Genocide in Gaza Ahmet Davutoglu, Richard Falk, 2025-05-01 The December 2023 issuance of a Declaration of Conscience and Concern of Global Intellectuals to Stop Gaza Genocide to leading civil society activists and former governmental and UN officials throughout the world recorded 127 invited signatories and over 1500 endorsers On this basis the Declaration's originators Ahmet Davutoglu and Richard Falk invited a select number of signatories to an emergency conference in London to lend their authority to a further expression of the international community's deepest concerns in light of the continuation of the genocidal assault on the peoples of Gaza This book brings together the most valuable of the presentations delivered by conference participants. It provides a coherent perspective on the extreme human catastrophe that was exposed as it unfolded in real time arousing intense responses of outrage from the peoples of the world which failed to alter the shameless and shocking levels of active complicity on the part of several leading Western liberal democracies. The latter constituted a cynical embrace of moral hypocrisy and double standards paralyzing the UN and ignoring the most flagrant violations of international law on Israel's part. The book assesses the Israeli response to the Hamas attack of October 7 from the perspective of international law and morality as well as providing informed accounts of the inability of the UN to implement the demands of a permanent and unconditional ceasefire in Gaza. It also provides accounts of the implementation of forced evacuation, induced starvation and disease efforts calculated to destroy the civilian population in whole or in part. Israel's defiance of the UN, the ICJ Interim Order and international humanitarian law in the course of transparent violations of the Genocide Convention. At a time when neither governments nor international institutions are demonstrating either the will or the capability to act in accord with the rule of law or the popular will of the majority of the peoples of the world who have demonstrated against the genocide in their millions, these substantial essays give an overview of the extraordinary damage wrought and what can and should be done to protect Palestinian rights and construct a future that empowers Palestinians to give content to their right of self-determination rather than victimized by yet another effort to impose a solution from without or enable Israel to control the day after developments when the violence stops.

Knowledge and Acknowledgement in the Politics of Memory of the Armenian Genocide Vahagn Avedian, 2018-10-08. Is the Armenian Genocide a strictly historical matter? If that is the case, why is it still a topical issue capable of causing diplomatic rows and heated debates? The short answer would be that the century-old Armenian Genocide is much more than a historical question. It emerged as a political dilemma on the international arena at the San Stefano peace conference in 1878 and has remained as such into our days. The disparity between knowledge and acknowledgement, mainly ascribable to Turkey's official denial of the genocide, has only heightened the politicization of the Armenian question. Thus the memories of the WWI era refuse to be relegated to the pages of history but are rather perceived as a vivid presence. This is the result of the perpetual process of politics of memory. The politics of memory is an intricate and interdisciplinary negotiation engaging many different actors in the society who have access to a wide range of resources and measures in order to achieve their goals. By following the Armenian question during the past century up to its Centennial Commemoration in 2015, this study aims to explain why and how the politics of memory of the Armenian Genocide has kept it as a topical issue in our days.

Impediments to the Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2013. Academics, NGOs, the United Nations and individual nations are focused on the prevention and intervention of genocide. Traditionally missions to prevent or intervene in genocide have been sporadic and under resourced. The contributors to this volume consider some of the major stumbling blocks to the avoidance of genocide. Bartrop and Totten argue that realpolitik is the major impediment to the elimination of genocide. Campbell examines the lack of political will to confront genocide and Theriault describes how denial becomes an obstacle to intervention against genocide. Loyle and Davenport discuss how intervention is impeded by a lack of reliable data on genocide violence and Macgregor presents an overview of the influence of the media. Totten examines how the UN Convention on Genocide actually impedes anti genocide efforts and how the institutional configuration of the UN is itself often a stumbling block. Addressing an issue that is often overlooked, Travis examines the impact of global arms trade on genocide. Finally, Hiebert examines how international criminal prosecution of atrocities can impede preventive efforts and Hirsch provides an analysis of the strengths, weaknesses and effectiveness of major international and national prescriptions developed over the last decade. The result is a distinguished addition to Transaction's prestigious Genocide Studies series.

Law Against Genocide David Hirsh, 2003-04-04. Based on first hand observation of international war crimes tribunals and the English courts, this book examines the emergence of cosmopolitan criminal law principles and institutions that aim to protect the human rights of all individuals even when they are threatened by their own state. Patriotism and Citizenship Education Bruce Haynes, 2010-01-15. Seven authors describe the controversial nature of patriotism and citizenship education in their country, basing their account and recommendations upon their philosophical understanding of education and schooling. Offers differing national perspectives on patriotism across the United States, South Africa, New Zealand, Australia, Japan and England. Discusses varying accounts of how patriotism and citizenship education should be handled as part of the school curriculum. Provides crucial insights into how schools handle social and political demands on controversial topics.

Emotion in Posttraumatic Stress Disorder provides an up to date review of the empirical research on the relevance of emotions such as fear, anxiety, shame, guilt and disgust to posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD). It also covers emerging research on the psychophysiology and neurobiological underpinnings of emotion in PTSD, as well as the role of emotion in the behavioral, cognitive and affective difficulties experienced by individuals with PTSD. It concludes with a review of evidence based treatment approaches for PTSD and their ability to mitigate emotion dysfunction in PTSD, including prolonged exposure, cognitive processing therapy.

and acceptance based behavioral therapy Identifies how emotions are central to understanding PTSD Explore the neurobiology of emotion in PTSD Discusses emotion related difficulties in relation to PTSD such as impulsivity and emotion dysregulation Provides a review of evidence based PTSD treatments that focus on emotion      When Conscience Calls

Kristen Renwick Monroe, 2023-10-06 What is moral courage Why is it important and what drives it An argument for why we should care about moral courage and how it shapes the world around us War totalitarianism pandemics and political repression are among the many challenges and crises that force us to consider what humane people can do when the world falls apart When tolerance disappears truth becomes rare and civilized discourse is a distant ideal why do certain individuals find the courage to speak out when most do not When Conscience Calls offers powerful portraits of ordinary people performing extraordinary acts be it confronting presidents and racist mobs or simply caring for and protecting the vulnerable Uniting these portraits is the idea that moral courage stems not from choice but from one's identity Ultimately Kristen Renwick Monroe argues bravery derives from who we are our core values and our capacity to believe we must change the world When Conscience Calls is a rich examination of why some citizens embrace anger bitterness and fearmongering while others seek common ground fight against dogma and stand up to hate      ThirdWay ,1995-06 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture
