was controlled by the temporal government of the realm and they set into motion what became the determinant factors social political economic and philosophical underpinning modern Western societies determination to keep the church and the state in well defined autonomous cubicles The Reformers rival ideas ushered in new philosophies such as conciliarism and localism as well as directly conflicting doctrines such as Luther's two kingdoms or Bucer's co terminus This book examines compares and explains these new theories using the voices of the Reformers themselves

Women, Freedom, and Calvin E. Jane Dempsey Douglass, 1985-01-01 Analyzes John Calvin's doctrine of Christian freedom describes his teachings about women's public role and examines its pertinence to women's ordination

Poor Relief and Protestantism Timothy G. Fehler, 2018-04-17 This is a study of the organisation and practical operation of the system of poor relief in Emden from the late 15th century to the end of the 16th The city went through dramatic economic confessional and constitutional changes during this period and so offers an ideal setting for the study of the emergence and development of a highly organised multi jurisdictional system of social welfare in the early modern period Utilising account books church council minutes wills contracts correspondence and guild records it focuses on the day to day operation of poor relief how the many diverse institutions actually functioned As elsewhere in Europe the Reformation did not immediately result in swift changes in poor relief the Roman Catholic components of the administration of social welfare were dissolved and replaced gradually It was only when the vast changes in religious social and economic life which occurred at the middle of the 16th century forced matters that the methods of relief for the needy were revolutionised The city was flooded with refugees from the Dutch revolt there were widespread and severe economic difficulties caused by bad harvests and skyrocketing prices and the church underwent a period of intense Calvinisation only then were Reformed institutions and methods introduced At times religious arguments dominated the poor relief debate while at others the social welfare system was barely affected the effectiveness of the new systems and institutions is illuminated by an analysis of the recipients of relief during the second half of the 16th century

Infant Baptism in Reformation Geneva Karen E. Spierling, 2017-03-02

This book examines the beliefs practices and arguments surrounding the ritual of infant baptism and the raising of children in Geneva during the period of John Calvin s tenure as leader of the Reformed Church 1536 1564 It focuses particularly on the years from 1541 onward after Calvin s return to Geneva and the formation of the Consistory The work is based on sources housed primarily in the Genevan State Archives including the registers of the Consistory and the City Council While the time period of the study may be limited the approach is broad encompassing issues of theology church ritual and practices the histories of family and children and the power struggles involved in transforming not simply a church institution but the entire community surrounding it The overarching argument presented is that the ordinances and practices surrounding baptism present a framework for relations among child parents godparents church and city The design of the baptismal ceremony including liturgy participants and location provided a blueprint of the reformers vision of a well ordered community To comprehend fully the development and spread of Calvinism it is necessary to understand the context of its origins and how the ideas of Calvin and his Reformed colleagues were received in Geneva before they were disseminated throughout Europe and the world In a broad sense this project explores the tensions among church leaders city authorities parents relatives and neighbours regarding the upbringing of children in Reformed Geneva More specifically it studies the practice of infant baptism as manifested in the baptism ceremony in Geneva the ongoing practices of Catholic baptism in neighbouring areas and the similarities and tensions between these two rituals
