World War II kept America's aspirations in check for about half a century until the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991. During this period America extended NATO over most of Western Europe. With the Soviet Union succeeded by an initially weak Russia, America remained the only superpower and used NATO to further extend its influence. By 2020 NATO expanded to most of Eastern Europe and the Balkans, presenting a growing threat to Russia. The next big target was Ukraine. In 2014, America orchestrated the toppling of Russia-leaning President Yanukovich and installed a neo-Nazi government. This resulted in widespread demonstrations against it; massacres took place in Russian-speaking cities; Crimea seceded and Donetsk and Luhansk declared themselves autonomous republics. The government declared the demonstrators terrorists and bombed its eastern regions for 8 years. When president Zelensky decided to subdue the Donbass by military force, the two Donbass republics requested Russia's help, and on 24 February 2022 Russian troops entered the Donbass. This was the beginning of the SMO, Russia's Special Military Operation to protect Ukraine's Russian-speaking population against the civil war waged against them by their own government since 2014. Media reporting on the conflict was and is highly biased and selective, presenting an image often at odds with facts and crucial details needed to understand what is happening and why. This book tries to complete the picture.

China: From Poverty to World Power Paolo Uriò, 2024-10-19. The second edition of this book, updated to February 24, 2024, presents a comprehensive evaluation of the strategy implemented by China to manage its modernization process. The author evaluates to what extent the economy has been developed, whether the imbalances due to the priority given to economic development have been corrected, and whether the improvements of science and technology have allowed China to develop world-class high-tech sectors and a modern defence. Clearly, the end of the XX Century saw the fulfilment of Zhou En Lai's four modernizations, i.e. the acquisition of power resources that fulfilled Mao's proud 1949 statement: "we stood up," thereby projecting China into the international arena as a re-emerging world power. The author insists on the fundamental difference between American and Chinese ideologies as the main drivers of their foreign policy, i.e. the extreme rigidity of the former compared to the remarkable flexibility and adaptability of the latter. He further explains the consequences of the increasingly aggressive American foreign policy, i.e. the US pretence to act as the leader of the existential struggle between democracy and dictatorship. This posture reached its apex during the Ukrainian and the Middle East crises that unveiled the irreversible decline of the West and have become two formidable accelerators of the transition from the unipolar world America made to the multipolar world promoted by China, Russia, and the BRICS.

Political and Economic Transition in Russia Ararat L. Osipian, 2018-12-27. This book analyzes privatization reforms, property rights, and raiders in post-Soviet Russia. The author surveys the existing literature in the context of predatory raiding in Russia and introduces the notion and concept of this phenomena; he suggests that the study may serve as an explanatory model for corporate property and land raiding in Russia. Building on previous scholarship, this monograph conceptualizes the predatory character of corporate hostile takeovers in Russia and links it with the coercive nature of the ruling authoritarian regime.
