Genius In Their Own Words The Intellectual Journeys Of Seven Great 20th Century Thinkers:

Genius--in Their Own Words David Ramsay Steele,2002 In this book seven great modern thinkers trace the roots of their contributions to philosophy Essays include A J Ayer on what led to his logical positivist manifesto Language Truth and Logic and Martin Buber on the origins of his view of existence Other contributors include Bertrand Russell Albert Einstein and Jean Paul Sartre Pirkei Avot Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz,2018-05-30 Pirkei Avot is the urtext of Jewish practical wisdom In many ways the words of Pirkei Avot were the first recorded manifesto of social justice in Western civilization This commentary explores text through a lens of contemporary social justice and moral philosophy engaging both classical commentators and modern thinkers Cybernetic-Existentialism Steve Dixon,2019-11-14 Cybernetic Existentialism Freedom Systems and Being for Others in Contemporary Arts and Performance offers a unique discourse and an original aesthetic theory It argues that fusing perspectives from the philosophy of Existentialism with insights from the universal science of cybernetics provides a new analytical lens and deconstructive methodology to critique art In this study Steve Dixon examines how a range of artists works reveal the ideas of Existentialist philosophers including Kierkegaard Camus de Beauvoir and Sartre on freedom being and nothingness eternal recurrence the absurd and being for others Simultaneously these artworks are shown to engage in complex explorations of concepts proposed by cyberneticians including Wiener Shannon and Bateson on information theory and noise feedback loops circularity adaptive ecosystems autopoiesis and emergence Dixon s groundbreaking book demonstrates how fusing insights and knowledge from these two fields can throw new light on pressing issues within contemporary arts and culture including authenticity angst and alienation homeostasis radical politics and the human as system Independent Thinking in an Uncertain World Valerie A. Brown,John A. Harris,David Waltner-Toews,2019-04-29 Any effective response to an uncertain future will require independently thinking individuals working together Human ideas and actions have led to unprecedented changes in the relationships among humans and between humans and the Earth Changes in the air we breathe the water we drink and the energy we use are evidence of Nature which has no special interest in sustaining human life looking out for itself Even the evolutionary context for humans has altered Evolutionary pressures from the digital communication revolution have been added to those from natural systems For humans to meet these challenges requires social re organisation that is neither simple nor easy Independent Thinking in an Uncertain World explores workable field tested strategies from the frontiers of creating a viable future for humans on Earth Based on research results from hundreds of social learning workshops with communities worldwide many of them part of Australian National University s Local Sustainability Project authors with diverse interests explore the gap between open minded individual thinking and closed socially defined knowledges The multiple dimensions of individual social and biophysical ways of thinking are combined in ways that allow open minded individuals to learn from one another Communicative Engagement and Social Liberation Patricia Arneson,2013-11-29 Communicative

Engagement and Social Liberation Justice Will Be Made recognizes limitations in contemporary understandings that separate history and rhetoric Drawing together ontological and epistemic perspectives to allow for a fuller appreciation of communication in shaping lived experience facets of the two academic subjects are united in acts of communicative engagement Communicative engagement draws from Anna Teresa Tymieniecka s writings on the human condition extends the communicative praxis of philosopher Calvin O Schrag by reuniting theoria po esis praxis expands Ramsey Eric Ramsey s writings to provide ground for vitalizing social liberation and includes the work of philosophers including Hans Georg Gadamer Maurice Merleau Ponty and Michel Foucault as well as philosophers of communication including Lenore Langsdorf Michael J Hyde Corey Anton and others who guide a recollection of the significance of po esis in human communication Myrtilla Miner Mary White Ovington and Jessie Daniel Ames dedicated their lives to being out of place and speaking out of turn to alter the way humanity was understood by members of society at large The lived experiences of these historical figures assists readers in recognizing how creativity po esis can potentially enable liberation from restrictive social circumstances

Groundless Grounds Lee Braver,2012-02-03 An in depth comparison of Wittgenstein and Heidegger shows how the views of both philosophers emerge from a fundamental attempt to dispense with the transcendent Ludwig Wittgenstein and Martin Heidegger are two of the most important and two of the most difficult philosophers of the twentieth century indelibly influencing the course of continental and analytic philosophy respectively In Groundless Grounds Lee Braver argues that the views of both thinkers emerge from a fundamental attempt to create a philosophy that has dispensed with everything transcendent so that we may be satisfied with the human Examining the central topics of their thought in detail Braver finds that Wittgenstein and Heidegger construct a philosophy based on original finitude finitude without the contrast of the infinite In Braver s elegant analysis these two difficult bodies of work offer mutual illumination rather than compounded obscurity Moreover bringing the most influential thinkers in continental and analytic philosophy into dialogue with each other may enable broader conversations between these two divergent branches of philosophy Braver s meticulously researched and strongly argued account shows that both Wittgenstein and Heidegger strive to construct a new conception of reason free of the illusions of the past and appropriate to the kind of beings that we are Readers interested in either philosopher or concerned more generally with the history of twentieth century philosophy as well as questions of the nature of reason will find Groundless Grounds of interest

Living Chinese Philosophy Roger T. Ames,2024-10-01 In Living Chinese Philosophy Roger T Ames uses comparative cultural hermeneutics as a method for contrasting classical Greek ontology the science of being in itself with classical Chinese zoetology the art of living which is made explicit in the Yijing or Book of Changes Parmenides Plato and Aristotle give us a substance ontology grounded in being qua being or being per se to on he on that guarantees a permanent and unchanging subject as the substratum for the human experience This substratum or essence includes its purpose for being telos and defines the what it means to be a thing of this kind eidos of any particular thing thus setting a closed exclusive boundary and the strict identity necessary for a particular thing to be this and not that In the Book of Changes we find a vocabulary that makes explicit cosmological assumptions that are a stark alternative to this substance ontology It also provides the interpretive context for the canonical texts by locating them within a holistic organic and ecological worldview To provide a meaningful contrast with this fundamental assumption of on or being we might borrow the Greek notion of zoe or life and create the neologism zoe tology as the art of living shengshenglun This cosmology begins from living sheng itself as the motive force behind change and gives us a world of boundless becomings not things that are but events that are happening a contrast between an ontological conception of human beings and a process conception of what the author calls human becomings

Confucian Role Ethics Roger T Ames,2011-08-03 In this landmark work noted comparative philosopher Roger T Ames interprets how the classics of the Confucian canon portray the authentic ethical human being He argues that many distinguished commentators on Confucian ethics have explained the fundamental ideas and terms of this distinctively Chinese philosophy by superimposing Western concepts and categories effectively collapsing this rich tradition into a subcategory of virtue ethics Beginning by addressing the problem of responsible cultural comparisons Ames then formulates the interpretive context necessary to locate the texts within their own cultural ambiance Exploring the relational notion of person that grounds Confucian philosophy he pursues a nuanced understanding of the cluster of terms through which Confucian role ethics is expressed Drawing on Western and Chinese sources Ames provides a convincing argument that the only way to understand the Confucian vision of the consummate life is to take the tradition on its own terms

Steve Park, 2017-03-14 Clives Staples Lewis 1898 1963 called his theological writings as that of a layman and an amateur who merely attempted to restate ancient and orthodox doctrines However S Steve Park argues that Lewis s theological reflections are well informed thoughtful and weighty For instance Lewis s notion of mere Christianity consistently shows his commitment to supernaturalism vs naturalism and eucatastrophic salvationism vs ethical developmentalism in sharp contrast to many prevailing theologians of his time In this book the author expounded Lewis s theological writings rather comprehensively and organized the results according to Lewis s signature literary motif of the journey towards home in four stages Away from Home Homeward Turning Home Away from Home and The Final Home Under these headings Lewis s major theological and literary themes find illuminating treatments with rich contents and penetrating analyses In so doing the author presents to the readers probably for the first time a systematic theology of C S Lewis It turns out that Lewis more than just a storyteller was a significant participant in the world of theological reflections demonstrating himself to be a rather formidable theological mind to be reckoned with
