Geography & Ethnic Pluralism Colin Clarke, David Ley, Ceri Peach, 1984 Ethnic and Racial Studies Today Martin

Bulmer, John Solomos, 2013-10-18 This important collection addresses recent developments in the teaching studying and presentation of race across many disciplines including sociology politics social geography cultural studies and philosophy Drawing on the latest research in all these areas the authors provide a comprehensive account of key controversies and debates and pinpoint new directions in research and scholarship that are likely to shape the study of race and ethnicity well into the next century American Ethnic Practices in the Twenty-first Century Jill Florence Lackey, 2013-07-18

American Ethnic Practices in the Early Twenty first Century The Milwaukee Study is a work based on a twelve year research project conducted in the greater Milwaukee area by Urban Anthropology Inc The qualitative study examined the current strength of ethnicity and the contributions that ethnic practices have made to the wider society Since Barth 1970 social scientists especially sociocultural anthropologists have moved toward deconstructing ethnicity by concentrating on the malleability of ethnic identity This work takes a new approach by focusing on ethnic practices The most prominent findings in The Milwaukee Study were the ways that community building activities of ethnic groups contributed to the wider society and how this in turn can help restore a needed balance between individualism and collectivism in the United States Since the first edition of Habits of the Heart Bellah et al 1985 public discourse about ways to restore this balance has been ubiquitous Most discussions have focused only on strengthening families faith communities or neighborhoods and have ignored the activity and potential of ethnic groups even though it was during this span of time that interest in multiculturalism in education and politics reached its peak The Challenge of Ethnic Conflict to National and International Order in the 1990s, Geographic Perspectives , 1995 Society and Politics in the Caribbean Colin G. Clarke, 1991-06-18 A study of the relationship between society and politics in the Caribbean this book examines the importance of democracy to these subjects It argues that despite structural differences these ex colonies gravitate toward democratic values and practices because of European colonization

The Last Colonies Robert Aldrich, John Connell, 1998-07-13 This comprehensive and authoritative book is about the last colonies those remaining territories formally dependent on metropolitan powers It discusses the surprisingly large number of these territories mainly small isolated islands with limited resources Yet these places are not as obscure as might be expected They may be major tourist destinations military bases satellite tracking stations tax havens or desolate underpopulated spots that can become international flashpoints such as the Falklands The authors find that at a time of escalating nationalism and globalization these remnants of empire provide insights into the meanings of political economic legal and cultural independence as well as sovereignty and nationhood This book provides a broad based and provocative discussion of colonialism and interdependence in the modern world from a unique perspective Shared Space: Divided Space Michael Chisholm, David M. Smith, 2016-01-29 This specially commissioned volume of original essays first published in 1990 provides a unique view of conflict territorial behaviour and reconciliation between groups social racial religious and nationalist within states in both the developed and the developing worlds The volume as a whole shows the wide range of geographical solutions which have been adopted in attempts to limit conflict and foster stability This title underlines the importance of a geographical perspective on intergroup conflict and reconciliation and provides a broad range of real world experience in carefully chosen case studies Shared Space Divided Space will be of interest students of the social sciences as well as to general readers who will find this title to be accessible and authoritative Gender, Ethnicity and the Informal Sector in Trinidad Robert B. Potter, Sally Lloyd-Evans, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 Throughout much of the developing world and especially in Africa and Latin America the informal employment sector is growing spectacularly This study focuses on the gender and ethnic aspects of the informal economy in Trinidad British Social Trends since 1900 A. Halsey, 1988-09-29 This book tells the story of changes in the social structure of Britain from 1900 to the mid 1980s It incorporates and is a sequel to Trends in British Society since 1900 a compilation by a distinguished group of social scientists at the University of Oxford and the only comprehensive collection of British social statistics for the twentieth century as a whole Urban Housing Segregation of Minorities in Western Europe and the United States Elizabeth D. Huttman, Wim Blauw, Juliet Saltman, 1991 This book provides an expert examination and comparison of housing segregation in major population centers in the United States and Western Europe and analyzes successes and failures of government policies and desegregation programs in the United States the United Kingdom the Netherlands Sweden France and West Germany The collection begins with a review of the historical development of housing segregation in these countries describing current housing conditions concentration of housing in each country's leading cities minority populations and the housing they occupy specifically public nonprofit and owner occupied dwellings When focusing on the United States the contributors assess housing segregation antisegregation measures and institutional racism toward blacks in the Midwest and South and toward Mexican Americans throughout American cities Chapters dealing with Western Europe include housing segregation of South Asian and West Indian immigrants in Britain immigrants in Sweden Turkish and Yugoslav guest workers in West Germany and Algerian and other Arab groups in France The book concludes with discussions of public housing policies suburban desegregation resegregation and integration maintenance programs specific integration stabilization programs and desegregation efforts in one specific place Contributors Elizabeth Huttman Michal Arend Cihan Arin Maurice Blanc Wim Blauw Ger Mik Clyde McDaniels Jürgen Friedrichs Hannes Alpeis John M Goering Len Gordon Albert Mayer Rosemary Helper Barry V Johnston Terry Jones Valerie Karn G ran Lindberg Anna Lisa Lind n Deborah Phillips Dennis Keating Juliet Saltman Alan Murie Alternative Capitalisms: Geographies of Emerging Regions Robert

Gwynne, Denis Shaw, Thomas Klak, 2014-05-12 This book aims to examine the effects of globalization and economic and political transformations in those parts of the world which are now regularly referred to as emerging regions These are Latin America and the Caribbean East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union and East Asia This book breaks new ground in three areas First of all it develops a critique of the use of the term emerging regions for geographers and social scientists and relates this to world systems theory Secondly it explores the development trajectories and challenges of countries in this so called emerging world countries that will be crucial to the evolution of the world economy in the twenty first century Thirdly it compares and contrasts the pathways of both economic and political change in the three world regions under focus This is a unique approach in terms of books published in both geography and the social sciences Within the context of the three world regions the book combines historical and contemporary analysis of the evolving world system In these regions we are concerned to understand the historical expansion and extension of capitalism and how its contemporary forms of production exchange and regulation are evolving The authors believe that at the present time these processes have produced alternative capitalisms economic and associated developments which while assuredly capitalist differ in various ways from those typical of the capitalist West or core economies of North America and Western Europe The British on The Costa Del Sol Karen O'Reilly, 2013-08-06 Brits in Spain first achieved notoriety during the 1980s popularly imagined as a group made up of exiled criminals drunken hooligans and leathery looking pensioners welcome to Little England The British on the Costa Del Sol is the very first book to study this British expatriate community in any great depth and through use of interviews with members of this community paints a far more complex picture of its members In doing so the author explodes the popularly held stereotype of Brits in Spain What emerges is a rich account of who migrates their reasons for migration and the day to day realities of expatriate life Spatialized Islamophobia Kawtar Najib, 2021-11-17 This book demonstrates the spatialized and multi scalar nature of Islamophobia It provides ground breaking insights in recognising the importance of space in the formation of anti Muslim racism Through the exploration of complementary data both from existing quantitative databases and directly from victims of Islamophobia applied in two important European capitals Paris and London this book brings new materials to research on Islamophobia and argues that Islamophobia is also a spatialized process that occurs at various interrelated spatial scales globe nation urban neighbourhood and body and mind In so doing this book establishes and advances the new concept of Spatialized Islamophobia by exploring global national urban infra urban embodied and emotional Islamophobias as well as their complex interrelationships It also offer a critical discussion of the geographies of Islamophobia by pointing out the lack of geographical approaches to Islamophobia Studies By using self reflexivity the author raises important questions that may have hampered the study of Spatialized Islamophobia focusing in particular on the favoured methodologies which too often remain qualitative as well as on the whiteness of the discipline of Geography which can disrupt the legitimacy of a certain knowledge The book will be an important reference for those in the fields of Human

Geography Sociology Politics Racial Studies Religious Studies and Muslim studies Outsiders Inside Bronwen

Walter, 2002-05-03 Notions of diaspora are central to contemporary debates about race ethnicity identity and nationalism Yet the Irish diaspora one of the oldest and largest is often excluded on the grounds of whiteness Outsiders Inside explores the themes of displacement and the meanings of home for these women and their descendants Juxtaposing the visibility of Irish women in the United States with their marginalization in Britain Bronwen Walter challenges linear notions of migration and assimilation by demonstrating that two forms of identification can be held simultaneously In an age when the Northern Ireland peace process is rapidly changing global perceptions of Irishness Outsiders Inside moves the empirical study of the Irish diaspora out of the ghetto of Irish Studies and into the mainstream challenging theorists and policy makers to pay attention to the issue of white diversity Ethnoburb Wei Li, 2008-12-09 Winner of the 2009 Book Award in Social Sciences

Association for Asian American Studies This innovative work provides a new model for the analysis of ethnic and racial settlement patterns in the United States and Canada Ethnoburbs suburban ethnic clusters of residential areas and business districts in large metropolitan areas are multiracial multiethnic multicultural multilingual and often multinational communities in which one ethnic minority group has a significant concentration but does not necessarily constitute a majority Wei Li documents the processes that have evolved with the spatial transformation of the Chinese American community of Los Angeles and that have converted the San Gabriel Valley into ethnoburbs in the latter half of the twentieth century and she examines the opportunities and challenges that occurred as a result of these changes Traditional ethnic and immigrant settlements customarily take the form of either ghettos or enclaves Thus the majority of scholarly publications and mass media covering the San Gabriel Valley has described it as a Chinatown located in Los Angeles suburbs Li offers a completely different approach to understanding and analyzing this fascinating place By conducting interviews with residents a comparative spatial examination of census data and other statistical sources and fieldwork coupled with her own holistic view of the area Li gives readers an effective and fine tuned socio spatial analysis of the evolution of a new type of racially defined place The San Gabriel Valley tells a unique story but its evolution also speaks to those experiencing a similar type of ethnic and racial conurbation In sum Li sheds light on processes that are shaping other present and future ethnically and racially diverse communities The concept of the ethnoburb has redefined the way geographers and other scholars think about ethnic space place and process This book will contribute significantly to both theoretical and empirical studies of immigration by presenting a more intensive and thorough take on arguments about spatial and social processes in urban and suburban America Demography, State and Society Enda Delaney, 2000-11-21 Enda Delaney argues that migration to Britain was qualitatively different from that to North America and that transience was the overriding characteristic of Irish migrant experience in the twentieth century He provides an analysis of reasons for large scale migration in the process answering the important question of why so many people left Ireland Demography State and Society focuses on a number of vital themes many rarely mentioned in previous studies state policy in Ireland official responses to migration in Britain gender dimensions individual migrant experience patterns of settlement in Britain and the crucial phenomenon of return migration It offers much that will be of interest to scholars students and general readers in Irish migration as well as those in the wider fields of modern British and Irish history and migration studies Earth Science Today G. Singh,2009

Mixed Race Amnesia Minelle Mahtani,2014-11-10 Mixed Race Amnesia is an ambitious and critical look at how multiraciality is experienced in the global north Drawing on a series of interviews acclaimed geographer Minelle Mahtani explores some of the assumptions and attitudes people have around multiraciality She discovers that in Canada at least people of mixed race are often romanticized as being the embodiment of a post racial future an ideal that is supported by government policy and often internalized by people of mixed race As Mahtani reveals this superficial celebration of multiraciality is often done without any acknowledgment of the freight and legacy of historical racisms Consequently a strategic and collective amnesia is taking place one where complex diasporic and family histories are being lost while colonial legacies are being reinforced Mahtani argues that in response a new anti colonial approach to multiraciality is needed and she equips her readers with the analytical tools to do this The Contemporary Caribbean Robert B. Potter,David Barker,Thomas Klak,Denis Conway,2015-07-17 This text focuses on the contemporary economic social geographical environmental and political realities of the Caribbean region Historical aspects of the Caribbean such as slavery the plantation system and plantocracy are explored in order to explain the contemporary nature of and challenges faced by the Caribbean The book is divided into three parts dealing respectively with the foundations of the Caribbean rural and urban bases of the contemporary Caribbean and global restructuring and the Caribbean industry tourism and politics
