Global Governance on Renewable Energy Sybille Roehrkasten, 2015-06-17 Comparing Germany's and Brazil's government perspectives Sybille Roehrkasten reveals that the ideas on global renewable energy governance are highly contested In her study the author sheds light on the politics behind the definition of global governance issues focusing on two pioneers in the worldwide promotion of renewables and two decisive players in this emergent area of global cooperation She demonstrates that ideas about problems and solutions in transboundary policy making differ widely and that these differences are caused by the decision makers policy contexts and self interests The differences concern key aspects in global governance on renewables such as global challenges to be addressed favored renewables options barriers to renewables promotion and tasks for cooperation Southeast Asian Affairs 2009 Daljit Singh, 2003-08-01 Southeast Asian Affairs 2009 provides an informed and readable analysis of events and developments in the region in 2008 In the regional section of the volume the first two articles give the political and economic overview of Southeast Asia the third discusses the use of mediation as a means for conflict resolution while the fourth examines regional cooperation in maritime security arena Eleven country reviews as well as six special theme articles follow covering political economic security and social developments in the various countries and their implications for the region Introduction to Suriname Gilad James, PhD, Suriname is a small country located in South America bordered by French Guiana to the east Guyana to the west Brazil to the south and the Atlantic Ocean to the north Formerly known as Dutch Guiana Suriname is the smallest country in South America and has a population of approximately 600 000 people Suriname is a diverse country with a mixture of cultures including indigenous people Creole Maroons descendants of African slaves Hindustani from the Indian subcontinent and Javanese The official language of Suriname is Dutch while Sranan Tongo an English based creole language is widely spoken The economy of Suriname is heavily dependent on exports of bauxite gold and oil Despite being a relatively small country Suriname has a rich cultural heritage boasting diverse cuisines music dances and traditions The country is also known for its natural attractions such as the Amazon Rainforest the Brownsberg Nature Park and the Kaieteur Falls Balancing

Individualism and Collectivism Janet McIntyre-Mills, Norma Romm, Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes, 2017-10-03 This book addresses the social and environmental justice challenge to live sustainably and well. It considers the consequences of our social, economic, and environmental policy and governance decisions for this generation and the next. The book tests out ways to improve representation, accountability, and regeneration. It addresses the need to take into account the ethical implications of policy and governance decisions in the short, medium, and long term based on testing out the implications for self, other, and the environment. This book recognizes the negative impact that humans have had on the Earth's ecosystem and recommends a less anthropocentric way of looking at policies and governance. The chapters discuss the geologic impact that people have had on the globe, both positive and negative, and brings awareness to the anthropocentric interventions that have influenced life on Earth during the Holocene era. Based on these observations, the authors discuss original ideas and critical reviews on ways to govern those who interpret the world in terms of human values and experience and to conduct an egalitarian lifestyle. These ideas address the growing rise in the size of the ecological footprints of some at the expense of the majority, the growth in unsustainable food choices, and of displaced people, and the need for a new sense of relationship with nature and other animals, among other issues. The chapters included in Balancing Individualism and Collectivism: Social and Environmental Justice encourage readers to challenge the sustainability agenda of the anthropocentric life. Proposed solutions to these unsustainable actions include structuralized interventions and volunteerism through encouragement and education with a focus on protecting current and future generations of life through new governmental etiquette and human cognizance.

Bridging Social Inequality Gaps - Concepts, Theories, Methods, and Tools, 2024-09-18 Bridging Social Inequality Gaps: Concepts, Theories, Methods, and Tools focuses on contemporary discussions around multifaceted causes, explanations, and responses to social disparities. The contributors provide studies related to social and cultural dimensions of inequality, economic and technological dimensions of inequality, environmental dimensions of inequality, and political, ethical, and legal dimensions of inequality, as well as a variety of other perspectives on disparities. The volume also covers crucial issues and challenges for the global, national, regional, and local implementation of public policies to reduce inequalities, including innovative actions, projects, and programs focused on achieving the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The collection includes chapters encompassing research and practical recommendations from various disciplines such as sociology, economics, management, political science, administrative science, development studies, public health, peace and conflict studies, cultural studies, educational studies, communication studies, and social work. This book is an asset to academic and expert communities interested in theories of social inequality, as well as effective measurement tools, public services, and strategies. Moreover, the volume helps students, practitioners, and people working in government, business, and nonprofit organizations to build more equitable social relationships.
