Dana, 2007 This book offers an original collection of international studies on indigenous entrepreneurship Through these specific lenses entrepreneurship greatly appears as a set of cultural values based behaviours Once more culture and human values are placed at the heart of entrepreneurship as an economic and social phenomenon Alain Fayolle EM Lyon and CERAG Laboratory France and Solvay

Business School Belgium A must have for researchers of developmental economics as well as for entrepreneurship scholars this collection assembles studies of indigenous entrepreneurship from five continent Participating in Development Alan Bicker,Johan Pottier,Paul Sillitoe,2003-12-16 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Wise Practices Robert Hamilton,John Borrows,Brent Mainprize,Ryan Beaton,Joshua Ben David Nichols,2021-10-01 Indigenous peoples in Canada are striving for greater economic prosperity and political self determination Investigating specific legal economic and political practices and including research from interviews with Indigenous political and business leaders this collection seeks to provide insights grounded in lived experience Covering such critical topics as economic justice and self determination and the barriers faced in pursuing each Wise Practices sets out to understand the issues not in terms of sweeping empirical findings but through particular experiences of individuals and communities The choice to focus on specific practices of law and governance is a conscious rejection of idealized theorizing about law and governance and represents an important step beyond the existing scholarship This volume offers readers a broad scope of perspectives incorporating contemporary thought on Indigenous law and legal orders the impact of state law on Indigenous peoples theories and practices of economic development and grounded practices of governances While the authors address a range of topics each does so in a way that sheds light on how Indigenous practices of law and governance support the social and economic development of Indigenous peoples Aboriginal Conditions Jerry P. White,Paul S. Maxim,Dan Beavon,2011-11-01 What role does social science research play in public policy decisions on Aboriginal issues How can policymakers Aboriginal organizations and social scientists collaborate to best serve Aboriginal communities and the policymaking processes that affect them Aboriginal Conditions considers such questions with an aim to promote policymaking that is firmly based on social scientific evidence Aimed at three main constituencies Aboriginal and non Aboriginal social scientists government and Aboriginal policymakers and Aboriginal communities the book has multiple purposes First it presents findings from recent research with the goal of advancing research agenda and stimulating positive social development Second it encourages greater links between the social scientific and external research communities and demonstrates the kind of research needed as a foundation for public policy Finally it acts as a guide to research methods for Aboriginal communities and organizations and promotes cooperation between researchers and Aboriginal peoples in an effort to ensure that research decisions serve both groups equally A vital addition to public policy and Native studies Aboriginal Conditions will be welcomed by social scientists policymakers and academics working in these fields Non-market Entrepreneurship G. E. Shockley,2009-01-01 Non market entrepreneurship consists of all forms of entrepreneurship not being undertaken solely for purposes of profit maximization or commercialization This work builds a theoretical edifice within the field of entrepreneurship and helps to establish and delineate the contours of the research field of non market entrepreneurship Entrepreneurship As Social Change Chris Steyaert,Daniel Hjorth,2008-01-01 a reflective and scholarly work that presents exciting and challenging views to mainstream entrepreneurship The four books comprising the series would certainly be a valuable addition to any entrepreneurship library However each book also stands alone as an individual purchase Lorraine Warren International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research The narrative and flow of the book is superb and very interesting to read The book is well edited and thought provoking which makes it an interesting read Vanessa Ratten Journal of Enterprising Communities People and Places in the Global Economy This book the third in the Movements in Entrepreneurship series examines entrepreneurship as a societal phenomenon It provides an in depth study of the social aspects of entrepreneurship illustrating how entrepreneurship affects society The need to move beyond economy to disclose entrepreneurship in its societal forms is demonstrated as is the relevance of our understanding of entrepreneurship as a societal phenomenon The contributors show that entrepreneurship is a society creating force and as such it evokes new questions for entrepreneurship research and attempts to engage with new theoretical formulations They begin with discussions on early Schumpeter and a rhetorical analysis of the current academic literature on social entrepreneurship They go on to present myriad contextual examples of how entrepreneurship can shape social change and indicate how this is initiated through various social settings relationships and communities Through rich empirical work this book explores the social of social entrepreneurship and in doing so shows us how entrepreneurship is at home where society is created As such it will prove a fascinating read for academics researchers and students with an interest in entrepreneurship sociology and economic sociology
