Presents twelve literature based units for studying geography providing general information about the location topography climate flora and fauna and unique features of each region and including a selection of children s books that may be used to further understanding of the focus area Outlines of History Marcius Willson, 1854 Digital Prohibition Carolyn Guertin, 2012-04-26 The act of creation requires us to remix existing cultural content and yet recent sweeping changes to copyright laws have criminalized the creative act as a violation of corporate rights in a commodified world Copyright was originally designed to protect publishers not authors and has now gained a stranglehold on our ability to transport read write teach and publish digital materials Contrasting Western models with issues of piracy as practiced in Asia Digital Prohibition explores the concept of authorship as a capitalist institution and posits the Marxist idea of the multitude la Antonio Negri and Michael Hardt and Paulo Virno as a new collaborative model for creation in the digital age Looking at how digital culture has transformed unitary authorship from its book bound parameters into a collective and dispersed endeavor Dr Guertin examines process based forms as diverse as blogs Facebook Twitter performance art immersive environments smart mobs hacktivism tactical media machinima generative computer games like Spore and The Sims and augmented reality

Writing the Map of Anglo-Saxon England Nicholas Howe, 2008-01-01 Eminent Anglo Saxonist Nicholas Howe explores how the English in the centuries before the Norman Conquest located themselves both literally and imaginatively in the world His elegantly written study focuses on Anglo Saxon representations of place as revealed in a wide variety of texts in Latin and Old English as well as in diagrams of holy sites and a single map of the known world found in British Library Cotton Tiberius B v The scholar s investigations are supplemented and aided by insights gleaned from his many trips to physical sites The Anglo Saxons possessed a remarkable body of geographical knowledge in written rather than cartographic form Howe demonstrates To understand fully their cultural geography he considers Anglo Saxon writings about the places they actually inhabited and those they imagined He finds in Anglo Saxon geographic images a persistent sense of being far from the center of the world and he discusses how these migratory peoples narrowed that distance and developed ways to define themselves
