Geographies And Moralities International Perspectives On Justice Development And Place:

Geographies and Moralities Roger Lee, David M. Smith, 2011-07-22 This topical book addresses contemporary concern with the interconnections between geography and morality. Covers both the geographical context of morality and moralities in geographical methods and practices. Contains up to date case studies based on original research. Deals with controversial issues such as problems of globalization, European integration, human rights in Nigeria, territorial conflict in Israel and land reform in post apartheid South Africa. The editors are well published leading international authorities. The contributors are drawn from Australia, Eastern Europe, Israel, South Africa, the UK and the US. Interrogating Alterity Roger Lee, Mr Andrew E G Jonas, Mr Duncan Fuller, 2012-11-28

Alternative ways of thinking, analysing and performing economic geographies have become increasingly significant in recent years, partly due to the recent financial crisis which has had social and political consequences throughout the world. Yet there is a danger that the debate about alternatives may become simply a way of fixing global capitalism in its present crisis-ridden form. Instead, the analysis of alternative economic spaces must continue to offer a critique of the very notion of capitalism as a universal if variable set of social relations. This important book brings together critical analyses of alterity from across the social sciences and humanities, refining and advancing what alternative economies and polities are, how they are formed, what difficulties and problems they face, and how they might be sustained. A central theme is the need to examine critically both the material contexts and the conceptual categories deployed in the making of alternative economies. Taking Care of the Future Oliver Pattenden, 2018-03-06

Taking Care of the Future examines the moral dimensions and transformative capacities of education and humanitarianism through an intimate portrayal of learners, volunteers, donors and educators at a special needs school in South Africa and a partnering UK based charity. Drawing on his professional experience of inclusive education in London, Oliver Pattenden investigates how systems of schooling regularly exclude and mishandle marginalized populations, particularly exploring how street kids and poverty-afflicted young South Africans experience these dynamics as they attempt to fashion their futures. By unpacking the ethical terrains of fundraising, voluntourism, Christian benevolence, human rights, colonial legacies and the post-apartheid transition, Pattenden analyzes how political, economic and social aspects of intervention materialize to transform the lives of all those involved. Competitiveness and Solidarity in the European Union Paolo Chiocchetti, Frédéric Allemand, 2018-12-07 Starting in the 1980s, competitive pressures and the ideology of competitiveness have shaken and transformed traditional models of development, public policy and governance in Europe. This edited book carries out a comprehensive interdisciplinary and innovative analysis of the relationship between competitiveness and solidarity in the contemporary European Union. It offers an original contribution to the scholarly debates on the current developments and challenges of welfare states, social and economic policies and forms of governance in the European Union. Bringing together an international team of cutting-edge scholars in the social sciences and the humanities, Competitiveness and Solidarity in the European Union sheds light on the conceptual richness and policy relevance of these relationships pointing to important avenues to make the European Union more economically successful and socially fairer This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European Union studies and more broadly of EU Law Public Policy Economics Sociology Political Science Geography and Contemporary History

Polar Tourism Alain A. Grenier, Dieter K. Müller, 2012-10-01 T00:00:00-04:00 The creation of the Nunavik is a major step forward both for the Province of Quebec and its Inuit population Not only does it underline the recognition of the Inuit people and their identity but it also stresses the importance of discussing some fundamental issues regarding the emancipation of the Inuit their empowerment the development and management of the northern resources of Quebec and the protection and conservation of the fragile Nordic ecosystems Rich in culture and scenery Nunavik has identified tourism as one of the main and best suited avenue for economic development But before Nunavik can truly enjoy the benefits of a well established tourism industry many challenges need to be met The development of tourism in a new destination is not only challenging but it requires human efforts political and economic will over a large amount of time without much guaranties as to what will work or not It is in this context that in August 2008 the members of the newly created International Polar Tourism Research Network IPTRN came to Kangiqsujjuak Nunavik to discuss how tourism can play a role in regional development The collection of articles presented here is the result of the coming together of a group of polar tourism researchers from around the world who met in Nunavik the northernmost part of Quebec to discuss polar tourism as a tool for regional development Such a book does not claim to address all issues facing the polar destinations It is nevertheless a base for reflection Many of the new emerging regions of the circumpolar world like the Nunavik are experimenting with new powers and responsibilities For scientists this is an excellent time to assist with the experiences that have been well documented from other Northern Arctic and polar regions For tourism this book is meant to offer a range of perspectives on how challenges can be met and how solutions can be implemented for the benefit of all local interests

Alexander, Eduardo Moisés Peñalver, Eduardo M. Peñalver, 2010 Property and Community fills a major gap in the legal literature on property and its relationship to community The essays included differ from past discussions including those provided by law and economics by providing richer accounts of community By and large prior discussions by property theorists treat communities as agglomerations of individuals and eschew substantive accounts of justice favoring what Charles Taylor has called procedural conceptions These perspectives on ownership obscure the possibility that the community might have a moral status that differs from neighboring owners or from non owning individuals This book examines a variety of social practices that implicate community in its relationship to property These practices range from more obvious property based communities like Israeli kibbutzim to surprising examples such as queues Aspects of law and community in relationship to legal and social institutions both inside and outside of the United States are discussed Alexander and Pe alver seek to mediate the distance between abstract theory and mundane features of daily life to provide a rich textured treatment of the relationship between law and community Instead of defining community in abstractly theoretical terms they approach the subject through the lens of concrete institutions and social practices In doing so they not only enrich our empirical understanding of the relationship between property and community but also provide important insights into the concept of community itself      The Ethnopoetics of Space and Transformation Stuart C.
