Genius And Monologue:

Genius and Monologue Ken Frieden,1985      "Steel for the Mind" Charles H. Hinnant,1994 In contrast to the views of many eighteenth century critics from Addison to Lord Kames Johnson maintains that mimesis necessarily implies the absence of what it purports to represent and thus can never achieve what Kames calls ideal presence      The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 4, The Eighteenth Century H. B. Nisbet,Claude Rawson,2005-12-08 This is a comprehensive 1997 account of the history of literary criticism in Britain and Europe between 1660 and 1800 Unlike previous histories it is not just a chronological survey of critical writing but a multidisciplinary investigation of how the understanding of literature and its various genres was transformed at the start of the modern era by developments in philosophy psychology the natural sciences linguistics and other disciplines as well as in society at large In the process modern literary theory at first often implicit in literary texts themselves emancipated itself from classical poetics and rhetoric and literary criticism emerged as a full time professional activity catering for an expanding literate public The volume is international both in coverage and in authorship Extensive bibliographies provide guidance for further specialised study

The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 4, The Eighteenth Century George Alexander Kennedy,1989 This comprehensive 1997 account of eighteenth century literary criticism is now available in paperback      The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene,Stephen Cushman,Clare Cavanagh,Jahan Ramazani,Paul Rouzer,Harris Feinsod,David Marno,Alexandra Slessarev,2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993

Graveyard Poetry Eric Parisot,2016-04-22 While immensely popular in the eighteenth century current critical wisdom regards graveyard poetry as a short lived fad with little lasting merit In the first book length study of this important poetic mode Eric Parisot suggests to the contrary that graveyard poetry is closely connected to the mid century aesthetic revision of poetics Graveyard poetry s contribution to this paradigm shift Parisot argues stems from changing religious practices and their increasing reliance on printed material to facilitate private devotion by way of affective and subjective response Coupling this perspective with graveyard poetry s obsessive preoccupation with death and salvation makes visible its importance as an articulation or negotiation between contemporary religious concerns and emerging aesthetics of poetic practice Parisot reads the poetry of Robert Blair Edward Young and Thomas Gray among others as a series of poetic experiments that attempt to accommodate changing religious and reading practices and translate religious concerns into parallel reconsiderations of poetic authority agency death and afterlife Making use of an impressive body of religious treatises sermons and verse that ground his study in a precise historical moment Parisot shows graveyard poetry s strong ties to seventeenth century devotional texts and most importantly its influential role in the development of late eighteenth century sentimentalism and Romanticism      Hosting the Monster Holly Lynn Baumgartner,Roger Davis,2008 Hosting the Monster responds to the call of the monstrous with not rejection but invitation. Positioning the monster as that which defies classification, the essays in this collection are an ongoing engagement with that which lies outside of established boundaries. With chapters ranging from the monstrous mother or the deformed child to subjectivity in transition, this volume is not only of interest to film and gender scholars and literary and cultural theorists but also students of popular culture or horror. Its wide appeal stems from its invitation both to entertain the monster and to widen the call to and the listening for the monsters that have not yet and perhaps must not yet come calling back. This sense of hospitality and non-hostility is one guiding principle of this collection, suggesting that the ability to survey and research the otherwise may reveal more about the subjectivity of the self through the wisdom of the other, however monstrous the manifestation.

Holly Lynn Baumgartner is an associate professor of Humanities and English at Mercy College of Northwest Ohio. Her articles have appeared in Reflections, Rhizomes, American Book Review and other journals. Roger Davis is an instructor of English at MacEwan College in Edmonton, Canada. He is co-author of Essay Writing for Canadian Students and his literary interests include poetry, poetics, and popular culture.

Inspiration and Utmost Art: The Poetics of Early Modern English Psalm Translations Janina Niefer, 2018
 This study is concerned with Early Modern English psalm translations. It focusses on the connection between inspiration and formal perfection as it appears in George Wither's A Preparation to the Psalter, Philip Sidney's The Defence of Poesy, The Sidney Psalter and The Bay Psalm Book. Taking into account theological, philosophical and literary contexts of the time, it reveals the struggle to find a suitable language in praise of God as a main concern of Early Modern religious writers and presents concepts which are highly relevant for the religious poetry of the time.
