Grillparzer's Libussa William C. Reeve, 1999 In Grillparzer's Libussa William Reeve provides an important interpretation of a work that has received little detailed attention from European and American critics The play has been dealt with in a broader context in numerous monograph length overviews or introductions to Grillparzer but this is the first time that it has received the careful consideration it deserves

Body Dialectics in the Age of Goethe, 2016-08-09 In opposition to an essentialist conceptualization the social construct of the human body in literature can be analyzed and described by means of effective methodologies that are based on Discourse Theory Theory of Cultural Transmission and Ecology System Theory and Media Theory In this perspective the body is perceived as a complex arrangement of substantiation substitution and omission depending on demands expectations and prohibitions of the dominant discourse network The term Body Dialectics stands for the attempt to decipher and for a moment freeze the web of such discursive arrangements that constitute the fictitious notion of the body in the framework of a specific historic environment here in the Age of Goethe

Offshore Finance and Global Governance William Vlcek, 2016-11-02 This book analyzes shifting international taxation strategies in pursuit of tax nomads individuals and companies who minimize their tax obligations among multiple countries Focusing on the efforts of the United States the collective endeavours of the European Union and the global initiative of the OECD under G20 guidance it investigates their attempts to understand and control the mechanisms employed by such nomads The author directs particular attention to intellectual property used by multinational corporations to move income from high tax to low tax locations Contrary to claims that globalization hinders tax collection Vlcek argues that state sovereignty and state power remain the defining characteristic of international taxation The EU and OECD in turn he concludes are leveraging cooperation with the US to force other countries to share taxpayer information with them This significant work will interest economists political scientists and tax experts div
